

MOMENTARY CHANGES.

The bodies of all created beings are perpetually undergoing a species of revolutionary change; it is therefore evident, that in order to facilitate this periodical change, the natural outlets of the body must be kept in proper condition; for if the noxious humors are allowed to sojourn too long in the body, they become excessively sharp and corrosive occasioning the most terrible and fatal disorders which frequently entail years of suffering and anguish. When this is the case I would conscientiously recommend to such the immediate use of the Brandreth Vegetable Universal Pills—a medicine which has attained its present standard of usefulness, solely from its exceeding salutary properties; these Pills, being in truth nothing more than an assistant of nature, causing her to do that which is required to produce a healthy condition of the body. Such being the case, it is evident that they can be administered with safety to advanced age, as well as to helpless infancy, and invariably with the same beneficial results.

Purchase them in HUNTINGDON, of W.M. STEWART, and only in the county, of agents published in another part of this paper. Remember every agent has a certificate of agency, dated within the last twelve months. If of an earlier date do not purchase.

Roguey—Important caution.

Dr. Brandreth's Vegetable Universal Pills having gained great notoriety by the cures they have performed, unprincipled vendors of medicine, finding there is a great call for them in consequence, have had the great audacity to forge the name of Dr. Brandreth's Genuine Vegetable Universal Pills can never be obtained of any vendor of medicine, whether druggist or doctor, as neither are allowed to sell the Genuine Brandreth's Vegetable Pills, under any circumstances whatever. Be very careful all ye that want the genuine, and observe, ever when you purchase of the advertised agents, that they, the agents have an engraved certificate of agency, signed in my own hand writing.

In the court of Common Pleas of Huntingdon county.

In the matter of the Petition of H. S. Spang praying the court to order satisfaction on a Mortgage given by him to James Buchanan.

To James Buchanan Mortgagee above named;

Sir:—Take notice that at a Court of Common Pleas held at Huntingdon, in and for the county of Huntingdon, on the 18th day of November, A. D. 1840, Henry S. Spang the Mortgagor above named presented his petition to the said court setting forth that on the 9th December, 1836, he gave a mortgage to you as a lien on 172 acres of land on Canoe creek in Franks-town township, in said county, adjoining lands of Samuel R. Adams and others to secure the payment of two thousand dollars at the days and times in the said mortgage set forth—that the said monies so secured as aforesaid have all been paid and discharged, and that you the said James Buchanan have not entered satisfaction on the Record of said mortgage for said monies—that you reside out of this state and have no agent here properly authorized to enter said satisfaction, and praying the court to order and direct satisfaction to be entered on the same according to law. Whereupon the court did order me as sheriff of said county to give you this public notice of the facts set forth in the said petition and to require you to appear in the said court on the second Monday of January next to answer the said petition.

GRAHAM'S MAGAZINE.

LADIES' & GENTLEMEN'S World of Literature AND FASHION.

[The Casket and the Gentleman's united.] A New Volume, under the above title, of the well established and fashionable Magazine, The Philadelphia Casket in conjunction with the Gentleman's Magazine, which has been every where pronounced the most readable & popular of the day, will be opened on the 1st of January, 1841, with an array of Contributors secured by the union of talent and fame, which no periodical of the country can boast or pretend to rival.

The December number will, however, be a specimen of the New Volume. The volume will be opened with new and beautiful type, the finest white paper, and with the first of a series of ENDEAVOURS UNPARALLELED by any which have yet appeared in any Magazine. The style of elegance, the beauty and finish of these illustrations, and the extensive improvements which will be made in its typographical appearance, and above all the tone of its literary department, by the brilliant array of Contributors, whose articles have enriched the pages of each number, will give it a character, second to no Magazine in the Union. The character of the articles which shall appear in its pages, will be equally elevated from a sickly sentimentality, and from an affectation of morality, but while a true delineation of human nature in every variety of passion is aimed at, nothing shall be found in its pages to cause a blush upon the cheek of the most pure.

The Literary Character

will be sufficiently guaranteed by the reputation of both Magazines thus united, years past. Writers of the first rank have been regular contributors to their pages, and the tales and sketches published in them have been widely copied and read, and the firm and independent tone of the criticisms, upon the current literature of the day, has been every where approved and commended.

The List of Contributors

Embraces the names of most of the principal writers in America, with a respectable number of English authors. Original articles have appeared, during the last year, from the pens of the following:—

- Professor Ingraham, Author of La Fitee,
- Professor John Frost, Philadelphia,
- Professor N. C. Brooks, Baltimore,
- Professor C. F. Wines, Philadelphia, Author of Two Years in the Navy, Captain Maryatt, Author of Peter Simple, etc. Morton McMurry, Esq. Philadelphia, Hon. R. T. Conrad, Esq. do. Willis Grayford Clarke, Esq. do. Charles J. Peters, do. Rev. Thomas H. Stockton, do. Samuel W. Stockton, do. E. Westroon, Esq. do. Gen. O. P. Morris, New York.
- Hunt, England, Mrs. Fanny Kemble Butler Philadelphia; Park Benjamin, New York; Douglas Jerrold, England; Joseph C. New (Charcoal Sketches) the American Bard; F. Otis, New York; R. S. Elliott, Editor of Harrisburg Journal; David Hoffman, Baltimore; Charles West Thompson, Philadelphia; Tremper, Ireland, New York; Du Lalle, Esq. Greenville, Me. New Y.; P. B. Elder, Editor of Columbia Spy, Pa.; The Author of "Stanley," Edgar A. Poe, Philadelphia; T. G. Spear, do; Author of "Howard Pinckney;" Mrs. L. Sigourney, Hartford; Miss Catherine H. Waterman, Philadelphia; Mrs. Ann Stephens, New Y.; Benson Hill, England, Editor of New Monthly Magazine; Dr. J. Mitchell, Philadelphia; James Montgomery, England; A. M'Kinnon, do. Holden, Essex; J. Beauchamp Jones, Baltimore; J. E. Dow Washington City; Mrs. E. F. Ellett, Boston; Dr. Thos. Dunn English, Philadelphia.

TALES OF THE SEA.

and from his known abilities as a depicter of sea scenes and life, much may be relied upon from him in maintaining the popularity of the Magazine. Papers may be expected during the volume, also from the author of the well known articles entitled, "The Log of Old Ironsides." The author of "Syrian Letters," will also lend his powerful and graceful pen, to sustain and increase the reputation of the work. The valuable aid of the author of "Leaves from a Lawyer's Port Folio," has also been secured, and we may expect something still more thrilling from the capacious stores which a long life in the profession has enabled him to amass. An occasional Chat-Chat, with "Jeremy Short," and "Oliver Oldifellow," is also promised; with a variety of choice articles in prose and verse from various writers of celebrity, as Contributors to the prominent Magazines of the country. The editors of both Magazines continue their services under the new arrangement. With such an array of talent, a Magazine of unrivalled attractions, may safely be promised the coming volume.

Fashions and Engravings.

In compliance with the almost unanimous wish of our lady subscribers, we shall the ensuing volume furnish them with a beautiful and correct plate of FASHIONS MONTHLY, a feature, it is believed, that will neither be unwelcome nor unpopular. These Fashion plates shall be drawn from original designs from Paris and London, and may always be depended upon as the prevailing style in Philadelphia and New York for the month in which they are issued. These, however, shall in no wise interfere with the regular and choice engravings, and music which accompany each number of the work. The splendid Mezzotint engravings from the burine of Sartain, which have been so justly admired, will be followed during the volume by several from the same hand, while the steel engravings in the best style of art, from interesting scenes shall still enrich the Magazine. The choicest pieces of music for the Piano and Guitar, shall accompany each number of the work.

TIME OF PUBLICATION.

The work will be published on the first of every month in every quarter of the Union. The most distant subscriber will consequently receive it on that day, as well as those who reside in Philadelphia. In all the principal cities, agents have been established, to whom the Magazine is forwarded, prior to the time of issuing it, so that they may be delivered to resident subscribers by the first of the month. This is an important arrangement to distant subscribers, who become tired, impatient, and eventually discontinue many works, in consequence of the great delay by publishers.

TERMS.—THREE DOLLARS per annum. Or two copies yearly for FIVE DOLLARS, invariably in advance, post paid. No new subscriber received without the money, or the name of a responsible agent. For the accommodation of those who may wish to subscribe for either of the following Philadelphia periodicals, this is made. For five dollars current money free of postage, we will furnish Graham's Magazine, and Godey's Lady's Book, for one year. Address, post paid

From the Boston Chronicle, Jan. 10

We see by an advertisement in another column that Messrs. Comstock & co., the American Agents for Oldridge's Balm of Columbia, have deputies to sell that article in Boston and elsewhere. We know a lady of this city whose hair was so nearly gone as to expose entirely her phrenological developments, which, considering that they betokened a most amiable disposition, was not in reality very unfortunate. Nevertheless she mourned the loss of locks that she had worn, and after a year's fruitless resort to miscalled restoratives, purchased some months ago, a bottle or two of Oldridge's Balm, and she has now regained in rich profusion, glossy, and of raven blackness. We are not puffing, none of the commodity has been sent to us, and indeed, we do not want any, for though we were obliged to wear a wig a year ago, we have now, though its virtue, hair enough, and of a passable quality, of our own.

To the Bald Headed.

—This is to certify, that I have been bald about twenty years, and by the use of the genuine Balm of Columbia, my head is now covered with hair. I shall be happy to convince any one of the fact that will call and see me Delhi village. The above article I bought at Griswold, Case & co's store, who had it from Comstock & Co.

JOHN JAQUISH, Jr. DARING FRUD

The Balm of Columbia has been imitated by a notorious counterfeiter. Let it never be purchased or used unless it has the name of L. M. Comstock, or the signature of Comstock & co, on a splendid wrapper. This is the only external test that will secure the public from deception.

STRAY COW.

STRAYED from the subscriber, some four or six weeks ago, a Cow, six or seven years old, rather larger than the common size, and expected to have a calf in about a month. She is black along the back, and speckled with black or dark brown and white on the sides and residue of the body. She is presumed to be somewhere in the vicinity of the borough of Huntingdon. Any reasonable charge will be paid to any person informing the subscriber where she can be found.

J. M. BELL. Huntingdon, Nov. 9, 1840.

STAGNATION OF THE BLOOD.

—The repeated changes in the atmosphere, by acting as they do upon the consistence and quality of the blood, give occasion for the most fatal and malignant disorders. The blood from a state of health becomes stagnant and is plunged into a state of corruption.

Thus it loses its purity; its circulation is impeded; the channels of life are clogged; the bowels become costive, and if not an immediate attack of some malignant fever, headache, nausea, loss of appetite, and a general debility of the whole frame are sure to follow.

It requires the tempest and the torn do to bring about a state of purity in the ocean, when its waters become stagnant; and it will require repeated evacuations by the bowels before the blood can be relieved of its accumulated impurity.
