HIS Institution was again opened on Monday, the 13th inst, under the care of Mr. Thomas C. Massey, a graduate of Washington College. Mr. Massey's testimonials, as regards capacity and experience in teaching, as well as piety and morality, are highly respectable.

All the branches preparatory to a collegigiate course will be taught. The terms of tuition are placed extremely low, in order that all may be afforded an opportunity of receiving a good education at a very moderate expense, viz:

Greek & Roman Classics, per quarter, $4,00 Philosophy, Geography, Surveying, &c. per quarter, Arithmetic, English Grammar, &c. do, 2,50 As the number of scholars must be limited, it will be advisable to make an early application.

The cases of consumption are so numerous in all the northern latitudes, that some remedy as a preventive should be kept by every family constantly on hand, to adminster on the first appearance of so direful a lisease. This Expectorant Syrup will in very case prevent the complaint. It is quite impossible for any person ever to have consumption who will use this remedy on the first approach of cough and pain in the side, and in many instances it has cured when physicians had given up the case as incursible.
