EDITORIAL SUMMARY.

In Baltimore a poor woman was taken to the watch house for stealing wood, she begged to be taken to her children, or that they be brought to her, else they would freeze. Her request was not granted. In the morning both the children were found frozen to death. What a comment on the humanity of the Baltimore watchmen.

Quick Work.—A letter was received in Philadelphia, only fifteen days after it was mailed in Washington. Our mails can beat that—not long since we received a letter post marked six miles below here, only seven days on the road. That is at the same rate of the man who walked fourteen miles in fifteen days.

The Blood-hound Army it seems, have arrived at Florida, and we suppose are now to do what Van Buren and his administration have been trying for years; and has cost our treasury so many millions of dollars. We have no hesitation in saying that a well trained corps of French poodles could accomplish as much good, with less expense, as have been done by our army. But as for the blood hound project, it is exactly worthy of the powers that be. Neither the magician nor his puppies were fond of fighting. If old Tippenahoe or even old Hickory, aged and debilitated as he is, were among them they would find that they knew how to do their own fighting.

Another Victim to drunkenness was found in Greensboro, N. C. Having laid down by the fire, his clothes caught and he was literally roasted alive. Was not the man who gave him the liquor accessory to his murder?

A barber in Washington advertises "scalps" for sale. He had better go to Florida, our warriors there have not caught a poposee this nine months; and if they could buy a good scalp, they could make the war department believe they had killed an old Indian; and forthwith Proclamation could be made—"The Florida war ended."

Evidence of Insanity.—Dr. Brandreth (of pill making memory we suppose) has sued the editor of the Boston Post for $20,000 for saying that the said Dr was crazy. The Post says, "if suing a printer for that amount of money is not sufficient evidence of insanity, there is no use for insane Hospitals."

Our State debt amounts, it is said, to eighteen dollars for every man, woman and child in the State. We say Porter has added millions to it, and before this legislature adjourns, millions more will be added—stick a pin there.

Virginia has elected a Harrison Governor. Well done for the old Dominion; the ball is rolling.

A child was killed the other day, by a neighbor sitting on it in the cradle.

Charles Wood and John Smith, recently convicted of robbing a canal boat at Harrisburg last summer, have been sentenced to the penitentiary for 3 years.

The silken tie that binds two willing hearts

MARRIED BY THE REV. G. L. BROWN.

On the 23th of January, Mr Charles Slack, to Miss Rachel Crownover, both of Barree tp. Huntingdon county.

On Thursday the 20th February, Mr. James McQuaid, to Mrs. Elizabeth Patton both of Walker tp this county.

OBITUARY RECORD.

"In the midst of life we are in death."

DIED.—At the late residence of his father, in West township, on Tuesday, the 18th instant, JAMES CRAWFORD, Esq.

Death is no respecter of persons. Few of the victims of that ruthless messenger, leave us more regretted than Col. James Crawford. Of amiable and gentlemanly deportment, he lived beloved and respected by all who enjoyed the pleasure of his acquaintance. Educated for the bar, had he lived he could not have failed to have done honor to himself and his profession. The fell destroyer marked him for his own; and in the prime of manhood, he was summoned to that bourne whence no traveller returns. As he lived beloved and respected, he has died regretted and mourned, by a numerous circle of friends.
