

From Texas.

HORRIBLE MASSACRE.

Late dates from Galveston reached N. Orleans on the 7th inst. The Texas papers detail an account of brutal treachery towards a party of Comanche Indians by a detachment of Texas troops under the Secretary of War, Win. G. Cooke.

WOMEN AND LADIES.

Time was when, in good old Scripture parlance, the word woman was regarded as an honorable appellation of adult females. But this term was too republican for our republican community.

one or two other wounds less serious. Apprehensions were felt for the life of Mr. Knowles yesterday; but we learn that he was, last night, doing well.

PENNSYLVANIA & NEW YORK.

Extract of a letter from a gentleman at Albany, to his friend in Philadelphia: "The news from Harrisburg is very cheering to us here in this State."

Lecco Foco Song.

(AMENDED.)

The poetic geniuses who surround the standard, have imagined themselves particularly smart, in attempting to parody some of the songs which have been written to commemorate the deeds and fame of Harrison.

THE JOURNAL.

Runnington, April 29, 1840.

Democratic Antimasonic CANDIDATES.

We have seen a $10 note purporting to be on the Exchange Bank of Pittsburgh, which has been altered from some fraudulent Institution.

Death of Judge White.

This distinguished citizen died at Knoxville, Tenn., on the 10th inst. He was a man of the purest integrity, and has held the highest honors in the state.

The Legislature.

The effort of the governor to keep the Legislature in session, until they should grant him and his harpies money to speculate upon, it appears failed.

THE OPIUM SMUGGLERS.

Mr. Chandler - May I beg a place in your paper for the following extract? It is transcribed from "Howard Malcolm's Travels in South Eastern Asia."

PRINCE ALBERT.—As usual, there is much scynophancy in every thing said and done about the Prince.

He is, I believe, a young man much superior to the usual run of Princes, but the adulation take it for granted that he has every virtue and accomplishment in the world.

Colonel Crockett.

A letter appears in a late number of the Austin Gazette, which states that Colonel Crockett did not perish at the storming of that fortress, but still survives, and is now a captive, laboring in a Mexican mine.

THEIVING CROWS OF CYLON.—I break

part of the fort with Lieut. Dalgetty, part of which meal we were nearly deprived of by a crow that flew in at the window; but it was fortunately saved by the timely entrance of a servant.

NUTS FOR CAPT. MARYAT TO CRACK.

The Queen held a court on Tuesday at Buckingham Palace, for the reception of address on her marriage.

FRENCH TRANSLATION.—The Constitution

noticing her Majesty's visit to Durylane Theatre, constructs the title of Kenney's face of Raising the Wind into Levent se leve.

DREADFUL AFFRAY.

There were many rumors afloat yesterday respecting an affray, attended with very serious consequences, which had occurred the night before.

From the U. S. G. zette.

On Wednesday evening then, it appears

Mr. Daniel Carman, of the firm of William Carman and Son, in Market street, and Mr. Knowles, hatter, of North Sixth street, accidentally met in one of the public houses in the vicinity of the Chesnut street Theatre.

against the plundering system which is said to be in full operation on the Delaware Division of the Pennsylvania Canal.

We understand that the complaint to the Canal Commissioners, has been made by one of the political friends of those in office.

DISGRACEFUL.—A ROW AND FIGHT IN the HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.—It is recorded, a week or two since, an outrage which was committed in the Assembly room at Harrisburg.

Mr. Saltonstall was commencing upon certain official documents in relation to the conduct and expenditures of the Government. While he was speaking, Mr. Bynum, of N. C., came to the part of the house in which Mr. Garland, of Louisiana, was sitting.
