From the Religious Souvenir, for 1839. AGRICULTURE.

BY C. W. EVEREST. How blest the Farmer's simple life? How pure the joy it yields! Far from the world's tempestuous strife, Free 'mid the scented fields!

When morning woos, the roseate hue O'er the far fulls away, His footsteps brush the silvery dew, To greet the welcoming day.

When Sol's first beam in glory grows. And blith the sky-lark's song, Pleased, to his toil the farmer goes, With cheerful steps along.

While Noon broods o'er the sultry sky, And sun beams fierce are cast, Where the cool streamLt wanders by, He shares his sweet repast.

When twilight's gentlest shadows fall Along the darkening plain, He lists his faithful watch-dog's call, To warn the listening train.

Down the green lane young hurrying feet Their eager pathway press, His loved one's come in joy to greet. And claim their sires caress.

Then, when the evening prayer is said, And Heaven with praise is blest, How sweet reclines his weary head, On slumber's couch to rest.

Nor deem that fears his dreams alarm, Nor cares with backing din; Without, his dogs will guard from harm, And all is peace within.

Oh, ye who run in Folly's race To win a worthless prize! Learn, from the simple tale we trace, Where true contentment lies!

A CHANGE FOR THE BETTER.—The Al-bany Daily Advertiser says:—The Albany Theatre is about to be conveited into an ples Episcopal Church, after an elegant plan by Mr. Rector, the architect.
