FEE BILLS,

NEATLY EXECUTED, ON GOOD PAPER FOR SALE AT THIS OFFICE

PUBLIC SALE.

Will be sold at public sale on the 21st of August, the farm now in tenure of R. Campbell, situate in Dublin township, Huntingdon county, about one quarter of a mile from Burnt Cabins, containing

300 ACRES,

200 acres cleared and in good order, the residue is well timbered. Thereon erected a good log house and double barn, and other out buildings. The land is principally first rate quality limestone, well watered; and only a short day's drive from the southern turnpike, and within of a mile of the State road. It will be sold in parts to suit purchasers. Terms made known on the day of sale. It will be sold previously at private sale if opportunity offers.

WM. JAMISON.

July 8, 1840.-St-p. "Perry Freeman," and "Junata Aurora" insert to the amount of $1, and charge this office.

Hays' Liment.

Those only who know by trial or immediate observation, can form any idea of the effects, of the perfect relief, of the almost charm-like cures effected in cases of the Piles Rheumatism, all Swellings, and all external pains, no matter how severe, by the use of Hays' Liment. Find one who has used it that will not laud it above all things ever used, and you will find—what cannot be found.

For the relief of suffering human beings who may be afflicted, I beg you to ask—ask of those who know—ask the Hon. Alfred Conklin, U. S. Judge for that district, residing near Auburn; ask Matthew J. Myers, Esq., Athens, N. Y.; ask Gen. Duff Green, late of Washington city, each of these gentlemen know of cases un conquerable by all other remedies or physicians, though tried for many years, that have been cured by the use of the genuine Hays' Liment. Thousands of other persons know similar cures. We appeal to their sense of justice—their human feelings.

It is but a duty you owe to your suffering fellow-beings. Let this great remedy be known. Speak of it then to all your friends. This will save much pain where the newspapers are not read, or where readers are incredulous, because so many worthless articles are advertised for the same purpose. To buyers we say, if all who have used it do not say it is beyond all praise, then do not take it. The proprietor will not allow this article to be paid for unless it cures, when all the directions are fully followed. Will any one suffering refuse to try it? If he does, he ought to be pitted more for his obstinacy than his suffering.

Mr. Hays would never consent to offer this article, were he not compelled by his sense of moral—and religious duty—to do all in his power for the victims of distress and misery. For this purpose he would sooner devote a fortune, than secure a dollar for any worthless article.

LOOK OUT.—Some swindlers have counterfeited this article, and put it up with various devices. Do not be imposed upon. One thing only will protect you—it is the name of COMSTOCK & Co.; that name must be on every wrapper, or you are cheated. Do not forget it. Take this direction with you, and test by that, or never buy; for it is impossible for any other to be true or genuine.

SOLOMON HAYS, Sold by COMSTOCK & Co., 2 Fletcher St., New York. For sale at THOMAS READ'S Drug Store, Huntingdon, Pa. July 1, 1840.-3 m.

ORPHANS' COURT SALE.
