

and when we shall become so recreant to our duty—so unworthy our profession—as to refuse to tell the truth, or to contradict our own statements when convinced of our error, or to refuse an injured man the use of our paper to correct our errors, or misstatements. Then we trust our hand will be palsied, and our tongue silent in the sepulchre of the dead.

As a matter of duty, and justice to himself, Mr. Royer, believes it his duty to undeceive the public. To our columns then he has come as the only resource and below we give the letters. A careful examination, will show what means are taken to dupe the people into the belief of their one sided testimony.

Franklin Forge, August 19, 1839

Mr. M'CAV.—I was astonished to see an article in the "Advocate," stating that Samuel Royer had his tail-race re-built at the expense of the state, by the authority of certain canal officers. As I have had the management of this establishment for several years. Mr. Royer living five miles distant, and seldom comes here; I consider it an act of justice due him, to say that he had no participation in what was done respecting the race. And to set the matter straight, I hope you will have the goodness to publish the accompanying certificate of William Bell which is literally correct, as the article in question may admit of a different construction. I think it proper to state that more than four fifths of the work done at the race was done by my own hands, having fourteen hands working at the race, forgesmen and others, but, being anxious to get through with it as soon as possible, I spoke to Mr. Bell for a few hands, and he was kind enough to send me six hands one day and five another, making eleven days work of which I kept an account, and stands to the account against the state, for plank and scantling furnished not long afterwards for a towing-path bridge, and amounts to 42 cents more than the eleven days work, an account of which said plank was never rendered against the state as to hauling with the teams, there was none done at the race what ever. I did send the team to haul logs for the dam a few days, and if there was any favor in that, I think it was to the state and not to me, it was at a time when Mr. Bell could not get hauling done.

JAMES M'NEILLY.

Pleasant Valley, August 15, 1839.

Mr. M'CAV.—Having seen a paragraph in the "Advocate," stating that Samuel Royer had his tail-race re-built by the authority of certain canal officers, at the expense of the state. &c. &c. As I am one of the persons to whom allusion is made, as foreman.—I deem it an act of justice to Mr. Royer, as well as to myself, to say that the paragraph relative to the tail-race is totally incorrect. Samuel M'Neilly, who manages for Samuel Royer, applied to me for a few hands, to assist in said race, for which he was willing, either to pay them, or account to the state for it, and as he had, previously, been good enough to let his team haul for us a few days, and done some saving for us in a long time, when I know it was a disadvantage to himself. I thought it was ungenerous not to comply with his request. I give him a few hands for several days, for which he furnished me with plank and scantling for a towing-path bridge, to the amount of $12.80, a few cents more than the labor the team employed, and paid by the state, hauled logs &c for the big dam on the river and out at the tail-race as might be constructed from the article in question.

WILLIAM BELL.

The Tickets.

James Steel Esq., (as an name of approach, because they do not like the talk of Mr. Steel, by our opponents denominated "Pacer,") is our candidate for Prothonotary. A more worthy, honest, upright, and capable man, is not in the county; ay! but he is a "pacer" by our opponent don't support him. If Mr. Steel's, walk is not characterized by "angular tracks" of some of his opponents, we consider it nothing to his discredit if he is a "pacer." He can "pace" the street without laying out "worm-ace" from one curb stone, to the other—and we know that every thing that the "advocate" can say against him, will only help to unite more firmly to him his friends.

John Cresswell Esq., is his opponent for the office, and nominated by the society—whose head and front, pleads a "statute of repose." No one, we believe, is more worthy of respect as a neighbor than Mr. Cresswell. He is an gentleman, we believe "honest and capable"—but he is a mason—and an adherent one; of course he is still subject to oaths and the prejudices, which being to the devotees of the "order." He a supporter, of the wild doctrines of the Loco Focos—and as such can receive support from us, nor should he from any, who think it irreparable to support man who pleads the "statute of Limitations"—on his poorer neighbor.

John Reed, is our candidate for Register and Recorder. We only have to point to his conduct as a man, a citizen, and an officer, to insure for him a cordial and hearty support.

T. P. Campbell Esq., is the candidate of "the society for pleading the statute of Repose."—He is a young man, and we are unwilling to throw any obstacles in the way of his popularity. One word of advice may not be amiss. If he would leave the certainty of defeat in politics, and attend with assiduity to his profession, he would learn, that it was a much surer way to prosperity. But we are not his guardian, however much he needs one. Let him try his "populace"—and like Peter Brush, we hear him say "Republicans is ungrateful."

John Morrison and Jos. Higgins, are the candidates of our friends. The first is an honest, upright, intelligent farmer, who has faithfully performed his duty two years. The latter, is too well known in our county to need any commendation from us. The "advocate" calls him a "professed Gambler"—bah! What an objection, even if true, to come from that party, the essence of which is "gamblers, roudies, drunkards and thieves."

Adolphus Patterson and Daniel Massey, are their opponents; both good old blue skin fellows, turned turks.—The former a Sub Treasurer, and the latter a Farmer; and both opposed to the rights of the people to elect canal commissioners, and both of them defenders of the man, "wot wont pay debts that are more than six years old."

Joshua Roller, is our choice for Commissioner. A better man does not exist for the office. His opponent Isaac Vandevender, has been nominated, we hesitate not to say, because, when he was treated with contempt and scorn last spring, had independence enough to speak freely, and they trust they will quiet him, by making him interested in the ticket. That he will be defeated they are well aware,—and they take this course to shelve him. We had hoped that he would resent such a way of requiting his services—if he is satisfied we surely are.

The remaining part of the tickets will be noticed next week.

High handed Outrage.

At the late term of the Dauphin co. Court. The trial of the Harrisburg rioters, was to have come on, The Indictment was drawn out, and handed to the Attorney General to sign, so that it could be sent before the grand Jury. This man, the same who let the detected robber Rogers, loose upon society, refused to sign the Bill, thus using his official power to screen the traitors from just punishment. Knowing the evidence was as strong as proof from holy writ of their guilt, he dare not let a jury of his country decide thereon. Disgraceful as it may seem, he is not alone in his endeavor to save the guilty from the sentence of the law.

A request was made to the judge (David R. Porter's brother, James M.) to order the attorney general to do his duty,—and he REFUSED. He was then asked if he would allow the name of the attorney to be used—this he refused. He was then asked if a bill was sent up, and returned "a true Bill" without the name of this man, if he would allow the action to go on—this he refused to answer.

Thus it appears that the commonwealth Lawyer—and the judge of the court, use their power to protect these rioters. What do the freemen of this county think of such conduct? Is there no power to protect the people? Must the THIEF, be allowed to roam unmolested—and the traitor concoct his treason, and the law have no power to reach them? The Grand Jury, presented the Attorney General, for misdemeanor in office, and the Iron Gray, as a nuisance. But by what power they will be reached, no one can tell, for we presume James M. is of the same twill as David R. and if so, good bye, to right, justice or Law.

This explains why Porter appointed his brother judge! and this tells the people who were the guilty actors at Harrisburg last winter. Let the honest patriot ponder on these things.

The "Advocate" is parading the name of John Piper in an affidavit before the public. John may pipe away, and if he does not learn that he had much better keep his breath to cool his broth, we can only say that it is because the people are not all aware that he is a chap of the same kidney as Davy R. He may not swear quite as well as Porter, but even his little affidavit shows that he is good at it.

Not long since we said Porter's dearest friends were nearly all "Gamblers, roudies, drunkards and thieves. Every day convinces us we were not mistaken.

The Canal.

It is some thing very strange that the Loco Foco papers of this county, are so busily engaged in sounding the praise of Supervisor Woods and Jos. Ritter. While relative to the conduct of Mr. Price, they maintain a studied silence. We speak what we know, when we say that Mr. Price, has been as vigilant and as active, as any other man. We think more so! for but one solitary break has occurred on his division this season; and even his exertions to have that repaired are not noticed, while Mr. Woods, is lauded to the skies, for HELPING HIM. We care but little about either, but of all things we disapprove this underhanded way of killing a man up. Price is the superior of either of the others, as a man of stability, care and capacity; and if victimised, it is by professed friends. They shall all have strict justice at our hands, and when we say Mr. Price, is one of the best Supervisors on the line since the administration of Ritter. We feel that we speak the truth. He has less of the party spite which characterizes, the contemptible, bar-room politician, & if any thing is to act against his continuance in office, it is the fact, that he acts among his political opponents as if he esteemed them all alike, and deserving of such treatment as man owes to his fellow man. We are well aware that we can find men vastly better among our ranks for the station, than Mr. Price,—but none in the ranks of our opponents, but the fiat has been issued; and we can as a friend to Mr. Price say, KNOW WELL YOUR FRIENDS.

"Liberty, reputation and life, are not worth preserving."—Advocate & Sentinel. It may be all true enough in your case, for such kind of Liberty and reputation are not worth having, much less preserving—and as for your life, if that is not preserved, we can only say it is not because it has not been earned long enough.

ANOTHER CASE OF DYSPEPSIA. Letter from the Hon. Abraham McLellan Sullivan county, East Tennessee, Member of Congress.

WASHINGTON, July 22, 1838. Sir,—Since I have been in this city, I have used some of your Dyspeptic medicine with infinite benefit and satisfaction, and believe it to be a most valuable remedy. One of my constituents, Dr. A. Carden, of Campbell co. Tennessee, wrote me to send him some, which I did, and he has employed it very successfully in his practice, and says it is invaluable. Mr. Johnson, your agent at this place, thinks you would probably like an agent in East Tennessee. If so, I would recommend Dr. A. Carden as a proper person to officiate for the sale of your celebrated medicine. Should you commission him he is willing to act for you. You can send the medicine by water to the care of Robert King & Sons, Knoxville, Tennessee, or by land to Graham & Houston, Tazewell, East Tennessee. Write me in a few days. I have no doubt but if you had agents in several counties in East Tennessee, a great deal of your medicine would be sold. I am going to take some of it home with me for my own use and that of my friends, and should wish to hear from you whether you would like an agent in Blountsville, Sullivan county, East Tennessee. I could get some of the merchants to act for you, as I live near there. Yours, respectfully, A. M'CLELLAN, of Tennessee. To Dr. Wm. Evans, P. S.—My address is Blountsville, East Tennessee.

The above Medicine is for sale at Jacob Miller's Store Huntingdon Pa.

COUGL, ASTHMA AND SPITTING BLOOD

Cured By JAYNE'S EXPECTORANT. PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 16, 1838 Mr. Atkinson—Dear Sir:

A few weeks ago I noticed in your paper, an account of the surprising effects of Jayne's Expectorant, in restoring a great number of passengers on board of a Mississippi steamboat to perfect health, who were affected by violent Bowel Complaint. I was glad to see you notice it so kindly; you may rest assured it deserves the praise bestowed upon it. The benefit I have received from your medicine, more especially his EXPECTORANT, induce me to state my case to you. For the benefit of those who are afflicted in the same way. It has been my misfortune, since I was born under a Cough and Asthmatic oppression, for more than half a century. When a soldier in the American Camp, in 1778, I, with many others, (owing to great exposure) had a violent attack of disease of the lungs, by which I was dislocated from duty for a long time. Since that period, until recently, I have never been free from a violent cough and difficulty of breathing. Year after year, I have expectorated over a gill of blood. For months together, night after night, I have had to sit or be bolstered up to obtain my breath. The weakness and debility caused by such constant expectoration, frequently brought me to a state bordering on death. It has been a matter of astonishment to my family and friends, that I am here to write to you. I have had skillful physicians to attend me, and every thing done that was thought likely to give me relief, without any beneficial effect. Last winter I had another very severe attack of inflammation of the lungs, which I fully expected would be the last. I then considered my case as past the aid of medicine. When I was persuaded to call on Doctor Jayne—with the assistance of Divine Providence, through him I was once more raised from my bed; but the cough and wheezing wearied me day and night. He advised me to use his Expectorant. I did so, with a strong hope, that, as it had cured many of my acquaintances of various diseases of the lungs, it might, at least mitigate my sufferings. Need I say how satisfied I feel—IT HAS EFFECTUALLY CURED ME. As soon as I commenced taking it, I found it reached my case, and I began to breathe with more freedom. My expectoration became easy, and my cough entirely left me. I now feel as well as I ever did in my life, and better than I have been for the last six years. Last summer I spit a great deal of blood; now thank God I am perfectly cured. Now sir, after suffering so long, and finding at last, such signal relief from Doctor Jayne's Expectorant, I feel anxious to inform my fellow citizens where relief may be had. If you think this worth a place in your paper, you will oblige me by noticing it. NICHOLAS HARRIS, Sen. No. 35 Lombard street.

Mr. Harris has long been a worthy member (we believe a Deacon) of the First Baptist Church in this city, and implicit confidence may be placed in his assertion.—Ed. The above valuable medicine may be had wholesale and retail at Jayne's Drug and Chemical Store, No. 20, South Third street Philadelphia. Price $1. Sold, also, by JACOB MILLER, Agent, Huntingdon Pa.

DR. JAYNE'S EXPECTORANT.

We consider it a duty to call public attention to this admirable preparation for Pulmonary Diseases—Especially Coughs, Colds, Consumptions, Spitting blood, Asthma, Bronchial Affections, Whooping Cough, &c. It is used and very highly approved by persons of the first respectability, but we feel confident in saying that a trial of its efficacy will be its best recommendation.

DR. JONATHAN GOING, PRESIDENT of the GRANVILLE COLLEGE, Ohio (late of New York), in a letter to Dr. Jayne, dated New York, December, 1836, says:—"He was laboring under a severe cold, cough and hoarseness, and that his difficulty of breathing was so great that he felt himself in imminent danger of immediate suffocation, but was perfectly cured by using this Expectorant."—Mrs. DeLis, of Salem, N. J. was cured of Asthma of twenty years standing, by using two bottles of this medicine. Mrs. Ward, also of Salem, was cured of the same complaint by one bottle. A young lady, also of Salem, who was believed by her friends to be far gone with consumption was perfectly restored by three bottles.—Dr. Hamilton of St. James, South Carolina, was greatly affected by a cough, hoarseness and soreness of the lungs, and on using a bottle of this medicine found permanent relief. Mr. Nicholas Harris, Sen., one of the Deacons of the First Baptist Church in this city, has been perfectly cured by it—after having suffered for sixty years with Cough, Asthma, and Spitting of Blood, which no remedy before could relieve.

The Rev. C. C. Crosby, writes as follows: New York, June 15, 1838.

To Dr. Jayne.—Dear Sir,—I have made use of your Expectorant, personally and in my family for the last six years, with great benefit. Indeed I may consider my life prolonged by the use of this valuable medicine, under the blessing of God, for several years. I may say almost as much in the case of my wife, and also of the Rev. Mr. Tomson, of the Island of Jamaica. For all cases of cough, inflammation of the chest, lungs, and throat, the most unhesitating permanent relief. I best medicine I have ever tried. My earnest wish is, that others afflicted as I have been, may experience the same relief, which I am persuaded they will by using your Expectorant. C. C. CROSBY.

The following Certificate is from a practicing PHYSICIAN and a much respected Clergyman of the Methodist society—dated Modest Town, Va. August 27, 1838. Dr. JAYNE, Dear Sir—I have been using your Expectorant extensively in my practice for the last three months, and for all attacks of Colds, Coughs, Inflammation of the Lungs, Consumption, Asthma, Pains and weakness of the Breast, it is decidedly the best medicine I have ever tried. Very respectfully yours, R. W. WILLIAMS.

Dr. Jayne's Office is No. 20 South Third street, Philadelphia, where all orders will be promptly attended to. Sold also by JACOB MILLER, agent, Huntingdon, Pa.—Price $1.
