DIED—In Hollidaysburg, on Sunday last, Mr. ANDREW JACKSON REA, aged 25 years.

The deceased was a native of Franklin county, Pa., and son of Gen. John Rea, of that county.

He looked forward to his approaching end as high at hand; and encouraged and sustained by the invitations of the Saviour, and promises of the Gospel, was enabled to contemplate it with Christian composure and resignation.—Standard.

At Beaver Pa., on the 20th ult. of consumption, Miss ARABELLA J. MONTAGNE, aged 19 years, formerly of Hollidaysburg.

A Revolutionary Patriot Com.—Departed this life, on Thursday, July 1st, at the residence of his son, in Morris township, JAMES CLARKE, Esq., in the 85th year of his age, without sickness or pain, and in the full enjoyment of all his faculties, which he retained to his last moment.

The deceased patriot saw his latter end approaching for several months, and with the courage of a soldier of the Redeemer of mankind, met Death, the King of Terrors; and by the gracious influence of the Holy Spirit, was assured of his adoption into the family of God. He resigned his spirit into the hands of Him who gave it, without a murmur or a groan.

His funeral was attended by a large number of friends and neighbors, and the volunteers of Williamsburg. The young and old, high and low, were alike eager to testify their respect for the great and important services of the deceased patriot. He was a commissioned officer and served under "The great, the good, the God-like Washington," during the whole of the Revolutionary war, and was wounded and made prisoner by the British.—Standard.
