

TEMPERANCE SONGS.

SONG.

Atn-Who'll be King but Charlie.
ritten for the Washington Temper to Society of the Borough of Hunting

at A MERSER.

The news that comes from vale and hill,
Will so an make many wonder,
And rive the demon of the still,
With bolts of Temperance thunder.—
Come sign the pledge—the war to wage,
You'll be the welcomer early;
Around it cling, with all your hin—
It saves the drunkard fairly.
Come sign the pledge—the war to wage;
Some tipler, come bruiver, come all
together,

together,
And make the temp'rance choras ring,
Till all shall hear it clearly

From ocean side to western plain
The golden flags are streaming;
And neath their foids are rescued mea.
Their eyes with gladness beaming.
Come sign the pledge, &c.

The whiskey red, and brandy blue
Are lost in healths vermillion;
For they have danced its mazes through
The drunkard's last cotillion.
Come sign the pledge, &c.

The path-way that intemperance trod
And left all red and gory,
Is changing to a brighter road,
Illumed by temp'rance glory.
Come sign the pledge, &c.

And homes that by the Hydra's breath, Within were scathed and blighted, Have driven out the hideous death, And now with joys are lighted.

Come sign the pledge, &c.

The drunkard smiles!—His lisping
No more with fear is quaking;
His wife to hope is reconciled
From sorrows cold heart-aching.
Come sign the pledge, &c.

Come sign the pledge, &c.

Swell high the Washingtonian crys
The lost are still returning,
Until our banner "thap the sky,"
The meteor-light of morning!
Come sign the pledge, &c.

Fling out your motto to the world
In golden letters flaming,
That all can see, where'er unfurleds
There's no one past reclaiming!
Come sign the pledge, &c.

Lingham.

We comel we come, that have been he in burning chains so long;

We're up! and on we come, a host Full sity thousand strong.

The chains we've anapped that held round

The wine-vat and the still:

Snapped by a blow—nay, by a word,

That mighty word, I WILL!

We come from Belial's palaces,
The tippling shop and bar;
And, as we march, those gates of hell,
Feel their foundations jar.
The very ground that oft has held,
All night our throbbing head.
Knows that we're up--no more to fall,
And trembles at our tread.

From dirty den, from gutter foul,
From watch house and from prison,
There they who gave the prisonous gla
Had thrown us, have we risen;
From garret high have kurried down,
From cellar stived and damp
Come up; till alley, lane and street
Echo our earthquake tramp.

And on—and on—a swelling host
Of temperance men we come,
Centemning and defying all
The powers and priests of rum:—
A host redeemed, who've drawn the sword
And sharpened up its edge
And hewn our way through hostile ranks

To God be thanks, who pours us out,
Cold water from his hills,
In chrystal springs and babbling brooks,
In lakes and sparkling rills!
From these to quench our thirst we come
With freemen's shout and song,
A host already numbering more
Than fifty thousand strong!

Watchman.
TEMPERANCE! tell the listening world What thine advocates have done Hearken, now the tyrant's hurled From his high, despotic throne.

Temperance—shall it bear the sway,
Shine o'er earth in splendour bright?
Listen; for a brilliant day
Drives away the gloomy night.

Temperance: will thy beams alone Gild the spot that gave the birth? Other climes thy away shall own: See, it bursts o'er all the earth.

Temperance! are thy sons to fight,
Like hosts of earth, to fix thy laws?
O so; for love and truth unite,
To achieve thy holy cause.

Temperance! then I'll be thy child,
For I love thy sacred name:
Yes, thy voice and influence mild
Can the wildest passions tame.

Temperance! we shall shout thy praise; We no more shall leave thy band; Juyful now our anthems raise, In every clime, in every land.

petite, and ruddycheeks will follow.

PSPITTING OF BLOOD.—This disease consists of a discharging of blood, often frothy from the mouth, brought up with hawking and coughing, and is usually accompanied with difficulty of breathing, and some pain in the chest, a dry tickling cough and slight shooting pains. This disease is always more or less dangerous. The great danger is that these symptoms may terminate in consumption, and immediate remedies can alone save this end. But Dr. Taylor's Balsam of Liverwort is a sure remedy, and to shew is unparralled success, certificates of cures from 421 citizens, and many physicians, will be published in a few days.

Superior to the Hygean, Brandreth's, Evans', Tomato, the Matchless (priced) Sanative, or any other Pills or Compound before the public, as certified to by physicians and others. Let none condem them until they lhave tried them, and then we are certain they will not.

It is now a settled point with all those when we used the Vegetable Persian Pills, that they are pre-eminently the best and most efficacious Family Medicine that has yet been used in America. If every family would become acquainted with their soverign power over disease, they would keep them and be prepared with a sure remedy to apply on the first appearance of disease, and then how much distress would be avoided and money saved, as well as the lives of thousands who are hurried out of time by neglecting disease in its first stages, or by not being in possession of a remedy which they can place dependence upon. All who wish to guard against sickness, should use the Persian Pills freely, when needed; un injury can ensue, if used from youth to old age, when taken according to the directions.

The Resurrection, or Persian Pills. These pills arise from the gleatest weakness, distress and suffering, to a state of strength, health and happiness. The name of these pills originated from the circumstance of the medicine being found only in the cemetries of Persia. This vegetable production being of a peculiar kind. led to experiments as to its medical qualities and virtues. In half a century it became an established medicince for the diseases of that country. The extract of this singular production was introduced into some parts of Europe in the year 1793, and used by many celebrated physicians in curing certain diseases, where all other medicines had been used in vain.—Early in the year 1792, the extract was combined with a certain vegetable medicine imported from Dura Bacca. In the East Indies, and formed into pills. The admirable e
