

sources for the use and benefit of other members of the community, who are engaged in active business and will make an active use of the money issued by such associations. Their legitimate office then is, to loan to individuals for the advancement of trade of all kinds, and when called upon to loan to the Commonwealth, they must of course abstract just so much of their funds from the channels of private business, and 'put the screws' to individual customers, as the locofocos elegantly express it.

We presume, if the improvement bill loan should fail, the Governor will issue another proclamation against the banks, charging them with a 'conspiracy,' as he saw fit to do last winter! Indeed such a charge might serve as a pretext for granting the bank charters which the Governor's Locofoco friends have already given notice that they intend applying for to the next Legislature.

In this matter the mind involuntarily contrasts the present condition of the State credit, with its condition under the administration of JOSEPH RITNER. When the Washington county farmer was Governor, money could be had even at four per cent. interest; but the Huntingdon county lawyer cannot procure it at five—cannot procure it at all. The State credit was low when Ritner came into office, but high when he went out: it was high when Governor Porter came into power, but it is already low. Hence we see that RITNER elevated the credit of the State by his prudent and economical administration of public affairs.

Again we ask—what have the people gained by the exchange of Governors?

Another Break.

Since our last notice of a break, there has occurred three very severe ones. The waste wiew near town—the aqueduct at Shaver's—and another above our town. We are assured by those acquainted with the facts, that the cause of the breaking of the aqueduct was the fact that the water was nearly a foot high in the level, and the superstructure was unable to bear the increased weight. The break at the waste wiew arose from the circumstance of an unusually high tide, which overflowed the canal bank, and eventually washed out the waste wiew. The aqueduct was soon mended as the wood work was all framed. The wiew was also repaired with all dispatch. And from what some of the Locos say, the present breach will soon be passable. For we heard one of them say that, the supervisor would throw himself into the breach, in order to stop it. We of course said nothing, as we are not willing to interfere in family quarrels.

One thing we are confident about, that is, that they ought to be expert in mending a break, for their inexcusable negligence in attending to the canal, insures more than double the number of any previous season. Do not our readers recollect, with what zest the Locos used to exult over a breach, under Ritner's administration; and then there was not one for a half a dozen now. The canal and all our improvements would be ruined, because a break occurred once in six weeks. Now, when a break happens every week, they are in ecstasies at the activity of their supervisors. Well, strange that such difference there should be.

The break now above town was discovered on Sunday evening, while it was a leak, but the mud boss, or some of his men concluded that they might as well wait until Monday, before they bothered with it, because Sunday was a day of rest. Presuming we suppose for that reason the canal does not break itself and the Sabbath at the same time; taking it for granted that it would have more respect for the day, than did our worthy Governor; who travelled from Harrisburg here on Sunday; and returned from Bedford Springs on Sunday; conduct which deserves the censure of every moral man. But he is not one of those moralists who despise total abstinence from any thing, even the desecration of the holy Sabbath. However, contrary to his "particular request," it did break, and he unfortunately discovered that he could prove that if he was a mud boss, he was about as good as a clay one. As this break is under the "dominions" of supervisor Price, we are unable to say when it will be mended. He not having had any occasion to rush about town quite as often as some others; full as good evidence of his capacity, as if he had a dozen breaks a month, although he is not enabled to get a puff from his party's papers by it.

A PERILOUS ADVENTURE has been going the rounds, of some persons having been by accident upon a little Island on the very summit as it were of Niagara. It now turns out that they were some busily engaged in cutting canes for sale.

Robbery.

On Tuesday night of last week the tailor shop of Clark and Foust, of Shirleysburg was broken into, and robbed, by a couple of villains known by the names of Stephen Nelson and Edward Clark. Nelson was taken, but effected his escape. On Saturday night, they both came to the residence of Capt. Jamison, the person who had been instrumental in the arrest of Nelson, and the exposure of both. By the most earnest entreaties they persuaded Jamison to admit them, declaring that they were nearly starved. Immediately upon his opening the door, one of them fired a pistol at him, the ball of which passed between his shirt bosom and his breast; thus providentially escaping the hands of the assassin.

Some of the citizens and the constable have offered one hundred dollars reward for their apprehension. In order 'if possible to facilitate their being taken, we give a brief description of them.

Nelson is about 25 or 28 years of age, and 5 feet 8 or 10 inches high, light hair and beard, and rather stout built. He is known generally by the name of "Yank;" his language denotes that he is from N. York, or some of the Eastern States. Clarke, is about the same height, something stouter built and about 30 years old. He is lame of the right foot, the ankle being considerably bent out. He formerly resided in Dauphin county; and it is said that he has a wife and child in Halifax or Liverpool on the Susquehanna. It is useless to describe their clothing, as they will undoubtedly change it.

It is useless to describe their clothing, as they will undoubtedly change it.

IMPORTANT FROM THE INDIAN COUNTRY.

The St. Louis Republican publishes an extract of a letter received in that city, from a gentleman residing at Fort Snelling, dated July 10, by which we learn that a most unhappy state of affairs is now existing between the Sioux and Chippewa tribes of Indians, and great slaughter has been made of the latter. Mercy seems to have formed no part of the savage character. One indiscriminate massacre of men, women and children appears to be the rule of warfare.

It may elucidate the extract to state that a large number of the Chippewa tribe had assembled at Fort Snelling to receive their annuities, and the events which followed,—related below, occurred a few days prior to the date of the letter. The extract says:

"The Sioux and Chippewas have had a brush at two different points on the St. Croix, and again about thirty miles above the falls of St. Anthony. The Chippewas, just before leaving the Pillagers I believe, had killed, at Lake Calhoun, a Sioux Brave, one much liked and esteemed by his tribe, and took his scalp; an hour or two after sun rise, the news having spread like wild-fire, the Sioux, about two hundred strong, left the falls (St. Anthony.) Hale-in-the-day, a Chippewa Chief, had pushed on with his party and was not overtaken. The Sioux who left the Falls came across a party of the Rum River Band, attacked them about sunrise the next morning, and killed one hundred and thirty-three men, women and children. This was above the Falls. Big Thunder, a Sioux Chief, crossed the country in pursuit of the Strong Ground Band of Chippewas, and overtook and fought them at St. Croix. Big Thunder told the Sioux not to fire where the whites were, (Messrs. Aitkins and McLoud's party) and as the Chippewas huddled round the whites many of them thus escaped. Notwithstanding the Sioux killed thirty-six men of the Chippewa party, and some women and children.

"The country is in great excitement, and will continue so for some time.—There will, no doubt, be a general engagement between the Sioux and Chippewas before many months more. Hale-in-the-day is a chief not to be trifled with, and the Sioux are consolidating under Bad Hail, a first rate warrior who has been to Washington."

"This is the substance of the extract referred to, and is an evidence of the unhappy state of affairs existing between those tribes. The next news in all probability, will be an account of the slaughter of an equal or greater number of the Sioux by some band of the Chippewas.

Never give up the Search.

Roguary may almost always be found out, by using patience and perseverance. Last May, says the Boston Mercantile Journal, a gentleman of Fallmouth who often visits this city, and occasionally takes charge of packages of money, to be delivered in Boston—was about to leave for the city, when several packages, containing money and other things were sent in as usual—which were placed upon the table, to be afterwards deposited in his trunk. On the arrival in the city, all the packages in his trunk were delivered—but two, which it seems were sent to his house, containing money in bills, to the amount of $700, never came to hand, which circumstance caused some surprise, inquiry and investigation. A girl who had resided some time in the family, was the only person who appeared to have had an opportunity to take possession of the packages. She was examined, and her room was searched, but nothing was found which tended to confirm any suspicions which might have been entertained—on the contrary the master and mistress of the house were satisfied of her innocence.—This, however, was not the case with some other persons, who felt a deep interest in solving the mystery.

A week or two since the girl complained of indisposition—and concluded that her health was so indifferent, that she could not remain at service any longer—and a few days since she made arrangements to leave Fallmouth in the stage for Boston. So confident were some persons that the money was in her possession, that they procured a search warrant and sent an officer after her. He overtook her at West Sandwhich, 14 miles from Fallmouth—searched her baggage, and not finding it, procured some resolute females who took her into a private room, removed every article of clothing from her person, and succeeded in finding the whole money, $700, ingeniously secreted in an article of dress which she wore next her person.

OBITUARY.

"In the midst of life we are in death."

(COMMUNICATED.)

DIED.—On the evening of the 6th inst. after a long and severe sickness, CATHERINE daughter of JOHN and ELIZABETH WHITTAKER, aged nine years and seven months. She, through all her sickness, bore it with the patience of one of old.—Her hope of gaining a happy and peaceful abode, where sickness cometh not, and pain is not known, was concentrated in him who said "suffer little children to come unto me."—But

Her pain is over, the conflict is past
The heaven-born spirit is fled;
Her wish is accomplished at last,
And now she's entomb'd with the dead.

The months of affliction are o'er,
The days and nights of distress;
We see her in anguish no more:
She's gain'd her happy release.

No sickness, or sorrow, or pain,
Shall ever disquiet her now;
For death to her spirit was gain,
Since Christ was her life when below.

Her soul has now taken its flight
For mansions of glory above,
To join with the Angels of light,
And dwell in the kingdom of love.

The victory now is obtain'd;
She's gone her dear Saviour to see;
Her wish she fully has gain'd:
She's now where she longed to be.

Then let us forbear to complain,
That she has now gone from our sight;
We soon shall behold her again,
With new and redoubled delight.

COUGH, ASTHMA AND SPITTING BLOOD

Cured By

JAYNE'S EXPECTORANT.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 16, 1838

Mr. Atkinson—Dear Sir:

A few weeks ago I noticed in your paper, an account of the surprising effects of Jayne's Expectorant, in restoring a great number of passengers on board of a Mississippi steamboat to perfect health, who were affected by violent Bowel Complaint.—I was glad to see you notice it so kindly; you may rest assured it deserves the praise bestowed upon it. The benefit I have received from this medicine, more especially his EXPECTORANT, induces me to state my case to you, for the benefit of those who are afflicted in the same way. It has been more than half a century, since I was afflicted with a Cough and Asthma, and for more than half a century, I have been a sufferer from the American Camp, in 1778, I, with many others, (owing to great exposure,) had a violent attack of disease of the lungs, by which I was disengaged from duty for a long time. Since that period, until recently, I have never been free from a violent cough and difficulty of breathing. Year after year, I have expectorated over a gill a day. Often much more, and sometimes mixed with blood. For months together, I might after night, I have had to sit or be bolstered up to obtain my breath. The weakness and debility caused by such constant expectoration, frequently brought me to a state bordering on death. It has been a matter of astonishment to my family and friends, that I am here to write this to you. I have had skillful physicians to attend me, and every thing that was thought likely to give me relief, without any beneficial effect. Last winter I had another very severe attack of inflammation of the lungs, which I fully expected would be the last. I then considered my case as past the aid of medicine. When I was persuaded to call in Doctor Jayne—with the assistance of Divine Providence, through him I was once more raised from my bed; but the cough and wheezing wearied me day and night. He advised me to use his Expectorant. I did so, with a strong hope, that as it had cured many of my acquaintances of various diseases of the lungs, it might, at various mitigate my sufferings. Need I say how satisfied I feel—IT HAS EFFECTUALLY CURED ME. As soon as I commenced taking it, I found it reached my case, and I began to breathe with more freedom. My expectoration became easy, and my cough entirely left me. I now feel as well as I ever did in my life, and better than I have been for the last six years. Last summer I spit a great deal of blood; now thank God I am perfectly cured. Now sir, after suffering so long, and finding at last, such signal relief from Doctor Jayne's Expectorant, I feel anxious to inform my fellow citizens where relief may be had. If you think this worth a place in your paper, you will oblige me by noticing it.

NICHOLAS HARRIS, Sen.,
No. 35 Lombard street.

Mr. Harris has long been a worthy member (we believe a Deacon) of the First Baptist Church in this city, and implicit confidence may be placed in his assertion.—Ed.

The above valuable medicine may be had wholesale and retail at Jayne's Drug and Chemical Store, No. 20, South Third street Philadelphia. Price $1.

Sold also, by JACOB MILLER, Agent, Huntingdon Pa.

DR. JAYNE'S EXPECTORANT.

We consider it a duty to call public attention to this admirable preparation for Pulmonary Diseases—Especially Coughs, Colds, Consumptions, Spitting blood, Asthma, Bronchial Affections, Hooping Cough, &c It is used, and very highly approved by persons of the first respectability, but we feel confident in saying that a trial of its efficacy will be its best recommendation.

DR. JONATHAN GOING, PRESIDENT OF THE GRANVILLE COLLEGE, Ohio (late of New York), in a letter to Dr. Jayne dated New York, December, 1836, says:—

"He was laboring under a severe cold, cough and hoarseness, and that his difficulty of breathing was so great that he felt himself in imminent danger of immediate suffocation, but was perfectly cured by using this Expectorant."—Mrs. Delks, of Salem, N. J. was cured of Asthma of twenty years standing, by using two bottles of this medicine. Mrs. Ward, also of Salem, was cured of the same complaint by one bottle. A young lady, also of Salem, who was believed by her friends to be far gone with consumption was perfectly restored by three bottles.—Dr. Hamilton of St. James, South Carolina, was greatly affected by a cough, hoarseness and soreness of the lungs, and on using a bottle of this medicine found permanent relief.

Mr. Nicholas Harris, sen., one of the Deacons of the First Baptist Church in this city, has been perfectly cured by it—after having suffered for sixty years with Cough, Asthma, and Spitting of Blood, which no remedy before could relieve.

The Rev. C. C. P. Crosby, writes as follows:

New York, June 15, 1838.

To Dr. Jayne:—Dear Sir,—I have made use of your Expectorant, personally and in my family for the last six years, with great benefit. Indeed I may consider my life prolonged by the use of this valuable medicine, under the blessing of God, for several years. I may say almost as much in the case of my wife, and also the Rev. Mr. Tomson of the Island of Jamaica. For all cases of cough, inflammation of the chest, lungs, and throat, I do most unhesitatingly recommend this as the best medicine I have ever tried. My earnest wish is, that others afflicted as I have been, may experience the same relief, which I am persuaded they will by using your Expectorant.

C. C. P. CROSBY.

The following Certificate is from a practicing PHYSICIAN and a much respected Clergyman of the Methodist society—dated Modest Town, Va. August 27, 1838.

Dr. JAYNE, Dear Sir:—I have been using your Expectorant extensively in my practice for the last three months, and for all attacks of Colds, Coughs, Inflammation of the Lungs, Consumption, Asthma, Pains and weakness of the Breast, it is decidedly the best medicine I have ever tried.

Very respectfully yours,

R. W. WILLIAMS.

Dr. Jayne's Office is No. 20 South Third street, Philadelphia, where all orders will be promptly attended to.

Sold also by JACOB MILLER, agent, Huntingdon, Pa.—Price $1.

ANOTHER CASE OF DYSPEPSIA.

Letter from the Hon. Abraham Mclellan, Sullivan county, East Tennessee, Member of Congress.

WASHINGTON, July 22, 1838.

Sir,—Since I have been in this city, I have used some of your Dyspeptic medicine with infinite benefit and satisfaction, and believe it to be a most valuable remedy. One of my constituents, Dr. A. Carden, of Campbell co. Tennessee, wrote me to send him some, which I did, and he has employed it very successfully in his practice, and says it is invaluable. Mr. Johnson, your agent at this place, thinks you would probably like an agent in East Tennessee. If so, I would recommend Dr. A. Carden as a proper person to officiate for the sale of your celebrated medicine. Should you commission him he is willing to act for you. You can send the medicine by water to the care of Robert King & Sons, Knoxville, Tennessee, or by land to Graham & Houston, Tazewell, East Tennessee. Write me in a few days. I have no doubt but if you had agents in several counties in East Tennessee, a great deal of your medicine would be sold. I am going to take some of it home with me for my own use and that of my friends, and should wish to hear from you whether you would like an agent in Blountsville, Sullivan county, East Tennessee. I could get some of the merchants to act for you, as I live near there. Yours, respectfully,

A. MCLELLAN, of Tennessee.

To Dr. Wm. Evans,

P. S.—My address is Blountsville, East Tennessee.

The above Medicine is for sale at Jacob Miller's Store Huntingdon Pa.
