

The U. S. Bank Case.

As supposed, the presentment against the institution has been quashed; and as we imagined, from an insinuation we saw a few days since in one of the Local prints, which was contained in the article, "Will the Bank triumph? we shall see." This we considered a plain indication that the editor was inclined to think that the power of gold would invade the temple of Justice, and crush the rights of the people.

All three of the Judges delivered different opinions, yet all arrived at the same conclusion, that the presentment should be quashed. It is, however, presumed that the case will again be brought in a legal form before the Court. For our own part, we feel a strong desire to see if there is not too much truth in many of the charges which have been laid at the door of that defunct monster.

Ladies' World of Fashion.

We have received the first No. of a beautiful periodical, published in the Ledger Buildings, Philadelphia, by C. J. Peterson; and we do not think that we can occupy a portion of our paper to better purpose, than by a notice.

It is published monthly, on superior white paper, and contains 32 large octavo pages, and is embellished with an elegant steel engraving, and a plate of fashions, which are promised in advance of all other magazines. The whole is got up in a style reflecting much credit to both printer and publisher, and may well be considered an ornament to a centre table.

The Counterfeiter's Death Blow.—The public will please observe that no Brandreth's Pills are genuine unless the box has three labels upon it, each containing a fac simile of my handwriting; thus, B. Brandreth, M. D. Those labels are engraved on steel, beautifully designed, and completely envelope the box—that is, the top, the side, and the bottom.

Governor's Message.

Our readers may expect in our next, to receive the annual message of our distinguished worthy, David R. Porter. We shall not make any attempt at prophecy, at what it will contain, but we think it will not contain any severe commendations against the suspending banks.

No other person, save myself, can make these Pills, as I have never imparted the knowledge to any one in the world. The Brandreth Pills, as manufactured by me, are calculated to give man all the powers his mind and body are capable of attaining.

Now the medicine, however, can be identified, and no fraud can be committed; it will soon supersede all others. Only observe that each box of Brandreth's Pills has three of my signatures upon it.

Remember the top, the side, and the bottom. B. Brandreth, M. D. Purchase in Huntingdon by William Stewart, and of the agents published in another part of this paper.
