PERMS

MUNTINGDON JOURNAL.

The "JOURNAL" will be published every Vednesday morning, at two dollars a year, I paid IN ADVANCE, and if not paid with a six months, two dollars and a half.
Every person who obtains five subscribers, and forwards price of subscription, shall be armished with a sixth copy gratuitously for no year.

armished with a sixth copy gratuitously for one year.

No subscription received for a less period than six months, nor any paper discontinued until all arrearages are paid.

Tall communications must be addressed to the Editor, post palp, or they will not be attended to.

Advertisements not exceeding one square, will be inserted three times for one dollar, and for every subsequent insertion, twenty-five cents per square will be charged. If no definite orders are given as to the time an advertisement is to be continued, it will be kept in till ordered out, and charged accordingly.

AGENTS.

The Huntingdon Journal.

The Huntingdon Journal.

Daniel Teague, Orbisonia; David Blair,
Es, Shade Gaf; Benjamin Lease, Shirleysburs; Elici Smith, Esq. Chiteotstown; Jas.
Entriken, jr. Ceffee Run; Hugh Maden,
Esq. Sprimgfeld; Dr. S. S. Dewey, Birmingham; James Morrow, Union Furnace;
John Sisler, Warrior Mark; James Davis,
Esq. West townshif; D. H. Moore, Esq
Frankstown; Eph. Gabreath, Esq. Holtidaysburg; Henry Neff, Alexandria; Aaron
Burns, Williamsburg: A. J. Stewart, Water
Street; Wm. Reed, Esq. Morris townshif;
Solomon Hamer, Aeff's Mill; James Dysart,
Mouth Skruce Creek; Wm. Murray, Esq.
Graysville; John Crum, Manor Hill; Jas.
E. Stewart, Sinking Valley; L. C. Kessler, Mill Creek.

POETRY.

JIM CROW.

"TELL CHAPMAN HE MUST CROW!" Let all de British Tory,
Who feel very low:
Keep stiff de upper lip,
And give a loud Crow.
Brag about and bet about,
And grin just so,
And every time you meet a Whig,
Give a loud Crow.

Massa Kendall give de order. "Charge on the foe!"
So neber be down hearted,
But give a loud crow!
Brag about, &cc.

Old Missis Grundy,
Who eberything do knew;
He tell de Leco. "Give a loud Crow!" Brag, &c.

Old Massa Ritche-He say just so—
Stick to de dunghill,
And give a loud Crow! Brag &cc.

Dere is Louisiana,
No matter how she go—
Only claim the battle,
And give a loud Crow!
Brag, &c.

Massa Van be frightened, Massa Van be trightened, Everybody know, Still he scold at Amos 'Cause he dosen't crow! Brag about and boast about— And strut just so, And never lose de spirits, But give a loud Crow!

OPPOSITION.

Johannes Heinrich Feuchtwanger, M. D. Whose astonishing success in the decapitation of masquitces and the impalement of bedbugs has gained him the applause and admiration of half the civilized work and the impalement of bedbugs has gained him the applause and admiration of half the civilized work and the impalement of bedbugs has gained him the applause and admiration of half the civilized work and the impalement of bedbugs has gained him the applause and admiration of half the civilized work and the impalement of bedbugs has gained him the applause and admiration of half the civilized work and the impalement of bedbugs has gained him the applause and admiration of half the civilized work and the impalement of bedbugs has gained him the applause and admiration of half the civilized work and the impalement of bedbugs has gained him the applause and admiration of half the civilized work and the impalement of bedbugs has gained him the applause and admiration of half the civilized work and the impalement of bedbugs has gained him the applause and admiration of half the civilized work and the impalement of bedbugs and actively, so long that I was a Federalist, and acted with that party, zealously and actively, so long that I was a Federalist, and acted with that party, zealously and actively, so long that I was a Federalist, and actively, so long that I was a Federalist, and actively, so long that I was a Federalist, and actively, so long that I was a Federalist, and actively, so long that I was a Federalist, and actively, so long that I was a Federalist, and actively, so long that I was a Federalist, and actively, so long that I was a Federalist, and actively, so long the late and the like party and the work of the Balt mark of the Balt ward, denounced it, Mr. Madison to the bed steed, and can be adapted at pleasure of the transment of federalism; we delight in the name of the United States, late solicitor of the Delaware Gazette, who in 1823, said.

What on the heritage wavel on New Jersey."

8. Will

Plain Questions & Answers

take of their people, and how they keep it. Do you know it he's got any answers yet?

Captain...—Oh, yes. The U. S. Consuls, you see, have attended to it, knowing it was to help them to get the gold for their salaries.

P. R.—Well, I reckon they got answers to please them then?

Capt...—Why d'ye see.—The answers from Hamburgh, Bremen, Cuba, Jamaica, Berlin, Franklort in Germany, Leipsic in Saxony, Munich, Smyrna, Genoa, Laguira, Leghorn, and Constantinople, show, that they require every dollar of the people, or revenue in specie. Not a single dollar does the Emperor of Austria, the King of Prussia, King of Sweden, the Grand Sultan, or any of those arbitrary monarchs, take of their subjects but the real Benton shiners, sir, or the hard silver—they don't touch a dollar, sir, of bank rags, nor don't put a dollar in the banks.

P. R.—Well, well.—I reckon specie must be easy got in those countries, the people get likely wages there for work, as there is no bank aristocrat. These specie Emperors and Brokers, &c., give fine prices for work, don't they?

Capt...—Why as to that d'ye see—their subjects don't need as much as our do here—as things are cheaper there.

P. R.—Well, is land cheap too?

Capt...—Oh, the subjects don't own the land, it all belongs to the Dukes and Lords.

P. R.—What does the word subject mean?

From the Low Cabin Advocate THE FEDERAL PARTY.

THE FEDERAL PARTY.

The residency of 82000 agrees and the residency of 82000 agrees the ocean to find out what kind of money the Kings and Emperors, that our Persidenths here are residentially asserted to the control of the property of th

17. Martin Chittenden, who as Governor of Vermont, issued his proclamation prohibiting the Vermont militia from crossing the Lake to defend Plattsburg against the invasion of the British troops.

18. Dutee J. Pearce, late member of Congress from Rhode Island.

19. Rev. George Bancroft, collector of the Customs at Batter.

knew to be false, and which has since been acknowledged to be so by the man who made it.

27. James Carroll, Van Burea member of congress from Maryland.

28. Francis Thomas, Van Buren member of congress from Maryland.

29. Jr. H. Worthington, Van Buren member of congress from Maryland.

30. Gov. Granson, Van Buren Governor of Maryland.

51. Judge Heath, Van Buren ex member of Congress from New York.

32. Dr. Taylor, Van Buren ex member of Congress from New York.

33. Judge Vanderpool, of New York.

34. John I. De. Graff, Van Buren exmember of congress from New York.

35. Herman Knickerbocker, of Schagh tiocke, a federal member of congress during the late war, and at present a Van Buren man of the first water.

36. Harmanus Bleecker, appointed by Vanburen Minister to the Hagne, was in the state of the member of Congress from New York.

42. Samuel Harker, editor of the Bal timore Republican, formerly editor of the Delaware Gazette, who in 1823, said, "we will never ask forgiveness for the political sin which stamped upon us, the name of federalism; we delight in the name — Who, again, in 1824, said, "to us the name of federalism is a subject of no reproach. We rejoice to hear it, and hope that our efforts to honor and support it, may be such as it merits. While others are endeavoring to hold it up to scorn, and are deserting its standard for the purpose of securing power and emolument from other hands, it shall be our glory to support its cause, and our feeble powers shall always be employed to display its beauties to others."

43. John Adams Dix, author of the

47. Samuel Morris, Vanburen member of congress from Pennsylvania.
48. Benjamin Mifflin, proprietor of the "Pennsylvanian," and once editor of a furious federal and anti-war paper in the unterior of this State.
49. Wm. Frick, Collector of the port of Baltimore.

spinning it is not taxing your politeness too much that fellow may return."

"Don't be afraid, I will take care of him."

The lady accepted the gentleman's proffered arm very thankfully, and retraced her steps home. On the way they talked about balls and concerts, the weather, the opera, the news of the day, and other nothings which make up fashionable conversation. To judge from the gentleman's manners and discourse, as well as from his frock, cane and yellow gloves, he was altogether their comme il faut. When they reached the lady's door, he bowed and was taking his leave.

"I really feel nuch indebted, sir," said she, "for your very timely interference."

"Don't say any thing more, I beg of you."

"Very much indebted, indeed, and if you."

"Very much indebted, indeed, and if
—if I could acknowledge your services in

"Very much indebted, indeed, and if —if I could acknowledge your services in any way—"

"Why, if you please, you may give me two shillings."

"Two—!" The lady was thunderstruck; but she really felt grateful to her preserver from insult, and without saying a word, pulled out her perse and handed him the money. He took it and walked away. At the corner our short friend of the cloak and white gloves met him.

"Well," asked he, "how much did you get?"

"Two shillings," replied he of the cane and yellow gloves.

"That will do; let's go and get some breakfast."—Mirror.

A few days ago, while one of the large boats was coming up the river, a dispute arose as to the comparative strength of the Whigs and Loco Foco parties on bard "We can very soon settle the question," exclamed a Locofoco in the crowd—let all the Whigs go to the right side of the boat and all the Democrats to the left." No sooner was this direction complied with than the loud shout of the Captain was heard—'Trim the boat!" "Trim the boat!" "Trim the boat!" "Trim the boat!" The truth is the gallant craft had careered to the side of the Whigs so as to leave the wheel on the Locofoco side almost completely out of water.—L. Jour.

The whole rage for evening parties.

BEAUTIFUL EXTRACT.

FONESDAY, SEPTEMBER 2. 1840.

17. Martin Clittenden, who as Governor of Nemotic and Control of Cont

Exactly at the hour," continued the captain.
"Pon honor, capting, that's a dem'd unseasenable hour. Supposing I should be dining out at the time?"
"Why, you'd be left, that's all."
"Aw, that would make it disagweeable, vewy. You know a gentleman can't well leave a dining table before six o'clock capting; but I suppose I must try. Good mawnin'."
"Good morning, sir."—Picayune.