

Truth out at Last.

LOOK OUT FOR BIR-GAINING!

A leading loco loco in our town yesterday, while talking, as he thought to a Workingman, said "I THINK the Workingmen ought to vote for Porter, if WE vote for their county ticket." He was mistaken, he let that they were to sell their votes to the Workingmen, to get votes for Porter. He and let the cat out of the bag, Isett's "Letter" and Mr Woods' "ARRANGEMENTS" can now be understood. The ticket has been got up to help Porter. LOOK OUT! You will be cheated into a support of Porter! Loco loco office holders are no Workingmen. They work only for themselves and Porter.

REMEMBER WHO SAID that certain men got up this ticket to help Davy R. This open mouthed politician let the cat out of the bag.

EVERY MAN who wants to dethrone this plundering party, of pardoned horse thieves, must be careful they are not cheated. This loco loco thought he would coax a Banks man to vote for Porter! Friends of John Banks do not be deceived.

and look at your ticket. See that they are right, and that you have a full ticket. Let no one deceive you by lying. The locos will be busy for the Workingmen. They are anxious to deceive their old enemies. Watch them—do any thing EXCEPT what they tell you.

John S. Isett's letter.

On our first page will be found the letter of this gentleman, in reply to our correspondent "Observer." If Mr. Isett relieves himself from the charge of acting in accordance with Mr. Porter's views, he certainly does not succeed in clearing up the charge, that the "working" ticket is in every respect calculated to further Mr. Porter's views, or that it is not in effect the very thing the leading Locos desired. Mr. Isett says that "Supervisor Woods' remonstrance said it ought not to be done it would break their ARRANGEMENTS."—In an other place he says "I asked some of the Porter men what they intended to do"—Why ask the Porter men what they intended to do, if their counsels were not needed to shape his course. What was the answer these Porter men gave? They thought THEY COULD UNDERMINE THEM: [meaning our Ticket] get some of the disaffected to come out." Here then is the whole secret.

Mr. Isett is known to be a little self-willed, when he gets his "eye set" on a measure, and consequently these Porter men who were to undermine us, fall into his plan apparently while at the same time they would his plan to THEIR ENDS, and this working man's ticket is made to catch the disaffected, and to undermine the regular ticket; and although Mr. Woods was quite offended about having his arrangements broken, he was very soon quite interested in Mr. Isett's Plan. Cannot the honest of our party see the whole scheme.

COMMUNICATIONS.

SHERIFF SHANNON.

Mr. Editor: Among the strange things at present, is the course of the Sheriff of this county, Mr. Shannon, in reference to the coming election.

After the regular Harrison and Banks ticket for the county was nominated, at the August court, during a period of about ten days, he repeatedly asserted to different individuals that he would support the ticket; and in particular that he would vote for Mr. Brotherline for Sheriff. But on his return from Pittsburgh, coming to Huntingdon from Hollidaysburg, where he had remained several days, while the stage stopped in Alexandria, he went into a tavern there to get a drink; and asked the landlord how the workingmen's ticket was coming on. The landlord told him he did not know much about it. "Why," said the Sheriff, "are you not for it?" "No, I am not," answered the landlord. "Why, are you not a loco loco?" inquired the Sheriff. "I have been so called," replied the landlord. "Well," said the Sheriff, "I only wish I had time to talk to you awhile, and I think I could satisfy you that, as a loco loco, you ought to vote for the workingmen's ticket."

After this, he went to and through a considerable portion of the lower end of the county, making all manner of unfounded assertions, and circulating numerous incorrect reports, with the view of injuring the regularly nominated county ticket. And afterwards he rode through West and Barree townships, and up Hoodcock valley, accompanied on part of the routes by an individual of considerable notoriety in the county, pursuing the same course, in which he was assisted by the individual alluded to.

On Monday last, in Alexandria, he called to one side and gave to one of the candidates on the regular ticket, Mr. A. Z. Hirst, a lecture of considerable length, with a view of inducing or deterring him, (Mr. Hirst) from doing or saying anything against Porter, as a candidate for Governor. Among other things, the Sheriff said to Mr. Hirst, "If you do not quit doing and talking against Porter, OUR party will vote against you for Treasurer." Mr. Hirst inquired of him, "who do you mean by 'our party?'" To which the Sheriff answered, "I mean the WORKINGMEN'S PARTY." Mr. Hirst then told him, "I don't care what you do, I will do and say all I can AGAINST PORTER, if I should not get ten votes in the county." Finding he could do nothing with Mr. Hirst, he turned to a person who had accompanied Mr. Hirst from Hollidaysburg, and told him he had better use his influence with Mr. Hirst, and prevent him from saying too much against Porter!! Every thing here stated as a fact, can substantially be established and proved to the satisfaction of any one.

Now, what does—what can all this mean? How does it happen? Can it be possible, as is supposed by some, that two years ago, when Mr. Brotherline was run and got the highest number of votes for Sheriff (some thinking that a Sheriff was then under the constitution to be elected) that Mr. Shannon, fearing the result of the decision, MADE A BARGAIN WITH GOV. PORTER, that in consideration of Gov. Porter deciding the constitutional question so as to allow him to retain the office of Sheriff for three years, he, Mr. Shannon, would do what he could, directly or indirectly, to secure Gov. Porter's re-election at this time?

The Sheriff's conduct is the more extraordinary when another fact is taken into the account. Three years ago, and how many of the 6000 voters in this county knew any thing, good or evil, about JOSEPH SHANNON? He was then, unexpectedly to the people, and to himself, through the influence of a few personal friends, and because it was generally supposed the election would only be for one year, nominated for the office of Sheriff. What was the result? Although thus nominated over gentlemen who had some claims, and although unknown to the people, the Whig party united on him as their candidate, and he was elected. And but for that nomination, and that union of the party in support of it, how many would know any thing about Sheriff Shannon? How else, then, can any one view his present conduct, while yet holding a lucrative office from that party, than as ingratitude of the deepest dye—as unexcusable, unmitigated treason to a party that raised him from obscurity? And let him know that many of those with whom he now acts, do not entertain a different opinion of his conduct:—they "love the treason, but despise the traitor." Let him know that some of the warmest and most influential supporters of the loco loco ticket in this county openly declare, that "whatever others do or say, as for Joseph Shannon, he for his own sake, should at least hold his tongue." And let him know that the contempt and indignation of every honorable man of both parties, will be his only reward after the election.

Mr. Shannon's conduct has rendered these hints to the people necessary. It is but right that those who may approach with electioneering stories, propositions to trade votes, &c. &c. &c., or whom he has thus approached, should know how and where he stands. They will not trust a wolf in sheep's clothing.

ENQUIRER.

NOTICE.

Mr Editor:—In your paper of the 22nd. inst, I perceive some miscreant has had the audacity to give in my name to you, as a candidate for the office of Sheriff. Had that meddling vagrant been as attentive to his own business, as he has made himself in mine, he might perhaps derive more benefit. Therefore, Mr Editor, please ERASE my name, as I have not had the least idea of offering myself as a candidate.

Huntingdon Female Seminary.

An examination of the pupils in this Institution, under the care of Miss Phillips took place on the 24th instant, in the presence of a numerous audience who were highly gratified with the exercises. One young lady (having no class-mate) who was examined on Rhetoric, attracted particular attention. She evinced a knowledge of the subject. The classes in Astronomy, Geography, Natural Philosophy, Grammar, &c reflected great credit on themselves and their amiable teacher. The class in Botany excited peculiar interest. The development, and explanation given, of the genus and species of various specimens in the Floral kingdom (taken from a basket at random) were highly pleasing to the lovers of that science.

The Institution commends itself to the patronage and favourable regard of all who take an interest in Female education, admitted to be a powerful operative, and one which must necessarily produce important results on society in every rank in life.

INTERESTING CURE PERFORMED BY DR. SWAYNE'S COMPOUND SYRUP OF PRUNES; VIRGINIANA, OR WILD CHERRY.

Having made use of this invaluable Syrup in my family, which entirely cured my child, the symptoms were Wheezing and choking of the Lungs, difficulty of Breathing, attended with constant cough, Spasms, Convulsions, &c. of which I had given up all hopes of recovery, until I was advised to make trial of this invaluable medicine. After seeing the wonderful effects it had upon my child, I concluded to make the same trial upon myself, which entirely relieved me of a cough that I was afflicted with for many years. Any persons wishing to see me call at my house in Beach street, above the marked Kensington, Phila.

POPULAR REMEDIES.—The moral are those which cleanse and purify the blood and which are known to be innocent in their qualities. Such remedies as Mercury, Antimony, Zinc, and the resources to bleed in diseases, are now out of fashion, and vegetable remedies are the popular medicine now used and appreciated. They are known to act on every part of the body; being taken up by the system they pass into the blood, they show purity; and it should be remembered that they remove only those parts from the blood which were the cause of inflammation. Nothing is equal to aiding the vitiated humors with a vegetable medicine of this kind which eighty-four years have proved never to do injury but always good.
