

Mr. Harvie said he hoped that gentleman would exercise a little patience.

Mr. Taylor, of New York, said he thought the resolution should not be acted on, as the convention would thereby be undoing what had been done for the last two days.

Mr. R. Johnson said he feared the committee would not report so soon.

Mr. M'Dowell said the committee would certainly report in half an hour.

Mr. R. W. Bowie of Maryland, said the committee had adjourned, and no such order had been taken.

Mr. M'Dowell said he was assured by what might be considered the majority, that the committee would be able to report.

Mr. Hornor of New Jersey, moved that the convention proceed to other business until the committee be able to report.

Mr. Harvie moved an adjournment.

Lost.

Mr. Taylor of New York, moved the committee take a recess for half an hour, which was afterwards altered to an hour, and agreed to.

HALF PAST TEN, P. M.

As soon as the convention was called to order,

Gov. Owen, of North Carolina, announced that the committee had had the subject matter under consideration, and had instructed the chairman to report progress and ask leave to sit again; and that the following was the result of the ballottings for President.

Two hundred and fifty-four ballots were cast, of which

Gen. WINFIELD SCOTT had 16

National Convention.

We have this week devoted nearly the whole of our paper to the proceedings of this important meeting. Perhaps there never was a session of any body of men, whose doings were looked for with more anxiety.

For years the great portion of the reflecting part of the community have been contending against the abuses and ill used power of the National Administration. They, we might almost say, contended in vain, were it not that we believed that the continued firmness of the friends of order have made the wily demagogues less bold, and less vicious in their course, lest their ever watchful foes might awaken the minds of the people to a sense of their danger.

Three years ago nothing was wanted but the early and united action of our friends to have wrested the power from the hands of the spoilers, we failed then; and our hope was, that the old veteran of North Bend should be by acclamation called forth once more as the people's choice. Unfortunately, personal preferences, and as we thought a vain success with another, scattered the seeds of dissension among our ranks, and a gloomy prospect of inevitable defeat seemed distinctly pictured in the distance.

A National Convention was finally conceived as the only plan of concentrating again the foes of the political power and political tyranny.

As one of the humblest soldiers in the cause of the people, we patiently awaited the result; nor tried to use our little means to wound the feelings of such as we believed sought to obtain the same desirable end as ourselves. Had such been the course of many others, we feel confident there would have been a united and energetic effort at once to prostrate that party which has prostrated our country; and we feel equally confident, that the "greatest good to the greatest number" will be the watchword which accomplishes the same result now. Feeling thus, how can we fail to commence the good work at once?

We have during all the contests for men, kept the name of OLD TIP stream ing from our mast head; and we rejoice to be enabled to say, after the action of the Convention, that "our flag is still there."

GEN. WM. H. HARRISON

Was nominated, we might almost say, by acclamation. His honors won in the field of battle and in the councils of the nation have rendered him too dear to every true American citizen to let him go to his grave without receiving the gratitude of a happy people.

Hurrah for the hero of Tippecanoe! who will not re-echo the shout.—When clouds and darkness overshadowed our country—when the frontier settler laid down to his rest, uncertain whether he should rise again, unless to see his family the victim of the red man's knife,—when almost every valley of the west was crimsoned by the blood of its sons—where then was old Tip. Where the war whoop was the wildest—where the knife and the tomahawk gleamed the brightest—where a savage and an unrelenting foe was the fiercest. There he stood; and there he conquered; and there he never lost a battle. Do we not owe him much?—shall he not be re-paid? We hear the answer on every breeze, "honor to whom honor is due."

Our readers will see that JOHN TYLER of Virginia, is the candidate for the Vice Presidency. We have, of course, placed his name in the place of Daniel Webster—as great and as good a name as ever graced the pages of history—always excepting our only Washington.

Fame tells a flattering tale of Governor Tyler's capacity and honor.

Come to the rescue every lover of his country.

26th CONGRESS.

On Monday, the 26th Congress met; many had anticipated that scene a life disgraceful as those of last winter at Harrisburg would be enacted, in order to secure the seats of some disputed members, among whom is Tory Ingersoll. Although there was considerable confusion, yet there was no row or riot got up to effect that end. Immediately upon the meeting of the body, which was full, not one being absent, the Clerk (Garland) commenced calling the roll, when he came to the Jersey members he called only the name of one, Mr. Randolph, whose seat is the only one in that State, which is undisputed; and refused to call any of the others. As might be anticipated, the fan began; for each Jersey member had the same evidence of his election, as Mr. Randolph; and the right of the Clerk to make his election of those entitled, was stoutly denied. One motion succeeded another, and one speech was followed by another. Mr. Garland, however, assumed the responsibility of refusing to put any motions; and consequently, they were all laid on the table without even a hope of being put to the house. For three days this scene of folly was carried on; and the House not nearer its action upon the point at issue than when they met. Ashamed of such child's play, at last, a motion was made by Mr. Rhett, after a skimming speech of old John Quincy, literally flaying the despot, Garland, for refusing to do his duty, that the Ex-President take the speaker's chair, and act as pro tem Speaker until the difficulties of contested seats were settled. He took the chair amid the acclamations of the crowded hall; and from that time until our last reports, the house was engaged discussing the rights of the contested members.

The result of this is, no President's Message is yet sent to Congress.

GLAD TIDINGS

PETERS' VEGETABLE PILLS

CITIZENS of Pennsylvania, you have now before you Dr. PETERS' CELEBRATED VEGETABLE PILLS.

These Pills are no longer among those of doubtful utility. They have passed away from the hundreds that are daily launched upon the tide of experiment, and now stand before the public as high in reputation, and as extensively employed in all parts of the U. States, the Canadas, Texas, Mexico, and the west Indies, as any medicine that has ever been prepared for the relief of suffering man. They have been introduced wherever it has been found possible to carry them; and there are but few towns that do not contain some remarkable evidences of their good effects. The certificates that have been presented to the proprietor exceed twenty thousand upwards of five hundred of which are from regular practising physicians, who are the most competent judges of the merits.

Often have the cures performed by this medicine been the subject of editorial comment, in various newspapers and journals; and it may with truth be asserted, that no medicine of the kind has ever received testimonials of greater value than are attached to this.

They are in general use as a family medicine and there are thousands of families who declare they are never satisfied unless they have a supply always on hand.

They have no rival in curing and preventing Bilious Fevers, Fever and Ague, Dyspepsia, Liver Complaints, Sick Headache, Jaundice, Asthma, Dropsy, Rheumatism, Enlargement of the Spleen, Piles, Cholera, Females Obstructions, Heartburn, Furred Tongue, Nausea, Distension of the Stomach and Bowels, Incipient Diarrhoea, Flatulence, Habitual Costiveness, Loss of Appetite, Blotched or Sallow Complexion, and in cases of torpor of the bowels, where a cathartic or aperient is needed. They are exceedingly mild in their operation, producing neither nausea, griping nor debility.

Extract of a letter written by Dr. Francis Bogart, of Providence, R. I. Dec. 17, 1828.—"Peters' pills are an excellent aperient and cathartic medicine, those effects being produced by the differences of the quantity taken, and are decidedly superior to Lee's, Brandroth's or Morrison's Pills."

Extract from a letter by Dr. Hopson of Bangor, Me. Jan. 9, 1839. They are a peculiarly mild, yet efficient purgative medicine, and produce little, of any griping or nausea. I have prescribed them with much success in sick headache and slight bilious fever.

Extract of a letter by Dr. Joseph Williams of Burlington, Vt. July 9, 1837.—"I cordially recommend Peters' Pills as a mild effective, and in no case dangerous, family medicine. They are peculiarly in costiveness and all the usual diseases of the digestive organs."

Extract of a letter from Dr. Edw. Smith of Montreal, U. C. Sept 27, 1836—I never knew a single patent medicine that I could put the least confidence in but Dr. Peters' Vegetable Pills, which are really a valuable discovery. I have no hesitation in having it known that I use them extensively in my practice, for all complaints, (and they are not a few) which have their source in the impurity of the blood.

Extract of a letter from Dr. Dye of Quebec, L. C. March 6, 1837. For bilious fevers, sick head-ache, torpidity of the bowels, and enlargement of the spleen Dr. Peters' Pills are an excellent medicine.

Extract of a letter from Dr. Gurney N Orleans, La., Oct. 9, 1837; I have received much assistance in my practice; especially in jaundice and yellow fever, from the use of Peters' Pills. I presume that, on an average, I prescribe 100 boxes in a month.

Extract of a letter from Dr. Prichard of Hudson N. Y. June 3, 1836; I was aware that Dr. Peters' was one of the best chemists in the U. States, and felt assured that he would some day (from his intimate knowledge of the properties of herbs and drugs) produce an efficient medicine, and I must acknowledge that his Vegetable Pills fully respond to my expectations. They are indeed a superior medicine, and reflect credit alike upon the Chemist, the Physician, and Philosopher.

Extract of a letter from Dr. Wains of Cincinnati, Feb. 2, 1838; your Pills are the mildest in their operations, and yet most powerful in their effect, of any that I have. There action on the chyle, and hence on the impurities of the blood is evidently very surprising.

Extract of a letter from Dr. Scott of Baltimore, Dec. 17, 1836; I am in the daily habit of prescribing them (Peters' Pills) and they in nearly all cases answer my purposes. I have directed other medicines, some of them very good ones, in their favor.

Charlotte, N.C., June 1, 1837.
Dear Sir: I have frequent use of your Pills in the incipient stage of bilious fever and obstinate consumption of the bowels, or, in the enlargement of the spleen, chronic disease of the liver, sick head-ache general debility, and in all cases have found them to be very effective. J. D. Boyd Mecklenburg Co. Va. Feb. 7, 1837.

Having used Dr. Peters' Pills in my practice the last 13 months, I take pleasure in giving my testimony of their good effects of cases of dyspepsia, sick headache bilious fevers, and other diseases, produced by inactivity of the liver. They are a safe and mild aperient, being the best article of the kind I ever used.
