

Pennsylvania Legislature.

In the Senate on Friday, Mr. Williams of Allegheny, called to an account Mr. Miller of Adams, for the speech published over his name in the Keystone during the recess; and which he declared the Senator never delivered in the Senate. The speech was characterized by the most consummate blackguardism and abusive epithets, and Mr. Williams declared, that it never was made in the Senate. Miller acted as if he felt himself in a forked stick—and would neither own nor disown the speech. Considerable argument was had upon the subject, nearly the whole of the Senate agreed that the gentleman was disposed to shine in borrowed plumage.

In the House, a resolution directing the committee to inquire into the expediency of reporting a bill, giving the people an opportunity to declare at the ballot boxes whether they desire to elect their canal commissioners, was voted down by the Loco Focos.

On Saturday in the Senate, the petition of the contractors published in another column, was presented and caused considerable debate, and was referred to the committee. Mr. Williams offered a resolution and preamble, relative to the pretended speech of Mr. Miller, and to appoint a committee to report how far the privileges of the Senate had been abused, with power to send for persons and papers. Some discussion was had upon it; the Locos urging Miller, not to avow or disavow the speech; and the Democrats showing up his speech and himself. Nothing was done in the House.

On Monday, the resolution of Mr. Williams, was called up—much debate arose on the subject. The Locos trying to back poor Miller, and the Democrats showing the foulness of the libel on the Senate, contained in the speech. Mr. Brown the Philadelphia county Senator, recommended a resort to the laws of honor; when Mr. Pearson gave him a severe castigation, showing that he was sworn to support the constitution, and he was affronted to hear him recommending a violation of that instrument. The resolution was finally passed, in the following shape.

Whereas, The editors of a certain news paper entitled the Keystone, printed in the borough of Harrisburg, have under the color of a speech pretended to have been delivered in the Senate of Pennsylvania, by T. C. Miller, a member thereof from the county of Adams, published a foul and infamous libel on several of its members, reflecting by the coarseness and indecency of its language, the highest discredit upon the character for dignity and decorum of the body in which the same is alleged to have been delivered.

And Whereas, the said Thomas C. Miller has declined to avow or disavow the authorship of that publication; and it behooves this body to protect its own dignity by ascertaining whether the said T. C. Miller did deliver such speech on the floor of this Senate; and if not, whether the same was written, or caused to be published by the said Senator.—Therefore,

Resolved, That a committee of five be appointed by the Senate, whose duty it shall be to enquire whether a speech published in a newspaper called the Keystone of the date of April 10th, and purporting to have been delivered in the Senate by T. C. Miller, a Senator from the county of Adams, was uttered on the floor of the Senate, and if not by whom, or under whose authority the same was written or published, how far the privilege of the Senate are affected thereby, and what order ought to be taken in the premises, with power to send for the persons and papers.

In the House, the petition of the contractors was presented to a select committee. The committee in Mr. Stevens' case reported that he 'had resigned,' and called on the speaker to issue a warrant for a new election. The minority entered their protest against the whole course.—Thus has this house of Loco Foco Demagogues, consummated the outrage upon the people, and disfranchised a county.

On Tuesday, the Senate finally passed the bill for the pay of the military. In the House, Mr. Kettlewell presented the proceedings of a meeting held in Adams county—Mr. Elwee objected to having them read; much debate arose, and the Locos showing a disposition, not to hear the voice of the people at all—and to inflict tell the people that they had elected them, and they considered that they had no right to talk to them about their duty. The proceedings were read, and we wonder not that they disliked their contents, for we never read a more scorching exposition of the conduct of the House, in refusing Mr. Stevens a seat, and they conclude by requesting Mr. Kettlewell to withdraw from the House and have no part nor lot in the matter, unless they receive such members as they choose to send. The petition was rejected, and the Legislature of Pennsylvania forever disgraced, and the rights of the people insulted, and disregarded—the constitution disregarded and trampled upon, and a precedent established, which is sure to bring our country to sorrow and to shame.

On Wednesday in the House, a petition was presented from friends of the present administration, asking the passage of a law to elect canal commissioners. A resolution was passed calling upon the canal commissioners to know if any contracts had been declared vacant—if so, what to.

On Thursday, the minority of the committee in Stevens' case made an able and conclusive report, from which we make a short extract.

'No word or words of resignation are contained in Mr. Stevens' letter.

He did not intend it as a resignation as appears by his desire to take his seat.

His constituents did not receive it as a resignation, but on the contrary required him to take his seat.

There was therefore no resignation.

Were Euclid alive, he would say that the very statement of the facts reduces the position of the committee to an absurdity.

I recommend the substitution of the following resolution for the first one reported by the committee.

Resolved, That Thaddeus Stevens, a member elect from Adams county, has not forfeited his right to a seat in this House.

THO. S. CUNNINGHAM."

Upon this report there arose considerable discussion, and the Loco Focos finally ordered it back to the minority to erase such parts as was objectionable. Which we of course consider must mean the whole document. Mr. Kettlewell again made a motion, that Mr. Stevens be sworn in which was amended by the recreant Butler, so as to make it an act of magnanimity, instead of duty, and thus admit him. The House adjourned before any action.

On Friday, they passed a resolution declaring the seat of Mr. Stevens vacant—whereupon Mr. Kettlewell gave notice that he would withdraw.

The article published below, concerning the new and popular doctrine advanced by the illustrious Goelicke of Germany, cannot fail of exciting a deep and thrilling interest throughout our country.

[Translated from the German.]

LOUIS OFFON GOELICKE, OF GERMANY, THE GREATEST OF HUMAN BENEFACTORS.

Citizens of North and South America.

To LOUIS OFFON GOELICKE, M. D., of Germany, [Europe] belongs the imperishable honor of adding a new and precious doctrine to the Sciences of Medicine—a doctrine which, though vehemently opposed by many of the faculty, (of which he is a valuable member), he proves to be as well founded in truth as any doctrine of Holy Writ—a doctrine upon the variety of which are suspended the lives of millions of our race, and which he boldly challenges his opposers to refute, viz: Consumption is a disease always occasioned by a disordered state of Vis Vitæ (or life principle) of the human body: often secretly lurking in the system for years before there is the least complaint of the Lungs—and which may be as certainly though not so quickly, cured as a common cold or a simple headache. An invaluable precious doctrine this, as it imparts an important lesson to the apparently health of both sexes, teaching them that this insidious foe may be an unobserved inmate of their "clayey houses" even while they imagine themselves secure from its attacks, teaching them that the great secret in the art of preserving health is to pluck out the disease while in the blade, and not wait till the full grown ear.

This illustrious benefactor of man is also entitled to your unfeigned gratitude, and the gratitude of a world, for the invention of his matchless sanative,—whose healing fiat may justly claim for it such a title, since it has so signally triumphed over our great common enemy consumption, both in the first and last stages,—a medicine which has thoroughly filled the vacuum in the Materia Medica, and thereby proved itself the Conqueror of Physicians—a medicine, for which all mankind will have abundant cause, to bless the beneficent hand of a kind Providence,—a medicine, whose wondrous virtues have been so gloriously portrayed even by some of our clergy, in their pastoral visits to the sick chamber; by which means they often become the happy instruments of changing despondency into hope, sickness into health, and sadness of friends into joyfulness.

GOELICKE'S.

MATCHLESS SANATIVE,

medicine of more value to man than the vast mines of Austria, or even the united treasures of our globe,—a medicine, which is obtained equally from the vegetable, animal and mineral kingdoms, and thus possesses a three-fold power,—a medicine, which though designed as a remedy for consumption solely, is possessed of a mysterious influence over many diseases of the human system,—a medicine, which begins to be valued by Physicians, who are daily witnessing its astonishing cures of many whom they had resigned to the grasp of the Insatiable Grave.

Dose of the Sanative, for adults, one drop; for children a half drop; and for infants, a quarter drop; the directions explaining the manner of taking a half or a quarter drop.

PRICE—Three and one third six dollars* ($3.50) per HALF OUNCE.

*A German coin, value 75 cents.

A certificate from three members of the MEDICAL PROFESSION in Germany, in Europe.

We the undersigned, practitioners of medicine in Germany, are well aware that, by our course, we may forfeit the friendship of some of the faculty, but not of its benevolent members, who are not influenced by selfish motives. Through we shall refrain from an expression of our opinion, either of the soundness or unsoundness of Dr. Goelicke's new doctrine, we are happy to say that we deem his Sanative too valuable not to be generally known—for what our eyes behold and our ears hear, we must believe.

We hereby state, that when Dr. Louis Offon Goelicke first came before the German public, as the pretended discoverer of a new doctrine and a new medicine, we held him in the highest contempt, believing and openly pronouncing him to be a base imposter and the prince of quacks. But, on hearing so much said about the Sanative, against it and for it, we were induced, from motives of curiosity merely, to make trial of its reputed virtues, upon a number of our most hopeless patients; and we now deem it our bounden duty (even at the expense of our self-interest) publicly to acknowledge its efficacy in curing not only consumption, but other fearful maladies, which we have heretofore believed to be incurable. Our contempt for the discoverer of this medicine was at once swallowed up in our utter astonishment at these unexpected results; and, as amends for our abuse of him, we do frankly confess to the world, that we believe him a philanthropist who does honor to the profession, and to our country, which gave him birth.

The recent adoption of this medicine into some of our European hospitals is a sufficient guaranty that it performs all its promises: It need not our testimony, for wherever it is used it is its own best witness.

HERMAN ETMULLER, M. D. WALTER VAN GAULT, M. D. ADOLPHUS WERNER, M. D. Germany, December 10, 1836.

The above precious medicine (the original discovery of Dr. LOUIS O. GOELICKE, of Germany,) is for sale, wholesale and retail, by,

NOTICE.

THE undersigned surviving executors of the late John Savage Esq., of the city of Philadelphia, hereby notify all persons who are claimants or holders of claims on Mr. Savage's estate, arising out of business or transactions, in Huntingdon and Bedford counties, in any way connected with Mr. George Thompson, or his alleged agency in that quarter, that they have appointed Edward E. Law Esq. Walnut street above Sixth street, Philadelphia, to receive and examine the same with reference, if justly due, to their speedy settlement.

In giving this public notice, the undersigned feel it their duty to state, that Mr. Thompson has at various times been called on, for a "regularly vouched account," and in consequence of his failing to comply with this reasonable request, he was desired more than a year ago, "to report the amount of debts, to whom, and when payable, the period at which they were contracted, and for what purpose, with such other statements as were best calculated to make the undersigned fully acquainted with the business that had been transacted at the Forge and Furnace—in separate lists—the whole to be duly certified by his signature."

These requisitions remained unanswered; Mr. Thompson withholds his accounts for the period prior, as well as subsequent to Mr. Savage's death, whereby the undersigned are deprived of the means of facilitating the final adjustment of his important dependencies in the West.—They have therefore no alternative but the public notice, which is hereby given, that all those who are directly or indirectly interested, will forward or present their accounts to Edward E. Law Esq., to be disposed of in manner set forth in the present advertisement.
