

NEW YORK WEEKLY WHIG.
The first number of the SEMI-WEEKLY edition of THE NEW YORK WHIG is now published and submitted to the public. It will be published weekly every Wednesday and Saturday afternoons, on a half of the size of the DAILY WHIG and of the size of the Weekly, and forwarded by the earliest mails to its Patrons. It will contain all the matter of the Daily Whig except the advertisements, and be afforded at the low price of THREE DOLLARS per annum in advance. It is believed that this is the cheapest Semi-Weekly paper in the country.

The character of THE NEW YORK WHIG—Daily and Weekly—is now widely known. It has been published about sixteen months, and in that brief period has acquired a wide circulation, and we trust, a fair standing among its contemporaries. It aims to present in a medium sheet an amount of reading matter fully equal to the average of the Great Dailies of New York and our other Commercial cities. Its contents will comprise Literature, Politics and General Intelligence, in about equal proportions. In the Literary Department, no great pretensions are made to originality, but the best repositories of Foreign and American Literature are open to its conductors; and they endeavor to select therefrom a varied and interesting miscellany. In General Intelligence, we hope to be neither behind nor inferior to our immediate contemporaries. In Politics, our journal will be all that its name purports—fearlessly, zealously, and we trust efficiently. Experienced pens are enlisted in its service, and we trust it will render good service to the Country in the advocacy of sound Principles and Good Measures and the fearless exposure of the iniquities, corruptions and ruinous tendencies of Loco-Focism.

MORE CONCLUSIVE PROOFS
Of the extraordinary efficacy of
Dr. Wm. Evans' CELEBRATED MEDICINES.
IN ALLEVIATING AFFLICTED MANKIND.

CASE OF DYSPEPSIA.
Mr. David Morris, 41 Suffolk street, N. York, had been severely afflicted with dyspepsia for upwards of three years, during which time he seldom experienced any relief. He was troubled with constant vomiting, and on some occasions raised blood an occasional cough, with pain in the chest and difficulty of breathing, drowsiness, uneasy sleep, loss of appetite, giddiness, unpleasant taste in the mouth, with furred tongue. All these distressing symptoms disappeared, after using Dr. Wm. Evans' celebrated medicines. Mr. M. called a day or two back, and stated the above; also, he is willing to afford any further information regarding the nature and cure of his case to those similarly afflicted. Office No. 19 North 8th st. Philadelphia.

Coughs and Colds.
How many sufferers do we daily behold afflicted with that common and distressing disease! Do we not find that almost every person or friend we meet with complains of a bad COLD or a distressing COUGH? We also find in assemblies of all kinds where there is a continual coughing, by which we perceive that there is one half of the human family afflicted with that troublesome disease. If these sufferers would only make a trial of Dr. Swayne's Syrup or wild cherry they would soon find themselves relieved, and by continuing the use of the same for a few days, it will effect a permanent cure. Hundreds can testify to this fact, as in the short space of two months, upwards of five hundred bottles have been sold. The syrup for sale at Jacob Miller's store, Huntingdon Pa.

Still another case of Dyspepsia.

ASTONISHING CURE.
Abraham J. Cremer, residing at 66 Mott street, N. Y. was afflicted with Dyspepsia in its most aggravated form. The symptoms were: Violent head-ache, great debility, fever, costiveness, cough, heartburn, pain in the chest and stomach always after eating, impaired appetite, sensation of sinking at the stomach, furred tongue, nausea, with frequent vomitings, dizziness towards night, restlessness, &c. These had continued upwards of a twelvemonth, when, on using Wm. Evans' medicine, the patient was completely restored to health in the short space of one month and grateful for the incalculable benefit derived, gladly came forward and volunteered the above statement. The pills are for sale at Jacob Miller's store, Huntingdon Pa.

PROSPECTUS OF
The National Magazine,
AND REPUBLICAN REVIEW.

H. BRENT, ESQ. EDITOR.
The National Magazine and Republican Review, will be published in the city of Washington, District of Columbia, on the 1st day of January next, and delivered monthly in all parts of the United States; devoted exclusively to the advancement of the great principles of the Whig party, and the encouragement of literature and science.

The experience of the past year has confirmed in the minds of the more reflecting and sagacious of the Whig party that a vacuum exists in the periodical press of the country, in which should be combined the productions of our great statesmen on literary and scientific subjects, and those of the eminent literary geniuses of which the United States can boast so ample a share, on the various subjects that present themselves to a sound and vigorous intellect.

It cannot be doubted that the present crisis demands the publication of a work calculated to infuse and circulate true and honest political information, and to counteract the pernicious influence exerted by a monthly periodical of a similar nature published in this city, under the auspices, and bearing the name of the self-styled Democracy of the present day, advocating measures which, if successful, are destined to moulder or ruin the fabric of our noble Constitution, by placing on its constructions to suit the caprice and advance the reachings of a corrupt ambition.

The National Magazine and Republican Review is designed and will be conducted with these and other high important considerations in view, calculated to correct political principles on which are based the views and practice of the great Republican Whig party, as well as for the encouragement and maintenance of genuine polite literature. The publishers will neither spare expense in the mechanical department of the work, nor their utmost efforts to render the Review useful to the public in a literary point of view, and honorable to the country and the cause which it is destined to espouse as a National work.

The period is fast arriving when the country will emerge from the dominion of a party which has come into power under the corrupt influence of a misled popular prejudice, and which has advocated and suffered under the broad and corrupt motto of office-seekers—"to the victors belong the spoils of the vanquished;" being alike anti-republican, unconstitutional, and a foul stain upon the free institutions of the country, which can only be eradicated by the triumph of the principles which govern the Republican Whig party of the present day.

The advocates of the principles alluded to, who have stood for most in defense of the Constitution and laws when they were in the minority as a party could be, exerting the strength of a Leonidas battling with the host of Xerxes, and have nearly succeeded in rescuing the government from the grasp of corruption, will deem it their imperative duty to continue their efforts, and it cannot but be done than by supporting a periodical of high standing for sound political principle and literary worth; and such a one will be found in the National Magazine and Republican Review.

The success of the Magazine will therefore depend, in a measure, on the great body of the opponents of the present Administration, whose interest it will be equally binding on the talented and patriotic band of leading Whigs to spare neither time nor labor in the explanation and advocacy of the true and liberal principles on which the government can prosper, and on the success of the great experiment of Republican Government.

Having made these few remarks on the political cast of the publication, we feel confident that its utility will be readily perceived by the public, and fully appreciated. In addition to the political feature, the following will be the principal subjects on which the most celebrated writers of the present day: Reviews and Critical Notices will occupy a portion of its pages, thereby giving to genius and censure to such productions as are richly deserving of it.

A Sketch of the proceedings of Congress will be given at the close of each session, in which will be explained the cause and effect of all prominent acts and measures, compiled by a gentleman of knowledge, ability and opportunity to arrange and collect such matters as will prove both interesting and instructive.

Election returns will be given in a tabular form, embracing all elections of importance in the various States, as early as practicable after the reception of official returns. Essays and Tales will also form an important part of the work, and all original articles of this character will receive prompt attention. The object of the publishers, next to enhancing the good cause in which they are so warmly engaged, will be to furnish the reader with such matters as will both instruct and amuse; such as Sketches and Reminiscences of events too minute for history. Biographical and Historical Sketches of distinguished personages, &c. Original Poetry will be well sprinkled through its pages.

Engravings of distinguished Statesmen, if the work should receive the same encouragement as is usually extended to periodicals of a literary and scientific character, the subscribers of the Review, will not only find their numbers embellished with these desirable plates, but also with many other valuable improvements.

TERMS.—The National Magazine and Review will be published in monthly numbers, of 80 octavo pages each, on fine paper with new and handsome type and in the most approved mechanical and typographical appearance, at the moderate price of $5 a year, payable in all cases in advance or on the delivery of the third number, without respect to persons.

Any person forwarding ten respectable subscribers, and becoming responsible for the amount of their subscription for the first year, shall receive a copy gratis as long as they may continue subscribers.

The publishers will be responsible for all moneys forwarded by mail, in case of miscarriage, provided the certificate of the postmaster shall be secured, and copies forwarded accordingly.

If a subscriber shall not order his subscription to be discontinued at the expiration of the year, he shall be considered as wishing the review continued, which shall be forwarded, and the subscription money expected on the receipt of the third number, as in the first instance.

No subscription taken for a less term than one year.

All communications, post paid, addressed to the publishers at their residence, Georgetown, D. C. will receive prompt attention.

Philad. Iphid, Dec. 21, 1838.
To Dr. Wm. Evans—Dear Sir: I am truly happy to write you this in token of thanks for the CAMOMILE PILLS. I mean the CAMOMILE PILLS. About two years ago I was much troubled with Dyspepsia. My symptoms were very distressing, sometimes subject to fainting, great weakness, no rest at night and unable to eat anything, if I did it was sure to be thrown up. I could not keep any nourishment in my body. At last I gave up all hope and told my physicians that I could have no use for them—I must die, said Dr. so there is no use in paying any more doctor's bills. About a month ago, a cousin of mine came to see me; after talking awhile about my sickness I told him I had taken almost every medicine that was spoken of as good for any complaint. He said, "Have you tried Dr. Evans' CAMOMILE PILLS?" I said "No." Well he then gave me a package he had bought the day before for his wife, and said he would get another for her. I commenced taking the pills I was hearty and well, and able to write this letter, because my hands were no longer nervous. I have written this in pure gratitude to you. I hope you will publish this and let it be known. I would publish myself, but I am very poor and not able to pay. In publishing it, I think you will gain an advantage for the Trade I am in, and too many of them. I fear are now near death door, Dyspepsia. Any person wishing to see me can call at my house, No 221 Poplar Lane; or at my shop in Front street, third door above Coates street.

I remain yours, &c.

He is the right kind of a horse for this country. With the pure blood of the race horse he combines the strength of the cart horse. He is 16 hands high, barefoot, and perfectly certified. I have his pedigree pro-

His sire has stood in the care of Mr. John Watchell, Clefield Co. Va., at 50 dollars a mare. It was my intention, when I got him, to run him at Pittsburg, but he got lame while training, and I was obliged to stop, though convinced of his speed and bottom.

Pedigree.
YOUNG GREY BEARD,
was got by the famed Grey Beard of Richard Singleton, Esq., S. C., and he by Kosciusko, the sire of Clara Fisher, Multafora, Lady of the Lake, Sally Taylor, Betsey R. binson, and other good ones. Kosciusko was by Sir Archy, his dam Lottery, by the imported Bedford, out of the imported Arcady. Young Grey Beard's dam was by Constitution, one of the best bred horses of the South, and not only a racer, but got more runners and stallions than any other horse of the day, and breeders at the South are proud to be able to trace back to him. Her dam by Sir Hill, he by the imported Sir Harry, Old Grey Beard's dam was the imported mare Psyche, bred by Lord Derby, and got by his famous Sir Peter Teazle.

YOUNG GREY BEARD,
is great grand son of Sir Archy, the best stallion of his time in America, and Sir Peter Teazle, the most popular stallion in Europe. Another such instance is not to be found on record. For further particulars see American Turf Register.
