CONSUMPTION AND LIVER COMPLAINT.

As a general remedy for these diseases, I am fully satisfied, from long experience, there is no medicine equal to Dr. I aylor's Balsam of Liverwort. Being purely vegetable, it can be used with the utmost safety by all persons in every condition. It cleanses the langs by expectoration, relieves difficult breathing, and seems to heal the chest.
There can be no question, but this medicinis a certain cure for chr air coughs and

Dr. Bartholomew's Pink Expectorant Syrup.

The eases of consumption are so numerous in all the northern latitudes, that some remedy as a preventive should be kept by every family constantly on hand, to adminster on the first appearance of so direful a lisease. This Expectorant Syrup will in very case prevent the complaint. It is quite impossible for any person ever to have consumption who will use this remedy on the first approach of cough and pain in the side, and in many instances it has cured whea physicians had given up the case as incurable.
