MOMENTARY CHANGES.

The bodies of all created beigs are perpetually undergoing a species of revolutionary change; it is therefore evident, that in order to facilitate this periodical change, the natural outlets of the body must be kept in proper condition; for if the noxious humors are allowed to sojourn too long in the body, they become excessively sharp and corrosive occasioning the most terrible and fatal disorders which frequently entail years of suffering and anguish. When this is the case I would conscientiously recommend to such the immediate use of the Brandreth Vegetable Universal Pills—a medicine which has attained its present standard of usefulness, solely from its exceeding salutary properties; these Pills, being in truth nothing more than an assistant of nature, causing her to do that which is required to produce a healthy condition of the body. Such being the case, it is evident that they can be administered with safety to advanced age, as well as to helpless infancy, and invariably with the came beneficial results.

GRAHAM'S MAGAZINE.
AND
LADIES' & GENTLEMAN'S World of Literature AND FASHION.
[The Casket and the Gentleman's united.]

A New Volume, under the above title, of the well established and fashionable Magazine, the Philadelphia Casket in conjunction with the Gentleman's Magazine, which has been every where pronounced the most readable and popular of the day, will be opened on the First of January, 1841, with an array of Contributors secured by the union of talent and fame, which no periodical in the country can boast or pretend to rival.—The December number will, however, be a specimen of the New Volume. The volume will be opened with new and beautiful type, the finest white paper, and with the first of a series of EMBELLISHMENTS UNSURPASSED by any which have yet appeared in any Magazine. The style of elegance, the beauty and finish of these illustrations, and the extensive improvements which will be made in its typographical appearance, and above all the tone of its literary department, by the brilliant array of Contributors, whose articles have enriched the pages of each number, will give it a character, second to no Magazine in the Union. The character of the articles which shall appear in its pages, will be equally removed from a sickly sentimentality, and from an effectation of morality, but while a true delineation of human nature in every variety of passion is aimed at, nothing shall be found in its pages to cause a blush upon the cheek of the most pure.

The Literary Character

will be sufficiently guaranteed by the reputation of both Magazines thus united, for years past. Writers of the first rank have been regular contributors to their pages, and the tales and sketches published in them have been widely copied and read, and the firm and independent tone of the criticisms, upon the current literature of the day, has been every where approved and commended.

The List of Contributors

Embraces the names of most of the principal writers in America, with a respectable number of English authors. Original articles have appeared, during the last year, from the pens of the following:—

Professor Ingraham, Author of La Fitte, Professor John Frost, Philadelphia, Professor N. C. Brooks, Baltimore, Professor C. F. Wines, Philadelphia, Author of Two Years in the Navy, Captain Maryatt, Author of Peter Simple, etc. Morton McMichael, Esq Philadelphia, Hon. R. T. Conrad, Esq. do. Willis Gaylord Clarke, Esq. do. Charles J. Peterson, do. Rev. Thomas H. Stockton, do. Samuel W. Stockton, do. E. Armstrong, Esq. do. Gen. O. P. Morris, New York, L. Hunt, England, Mrs. Fanny Kemble Butler, Philadelphia; Park Benjamin, New York; Douglass Jerrold, England; Joseph C. Neal, (Charcoal Sketches) The American Boz; J. F. Otis, New York; R. S. Elliott, Editor of Harrisburg Journal; David Hoffman, Esq. Baltimore; Charles West Thompson, Phila. Judge Tremper, Dresden, New York; John Du Solle, Esq.; Grenville Mellin, New Y.; P. B. Elder, Editor of Columbia Spy, Pa.; The Author of "Stanley;" Edgar A. Poe, Philadelphia; T. G. Spear, do; Author of "Howard Pinckney;" Mrs. L. Sigourney, Hartford; Miss Catherine H. Waterman, Philadelphia; Mrs. Ann Stephens, New Y.; Benson Hall, England, Editor of New Monthly Magazine; Dr J. Mitchell, Philadelphia; James Montgomery, England; A. M'Makin and E. Holden, Esqs.; J. Beauchamp Jones, Baltimore; J. E. Dow, Washington City; Mrs. E. F. Ellett, Boston; Dr. Thos. Dunn English, Philadelphia.

In addition to this brilliant array of names known to fame, the distinguished services of a host of anonymous writers of no ordinary abilities, have given worth and character to the pages of the Magazines. The series of well known nautical papers entitled, "Cruizing in the last War," have had a run, unequalled by any series published in any Magazine, for years. The author promises to open the first of a new series of and from his known abilities as a depicter of sea scenes and life, much may be relied upon from him in maintaining the popularity of the Magazine. Papers may be expected during the volume, also from the author of the well known articles entitled, "The Log of Old Ironsides." The author of "Syrian Letters," will also lend his powerful and graceful pen, to sustain and increase the reputation of the work. The valuable aid of the author of "Leaves from a Lawyer's Port Folio," has also been secured, and we may expect something still more thrilling from the capacious stores which a long life in the profession has enabled him to amass. An occasional Chit-Chat, with "Jeremy Short," and "Oliver Oldfellow," is also promised; with a variety of choice articles in prose and verse from various writers of celebrity, as Contributors to the prominent Magazines of the country. The editors of both Magazines continue their services under the new arrangement. With such an array of talent, a Magazine of unrivalled attractions, may safely be promised the coming volume.

Fashions and Engravings.

In compliance with the almost unanimous wish of our lady subscribers, we shall the coming volume furnish them with a beautiful and correct plate of FASHIONS MONTHLY, a feature, it is believed, that will neither be unwelcome nor unpopular. These fashion plates shall be drawn from original designs from Paris and London, and may always be depended upon as the prevailing style in Philadelphia and New York for the month in which they are issued. These, however, shall in no wise interfere with the regular and choice engravings, and music which accompany each number of the work. The splendid Mezzotint engravings from the burine of Sartain, which have been so justly admired, will be followed during the volume by several from the same hand, while the steel engravings in the best style of art, from interesting scenes shall still enrich the Magazine. The choicest pieces of music for the Piano and Guitar, shall accompany each number of the work.

TIME OFPUBLICATION.

The work will be published on the first of every month in every quarter of the Union. The most distant subscriber will consequently receive it on that day, as well as those who reside in Philadelphia. In all the principal cities, agents have been established, to whom the Magazine is forwarded, prior to the time of issuing it, so that they may be delivered to resident subscribers by the first of the month. This is an important arrangement to distant subscribers, who become tired, importunate, and eventually discontinue many works, in consequence of the great delay by publishers.

TERMS.—THREE DOLLARS per annum. Or two copies yearly for FIVE DOLLARS, invariably in advance, post paid. No new subscriber received without the money, or the name of a responsible agent. For the accommodation of those who may wish to subscribe for either of the following Philadesphia periodicals, this is made. For five dollars current money free of postage, we will forward Graham's Magazine, and Godey's Lady's Book, for one year

From the Boston Chronicle, Jan. 10

We see by an advertisement in another column that Messrs. Comstock & co., the American Agents for Oldridge's Balm of Columbia, have deputies to sell that article in Boston and elsewhere. We know a lady of this city whose hair was so nearly gone as to expose entirely her phrenological developments, which, considering that they betokened a most amiable disposition, was not in reality very unfortunate Nevertheless she mourned the loss of locks that she had worn, and after a year's fruitless resort to miscalled restoratives, purchased; some months ago, a bottle or two of Oldridge's Balm, and she has now ringlets in rich profusion, glossy, and of raven blackness. We are not puffing, none of the comodity has been sent to us, and indeed, we do not want any, for though we were obliged to wear a wig a year ago, we have now, though its virtue, hair enough, and of a passable quality of our own.

To the Bald Headed.—Bhis is to certify, that I have been bald about twenty years, and by the use of the genuine Balm of Columbia, my head is now covered with hair. I shall be happy to convince any one of the fact that will call and see me Delhi village. The above article I bought at Griswold, Case & co.'s store, who had it from Comstock & Co.
