HARD TIMES.—A clergyman in a town a few miles east of Hartford, recently preaching an old sermon, stated to his congregation as a reason for so doing, that "the times were so hard, that he could not get money to buy paper to write new ones upon."

NORTHEASTERN BOUNDARY. - The St ohn's (N. B.) Courier, announces tha 50 additional soldiers have been sent int-he disputed territory by the British au horities, and Col. Goldie has been or 50 addie the fourth Tuesday of March, 1840, she di-cd-a singular coincidence in the mysteries of Providence. The climate of the Wabash proved too severe for her delicate constitu-tion; and she returned, like the wounded bird; to die amid the seenes of her childhood. So young, and so much beloved, leaving be-hind her an infant daughter, like she herself was left, too young to know the loss of a mo-ther; a hnsband too disconsolate to be com-forted; and a large circle of relations and acquaintances, her death has been indeed a bitter cup. But their loss has been her gain -she has gone to a brighter world, where sickness and death can never come--where the wicked cease from troubling, and the weary are at rest.
