POETRY.

THE FRIGATE PENNSYLVANIA. Ain-"Old Rosin the Bow." Ann-"Old Rosin the Bow." Since the Ship Pennsylvania has righted And rides o'er the waves stiff and true, We must hunt up a gallant commander To take charge of her Harrison crew. I hat the Locos have had her in keeping, Her damaged condition will show, But the peeple will put her in order, With their gallant commander, we know. Then freemen display your fair banner, In harmowy close up your ranks.

GENERAL MILLER.

This gallant soldier, whose brilliant a-chievement in the late war, at the battle of Bridgewater, has vreathed his brow with imperishable laurels, was at Wash-ington at the recent hanguration. A correspondent of the National Intelligen-cer, who noted General Miller's pres-ence at the vast throng at the Capitol, has furnished the following sketch of the incidents connected with the occasion re-terred to. terred to.
