

The Election

Will be held before another one of our papers reaches you. This is the last time that we have of appealing to you. Do you detest villany? Go to the polls and give your vote for James Steel, the subject of the lies of bill m'cay and the tom-tits, that hoy around the chair of him who swore he had paid all his debts "dollar for dollar," when in your own court he paid a poor creditor with the Statute of Limitations. Do you hate deception? Go to the polls and oppose the whole ticket of that party, who say they are opposed increasing canal officers—yet put double the number of any former administration upon the works. Oppose the party which say they are opposed to strangers,—and yet give offices and contracts to foreigners—subjects of British tyrants, say! the pensioned slaves of a crowned head—aliens to our country, our feeling, and our laws. Oppose the party that told you they would listen to your petitions for offices—and then make your officers of detected thieves, common drunkards, and English slaves. Did you petition for them? Did American freemen ask to have such to fill their offices. Do you scorn a knave? Go to the polls and oppose the nominations of David R. Porter. They are his companions—and be they ever so honest now, it is dangerous—Evil communications corrupt good manners. Are you willing to be made the dupe of Porter? If not, go to the polls and by your vote say that he cannot delude any longer by presiding at Anti-Bank meetings, when he now gives the U. S. Bank, the former object of his pretended hatred, $400,000 to join his party. Are you prepared to let the new constitution expire at its birth? If not, go to the polls and vote for the right of the people to elect canal commissioners. The party who advocate Patterson and Massey, are pledged to oppose the people's right to vote for canal officers,—while the party who support Higgins and Morrison are pledged to carry that Democratic provision if they get a majority in the Legislature. Are you willing to support those who dare violate every pledge made to the people last fall—and plunged into every act of villany and knavery, that they then charged upon their opponents? If you are, then vote the Loco Foco ticket. For they promised to reduce the canal officers, and they appointed seven where there were four—and made one new office for Mr. Riter, a superintendent on a finished line—the first in Pennsylvania history. They promised to obey your petitions. Who petitioned for the appointment of Riter? Who petitioned for the appointment of John Piper? Who petitioned for the appointment of Squire PARSONS? Who petitioned for the appointment of Thomas Levers? And where are the long petitions of the number of honest and capable men that did ask for these very offices? Every promise has been violated. Are you ready to tell such traitors to their own friends, that the scales has fallen from your eyes—that you can be cajoled, duped, and deceived no longer? If so, go to the polls next Tuesday and vote the entire Democratic Antimasonic ticket—the only Democratic ticket—and let the perjurer, the drunkard, the rowdie, and the thief learn, that from you they need expect no countenance. Are you opposed to the scenes of mob and riot which disgraced the seat of government last winter? If you are, let the actors in that scene learn that you record that opinion at the ballot box. The Infamous falsehood of the "Advocate" about Major Steel, we observe, was not re-uttered last week. We take it for granted, that they are gathering up all the malignant poison of their guilty hearts—and this week will open the flood-gates and deluge our friends with their filth. We trust they will heed them not. Did you only know the real character of billy m'cay, you would see at once that it is all harmless. He is the spout through which others reach the public. They pity & even condemn his conduct themselves; yet, what can they do, they do not wish to be seen in such things, and of course they stick in poor billy, like a vagrant in the pillory, for us to peep, while they stand back and laugh at his, as well as their own situation. We wish all our readers, and in truth every honest man in this county, to bear in mind that much of the praise of the candidates of Mr. Porter, emanates from one of themselves. He is devoting his time incessantly to telling the people how Democratic he and his colleagues are! how very honest! and with all, how very intelligent! We would advise him to say modest also. Does it become them to abuse personally their opponents? yet are they busily engaged in the shameless course. He can say Mr. Steel went to see and pray with "a sick nigger," and for that he does not want any one to vote for Steel. Those who visit and pray with the sick, are the subjects of his special enmity. Major Steel, he would intimate, has stolen from the Commonwealth. Every man that knows the two individuals, knows, that he would sooner trust James Steel Esq. with uncounted gold, than he would the writer of that article with an untanned dog's skin; if it was where it would sell for tucker. Turn Out! Every Man. Who values his rights, and the rights of the people will be on the election ground early, and when there will deposit his vote in favor of the Democratic Anti-Masonic ticket. Every man who is opposed to the party whose head man pleads the statute of repose on his poor wood chopper, to cheat him out of his pay, must turn out early and oppose David R. Porter's ticket. Every man, who is in favor of the people's electing their officers must vote for Morrison & Higgins, for their opponents are pledged to keep the appointing power in the hands of the Governor. Every man, who is convinced now, of the truth of Porter's character as we said it was last fall, must turn out and vote against his ticket, to teach him that if they did not then they do now "KNOW HIM." Every man, who was duped by the lies of Porter and his friends, to believe they would give them office, or that they would listen to the petitions of their friends, is bound to oppose his ticket now.—Or he admits that he is willing to be dupped still. Every man, who voted for Porter, because he thought he was opposed to the U. S. Bank, is in duty bound to vote against his party now.—For a deceitful friend is a thousand times worse than an open foe. Every man, who thinks the people have a right to make their own nominations, should oppose the Loco Foco ticket, for it was nominated by Porter—and the convention was afraid to oppose, his men. Who are the Bank Men? Two years ago, and Porter and his tools were all abusing the U. S. Bank. Now they give her four hundred thousand dollars as a bonus to lend them money, and save their credit; and what is still worse, they give her the privilege to issue five dollar notes. Do you doubt us reader? We can tell you that it is believed that the Bank has the written opinion of Porter's Attorney General, that she has the right to issue the whole loan in small notes. Can any honest man vote for a party that profess one thing and do another? Give us an open and frank foe, to a sly, treacherous, and deceitful friend. Porter and his party have deceived the people, and we feel confident the people will deceive them on next Tuesday. Do not the citizens of this county remember how Porter and his party, abused Joseph Riter, because he did not appoint James Steel Prothonotary? In their meeting they proclaimed, the outrage, that had been committed. They said that nearly all the citizens of this county were in favor of his appointment.—They said, he was honest and capable. Now they say he is, dishonest—a state robber—an abolitionist—every thing that is bad.—They said the first, because they were willing to show their friendship, after his appointment was defeated. But now when, Mr. Steel, is placed before the people to prove that he was, and is their choice, then these hypocritical scoundrels; turn and abuse him without measure. When he attends the sick bed of the dying—and tries to "kindle a flame of sacred love"—in the last moments of the invalid—they call it "going to see a sick nigger."—Is there a christian in our county will sanction such baseness, and such wickedness. James Steel is too well known, to suffer from the taunts and jeers of a common reviler of religion. The people of this county will tell these common defamers that it is no place for them. Their candidate for Register we will not name in the same day of the week with ours—Because, we respect Mr. Reed.—Mr. Reed is a gentleman, and does not find it necessary to write his own praises in any paper.

If you vote FOR Patterson & Massey, you vote against the election of Canal Commissioners. If you vote FOR Patterson & Massey, you vote to sanction the tyranny of Jimmy Clark—on the Public works. But if you vote FOR Morrison & Higgins, you vote in favor of all these Democratic measure—and against the dictation of one man. Are you in favor of electing Canal Commissioners? If so, go to the polls and vote for Morrison and Higgins. If you vote for their opponents rest assured they dare not in the Legislature vote to take power from the hands of Porter. Do you wish to see the public works a source of revenue? If so, vote for those for Assembly who will pass a law to elect Canal Commissioners. Then and not till then will they be under the direction of experienced and faithful officers—while the power of appointing them, remains with the government, so long will they be the means to pay off politicians; and their means will be squandered, and each swarm of office holders driven off, will only give place to a more greedy horde, who will only batten upon the spoils to give place to others more rapacious still. Whereas it elected one annually, the fluctuation cannot be so rapid. The Board can at no time be filled by unexperienced men, and the officers will not be the paltry slaves of the Governor or his advisers. To secure this latter result, vote for Morrison and Higgins—for to vote for Patterson and Massey, is to say the people cannot elect their officers. FREEDOM OF OPINION. * * * "What barrier is there against the universal despotism of public opinion in this country, but individual freedom? Who is to stand up here, but the possessor of that lofty independence? There is no king, sultan, no noble, no privileged class; nobody else to stand against it. If you yield this point, if you are forever making compromises, if all men do this, if the entire policy of private life here, is to escape opposition and reproach, every thing will be swept beneath the popular wave. There will be no individuality, no hardness, no stern resolve, no self-subsistence, no fearless dignity, no glorious manhood of mind, left among us. The holy heritage of our fathers' virtues will be trodden under foot by their unworthy children. They feared not to stand up against kings and nobles, and parliament and people. Better did they account it, that their lonely bark should sweep the wide sea in freedom—happier were they, when their sail swelled to the storm of winter, than to be slaves in palaces of ease. Sweeter to them was the music of the gale, that shrieked in their broken cordage, than the voice at home that said "submit, and you shall have rest." And when they reached this wild shore, and built their altar, and knelt upon the frozen snow and flinty rock to worship they built that altar to freedom, to individual freedom, to freedom of opinion; and their noble prayer was, that their children might be thus free. Let their sons remember the prayer of their extremity, and the great request with their magnanimity has left us. I know of but one thing safe in the universe, and that is truth. And I know of but one way to truth for an individual mind, and that is unfettered thought. And I know of but one path for the multitude to truth, and that is thought freely expressed. Make of truth itself an altar of slavery, and guard it about with a mysterious shrine; bind thought as a victim upon it; and let the passions of a prejudiced multitude minister fuel—and you sacrifice upon the accursed altar, the hopes of the world! HYMENEAL. The silken tie that binds two willing hearts. MARRIED—At the Methodist Parsonage on Wednesday the 25th inst by the Rev. Geo. L. Springfield, on an average, I prescribe 100 boxes in a month. Extract of a letter from Dr. Prichard of Hudson N. Y. June 3, 1836: I was aware that Dr. Peters' was one of the best chemists in the U. States, and felt assured that he would some day (from his intimate knowledge of the properties of herbs and drugs) produce an efficient medicine, and I must acknowledge that his Vegetable Pills fully respond to my expectations. They are indeed a superior medicine, and reflect credit alike upon the Chemist, the Physician, and Philosopher. Extract of a letter from Dr. Wains of Cincinnati, Feb. 2, 1838; your Pills are the mildest in their operations, and yet most powerful in their effect, of any that I have. There action on the chyle, and hence on the impurities of the blood is evidently very surprising. Extract of a letter from Dr. Scott of Baltimore, Dec. 17, 1836; I am in the daily habit of prescribing them (Peters' Pills) and they in nearly all cases answer my purposes. I have directed other medicines, some of them very good ones, in their favor. Charlotte, N.C., June 1, 1837. Dear Sir: I have frequent use of your Pills in the incipient stage of bilious fever and obstinate constipation of the bowels, also, in the enlargement of the spleen, chronic disease of the liver, sick head-ache general debility, and in all cases have found them to be very effective. J. D. Boyd Mecklenburg Co. Va. Feb. 7, 1837. Having used Dr. Peters' Pills in my practice for the last 15 months, I take pleasure in giving my testimony of their good effects of cases of dyspepsia, sick headache bilious ferers, and other diseases, produced by inactivity of the liver.
