

agree to let the old soldiers vote, because they were poor. Yet this Martin Van Buren is now called a Democrat. He could not bear the idea that universal suffrage should be allowed. He would, and did afterwards vote, that a negro man, having property, should be entitled to a vote. Yet the poor revolutionary soldier should not. This is his kind of patriotism. A RICH NEGRO, before a Patriot of the Revolution that was poor, was his doctrine. What do you think of such doctrines, honest citizens?

The above are true specimens of Van Buren's Democracy. Yet we doubt not, that our neighbor of the "Advocate" will say that it is false; and perhaps offer to bet another $100 that it is so. But no matter—we say it is true; and we will bet him a bull pup, against one of the Florida bloodhounds, that it is true. A hundred dollars is a great deal of money.

Sabbath School Celebration.

MR. BENEDICT.— If it meets with your approbation I would briefly notice in your paper, the celebration of the 64th anniversary of our national independence, by the Methodist Episcopal, and Presbyterian Sabbath Schools of the Borough of Huntingdon.

In pursuance of previous arrangements, each school under the direction of its superintendent and teachers, met at the Methodist Episcopal Church at 10 o'clock in the morning, to unite in spending the day in a manner worthy of the event which was commemorated. And I trust, that what was then said and done, will leave upon the minds of that youthful assembly, impressions calculated to make them wiser and better, and long to be remembered.

How soul-thrilling was the sight! There were assembled nearly three hundred youthful beings, clad in neat and clean attire, welcoming the return of the Sabbath day of freedom, with countenances beaming with joy and gladness. A prayer of deep-felt thankfulness was appropriately offered up by the Rev. Mr. Brown; and after a suitable hymn was sung, an address, admirably adapted to the occasion, was delivered by the Rev. Mr. Peebles. Although the church was crowded by persons of all ages, from lisping infancy to mature age, yet all seemed to listen with breathless attention to the story of the Revolution. The deep debt of gratitude we owe to an Over-ruling Providence, for the unnumbered blessings that have been showered in rich profusion upon our common country, the swelling hearts, and beaming eyes of the old and young fully acknowledged. With what eager interest the boys and girls leaned forward to catch the words that fell from the speaker's lips! Doubtless many young hearts resolved, as the tears of grateful joy welled up to their eyes, that truth, honor, and virtue, should characterize their lives. And it is to be hoped, that the example of the great and good Washington, as then presented, will be constantly kept in view as their guiding star.

After the address, the schools formed in procession, and accompanied by the clergy, and some citizens of the town, walked to the beautiful grove at Cypress Cottage, where comfortable seats, and suitable refreshments were kindly afforded to all. All inspired by the beauty of the place, and the interesting occasion, were joyous and light-hearted. Mr. Miles having prefaced the reading of the declaration of independence, by some remarks as to its object, and the happy results of it, that instrument was read by Mr. Thos. Burchnell. This was followed by a happy and timely reference by Mr. Peebles, to the temperance revolution. —The great necessity of breaking off the shackles of intemperance, and declaring on the side of temperance, was in a becoming manner enforced. The refreshments having been partaken of, a missionary hymn was sung, and the mingled voices sent up an anthem, bearing the overflowings of tender and grateful hearts. The procession then returned to the Presbyterian church, and after singing and praying, all were dismissed to their respective homes, happy and pleased.

MECHANIC'S LIEN.

HUNTINGDON County, ss

The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to the sheriff of said county, Greeting:

Whereas John J. Taylor lately, viz— on the 27th April 1840 agreeably to the act of assembly in such case made and approved, filed a claim in our county court of common Pleas in and for the said county against Richard Plowman for the sum of five hundred dollars against all that certain saw mill, erected and partly finished on the farm of Richard Plowman now in the possession of Dr. J. H. Dorsey known by the name of the Sugar Grove Farm, in the township of Henderson in the said county of Huntingdon, upon the true called which run empties into the Pennsylvania canal at or near the Red House on said farm; for the work already done and materials found for the said saw mill, viz, for mill-wright work, hewing timber, iron and castings, in and about the construction and erection of the said saw mill. And whereas it is alleged that the said sum still remains due and unpaid to the said John J. Taylor. Now we command you that you make known to the said Richard Plowman and Dr. Jonathan H. Dorsey and to all such persons as may hold or occupy said saw mill that they be and appear before the Judges of our said court, at a court of common Pleas to be held at Huntingdon in and for the said county of Huntingdon on the second Monday of August next, to show if any thing they know or have to say why the said sum of five hundred dollars should not be levied of the said building according to the form and effect of the act of assembly in such case made and provided, if to them it shall seem expedient, and have you then there this writ. Witness Thos Burnside Esq. President of our said court at Huntingdon, this second day of July A. D. 1840.

WORMS! WORMS!! SUPERIOR Vermifuge Syrup.

This preparation is confidently recommended to the public, as an effectual remedy for expelling and destroying worms. It has been extensively used for some time and has never failed to give relief where worms have been present; and in many cases where all other medicines have failed, this medicine has given immediate relief. It is preferable to all other medicines, on account of the mildness of its operation, being easy to administer, requiring but few and small doses, and attended by no bad consequences. This highly valuable medicine is a safe and sure remedy for expelling all worms, to which many of the most respectable certificates can be obtained. It is unnecessary to give any further detail of its goodness, as a fair trial will prove its efficacy.

Prepared and sold wholesale and retail at the Drug, Chemical and Fancy store of Thomas Read, which is under the superintendence of Dr. Jacob Hoffman. Huntingdon, July 8, 1840.—St.

CAUSE OF DYSPEPSIA.

This disease often originates from a habit of over-eating or distending the stomach by excessive eating or drinking, or very protracted periods of fasting, an indolent or sedentary life, in which no exercise is afforded to the muscular fibres or mental faculties, fear, grief, and deep anxiety, taken too frequently, or purging medicines, dysentery, miscarriages, intermittent and spasmodic affections of the stomach and bowels; the most common of the latter causes are late hours, and the too frequent use of spirituous liquor.

LIVER COMPLAINT.

Cured by the use of Dr. Harlich's Compound. Strengthening and German Aperient Pills. Mr. Wm. Richard, Pittsburg, Pa. entirely cured of the above distressing disease: His symptoms were, pain and weight in the left side, loss of appetite, vomiting, acrid cructations, a distention of the stomach, sick headache, furred tongue, countenance changed to a citron color, difficulty of breathing, disturbed rest, attended with a cough, great debility, with other symptoms indicating great derangement of the functions of the liver. Mr. Richard had the advice of several physicians, but received no relief, until using Dr. Harlich's medicine, which terminated in effecting a perfect cure.

Hays' Liniment.

Those only who know by trial or immediate observation, can form any idea of the effects, of the perfect relief, of the almost charm-like cures effected in cases of the Piles Rheumatici, all Swellings, and all external pains, no matter how severe, by the use of Hays' Liniment. Find one who has used it that will not hand it above all things ever used, and you will find—what cannot be found.

For the relief of suffering human beings who may be afflicted, I beg you to ask—ask of those who know—ask the Hon. Alfred Conklin, U. S. Judge for that district, residing near Auburn; ask Matthew J. Myers, Esq., Athens, N. Y.; ask Gen. Duff Green, late of Washington city, each of these gentlemen know of cases unconquerable by any other remedies or physicians, though tried for many years, that have been cured by the use of the genuine Hays' Liniment. Thousands of other persons know similar cures. We appeal to their sense of justice—their human feelings.

It is but a duty you owe to your suffering fellow-beings to let this great remedy be known. Speak of it then to all your friends. This will save much pain where the newspapers are not read, or where readers are incredulous, because so many worthless articles are advertised for the same purpose. To buyers we say, if all who have used it do not say it is beyond all praise, then do not take it. The proprietor will not allow this article to be paid for unless it cures, when all the directions are fully followed. Will any one suffering refuse to try it? If he does, he ought to be pitied more for his obstinacy than his suffering.

Mr. Hays would never consent to offer this article, were he not compelled by his sense of moral—of religious duty—to do all in his power for the victims of distress and misery. For this purpose he would sooner devote a fortune, than secure a dollar for any worthless article.

LOOK OUT.—Some swindlers have counterfeited this article, and put it up with various devices. Do not be imposed upon. One thing only will protect you—it is the name of CORSEBROOK & CO.; that name must be on all the wrappers, or you are cheated. Do not forget it. Take this direction with you, and test by that, or never buy; for it is impossible for any other to be true or genuine.

LIVER COMPLAINT.

This disease is discovered by a fixed obtuse pain and weight in the right side under the short ribs; attended with heat, uneasiness about the pit of the stomach;—there is in the right side also a distension—the patient loses his appetite and becomes sick and trouble with vomiting. The tongue becomes rough and black, countenance changes to a pale or citron color or yellow, like those afflicted with jaundice—difficulty of breathing, disturbed rest, attended with dry cough, and faintly of laying on the left side—the body becomes weak, and finally the disease terminates into another of a more serious nature, which in all probability is far beyond the power of human skill. Dr. Harlich's compound tonic strengthening and German aperient pills, if taken at the commencement of this disease, will check it, and by continuing the use of the medicine a few weeks, a perfect cure will be performed. Thousands can testify to this fact.

Certificates of many persons may daily be seen of the efficacy of this invaluable medicine, by applying at the Medical Office, No. 19 North Eighth street, Philadelphia. Also, at the Store of Jacob Miller, who's agent for Huntingdon county.

DYSPEPSIA! DYSPEPSIA!!

More proofs of the efficacy of Dr. Harlich's Medicines. Mr. Jonas Hartman, of Sunnyside, Pa. entirely cured of the above disease, which he was afflicted with for six years. His symptoms were a sense of distension and oppression after eating, distressing pain in the pit of the stomach, nausea, loss of appetite, giddiness and dimness of sight, extreme debility, flatulency, acrid eructations, sometimes vomiting, and pain in the right side, depression of spirits, disturbed rest, faintness, and not able to pursue his business without causing immediate exhaustion and weariness. Mr. Hartman is happy to state to the public and is willing to give any information to the afflicted, respecting the wonderful benefit he received from the use of Dr. Harlich's Compound Strengthening and German aperient pills. Principal office, No. 19 North Eighth street Philadelphia. Also for sale at the store of Jacob Miller, Huntingdon.
