

HYMENEAL REGISTER.

The silken tie that binds two willing hearts.

MARRIED—By Josh. Greenland, Esq. Mr. CALEB SWOOP, of Union township, to Miss ANN DEAN, of Hopewell township, all of Huntingdon county.

OBITUARY RECORD.

"In the midst of life we are in death."

DIED—In this Borough, on Saturday evening the 22nd inst., about two o'clock P. M., after an illness of a few days Mrs. JANE JOHNSTON, relict of the late Rev. John Johnson, pastor of the Presbyterian church in this place, in the 70th year of her age.

The deceased, through a long life, upwards of fifty years of which, she resided in this borough, bore a character worthy of all estimation, for general usefulness, and enduring piety. An early member of that church of which her husband, when living, was an honored head; she continued, by works, to prove the sincerity of her religious professions—these professions, from which, she never wandered, and which are so consoling to the old age of a true believer. Truly, we can say, that she "endured unto the end," and have every reason to believe that she died "the death of the righteous." To such, death is but a release from the cares and trials of earth; and, though numerous friends and neighbors are left to mourning and regret, still they may find consolation from that abiding confidence, that "their loss has been her gain."—[Comm. recited.]

DIED—In Duncanville, on Sunday, the 16th inst. of Puerperal Apoplexy, SARAH, consort of Geo. W. M'Brice, and youngest daughter of Joseph Patton, Esq.—aged 23 years.

Of an amiable and lovely disposition, and in possession of a mind of no ordinary caste, she was esteemed and beloved in the varied relations of life which she sustained. Her death has not only filled with sadness and sorrow a circle of relatives, but a community mourns. In the prime of life, her pilgrimage on earth has terminated; that brow on which sat the bloom of sunny youth, and radiant beauty, now lies low, wreathed with the cold snows of death. How true it is that death loves a shining mark! She has left friends who feel themselves called upon to pass thro' the deep waters of affliction—in their hearts a tender cord is sundered,—an affectionate consort and a beloved sister and daughter is taken from the family circle. But let them reflect that their loss is her infinite gain.

Her remains were interred on Monday in the family burying ground, attended by a numerous concourse of sympathizing friends.—Reg.

At his residence in Hollidaysburg, on Sunday, the 16th inst. Mr. JAMES ARTHUR, aged about 50 years.

The deceased was followed to his grave by his fellow members of the WASHINGTON GREYS, in military costume, and by a lengthy procession of his friends and acquaintances. For several years past he had filled the arduous and responsible post of Agent, at this place, for the Western Transportation Co.

At a meeting of the Washington Greys held at their army, on Monday evening May 17th 1841, it was, on motion of Lieut. Landis, Unanimously

Resolved, That the members of this corps have heard with feelings of deep regret of the sudden and unexpected death of their late member, JAMES ARTHUR.

Resolved, That as a remark of our respect for his memory, and sorrow for his loss, we will wear crape on the left arm for thirty days, and attend his funeral (with consent of the family) in our military capacity.

Resolved, That Major Williams be requested to convey a copy of these resolutions to the widow of the deceased, and to assure her of the deep condolence of the Greys with her in her affliction.—Reg.

In Hollidaysburg, on Saturday, the 15th inst. at the residence of her nephew, (Mr. Wm. Groves,) Mrs. ——— RITER, of Philadelphia, aged 77 years.
