

Maine! She has.
ALL RIGHT! NO MISTAKE THIS TIME!
 That strong hold of Loco Focoism, Maine, has come out, and enrolled her name among the States who say, "Martin, off to Kinderhook!" Last week we thought it was so, but were not certain. The Loco Foco candidate for Governor, was a very popular man, and ran far ahead of the party ticket. But all would not do. Even he is beaten; and in a State where honest Democracy has not had a foothold for years, the friends of that true, honest, and tried old Democrat, Wm. H. Harrison, have

Elected a Governor,
A Majority of Congressmen,
A Majority in the Senate,
A Majority in the House.

It is a clean sweep; and what no man of either party expected. The "tornado" has begun—it has swept over one State after another, until Loco Focoism is nearly "blown out."

There is something very strange that our Loco Foco friends cannot raise a meeting among the people. They went the other day, to Morris township, and took with them from that town, a post coach load—"a courtener"—besides several individuals who went in other conveyances, in all we suppose about twenty; and when they got on to the ground, they found that it was lucky that they brought the meeting with them, or they would have failed again. As it was, they mustered some ten or fifteen more, and had what they call a large and "immense concourse of the people." But in order that they might not again be fooled, they migrated with their whole meeting of Morris, down to Alexandria, to hold another meeting the same evening. Of course, that was another "great gathering of the people"—stage lines, canal hands, and all. K. K.

The "Advocate" has filled nearly two columns, to show what a rascally vote was given by Mr. Higgins. Cannot that paper prove in as many lines, that his own party had a large majority in the House? and if they thought it so bad, how comes it, that his own party, having the power, did not stop the measure?

To the citizens of Huntingdon
 Huntingdon, Sept. 23, 1840.
 MR. BENEDICT,
 Sir—Allow me, thro' the medium of your Journal, to return my most sincere thanks to the citizens of this Borough, and to the females in particular, for their unwearied exertions (at the time of the fire on Sabbath morning) in protecting my house and property from the all consuming flame. Their conduct claims from me this public acknowledgment of their zeal, their efforts, and their kindly feelings. I therefore tender them, in the name of myself and family, my most heartfelt thanks, for their more than human energy; and beg of them to accept from me the gratitude of a friend and neighbor.
 THOS. FISHER.

If Mr. Van Buren and his friends are determined on insisting that he never recommended the standing army project, why do they not insist that his last annual Message to Congress was a rascally Whig forgery?—Louisville Jour.

It is preferable to all other medicines, on account of the mildness of its operation, being easy to administer, requiring but few and small doses, and attended by no bad consequences. This highly valuable medicine is a safe and sure remedy for expelling all worms, to which many of the most respectable certificates can be obtained.
