DR. BPONHS. Sick Head Ache Remedy.

Sick Head Ache Remedy.

The Proposition of this distressing complaint, never fails. When persevered in, it eff-citually renovates the system, and does away the causes of the sick and nervous headache. Thousinds have tried it, and found precisely the relief which the article promises to bestow. Certificate of the strongest kind, and from the most respectable previous, are in the possession of the proprietor, some of which have been published, testifying to the permanent cure, and others to the immediate relief given by this remedy. It affords relief to the afflicted in 15 or 20 minutes from the first dose. It taken when the symptoms of an attack are first felt, it prevents the further progess of the complaint, and can produce no danger at any time by an excessive dose; as in such a case it would only throw off the contents of the atomach, leaving it sweet and healthy with an excellent appetite. All afflicted with headache smould not fail to procure the article, and relieve themselves from so distressing a complaint.

Physicians have in many instances given its other to their patients, and in every instance.

INTE'S EXPECTOR ANT.
PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 16, 1838
Mr. Atkinson—Dear Dir:
Afew weeks ago I noticed in your paper, an account of the surprising effects of Jayne's Carminative, in restoring a great number of passengers on board of a Mississippi steamboat to perfect health, who were affected by violent Bowel Complaint. I was glad to see you notic it so kindly; you may rest assured it deserves the praise bestowed upon it. The benefit I have veceived from his medicine, more especially his EXPECTORANT induces me to state my case to you, for the benefit of those who are afflicted in the same way. It has been my misfortune, sir, to las bor under a Cough and Asthmatical oppresion, for more than half a century. When a sidier in the American Camp, in 1778, I, with many others, (owing to great exposure,) had a violent attack of disease of the lungs, by which I was disacled from duty for along time. Since the pried, until recently, I have never been free from a violent cough and difficulty of breathing. Year after year, I have expectorated over a gill aday. Often much more, and sometimes mix ed with blood. For months together, night after night, I have had to sit or be bolstered up to obtain my breath. The weekness and debility caused by such constant expectoration, frequently brought me to a state bordering on death. It has been a matter of astonishment to my family and frie.ds, that I am here to write this to you. I have had skillful physicians to attend me, and every thing done that was thought likely to give me relief, without any beneficial effect. Last winter I had another very sevee at tack of inflamation of the lungs, which I fully expected would be the last. I then confidence, through him I was once more raised from my bed; but the cough and wheezing wearied me day and night. He advised me to use his Expectorant. I did so, with a strong hope, that, as it had cured many of my acquaintances of various diseases of the lungs, it might, at least mitigate my sufferings. Need I

you think this worth a place in your paper, you will oblige meby noticing it.

as well founded intruth as any doctrine of Holy Writ—a doctrine upon the variety of which are suspended the lives of millions of our race, and which he boldly challenges his opposers to refute, viz:
Consumption is a disease always occasioned by a disordered state of Vis Vite
(or life principle) of the human body: often secretly lucking in the systemfor years before there is the least complaint of the Lungs—and which may be as certainly though not so quickly, cured as a common cold or a simple headache. An invaluably precious doctrine this, as it imparts an important lesson to the apparently health of both sexes, teaching them that this insidious foe may be an unobserved

while they imagine themselves secure
