

COMMUNICATED.

The Huntingdon Academy.

Mr. Editor, A petition, I understand, has been handed about to obtain signatures asking the Legislature to pass a law directing the Trustees of the above Institution to be elected by "the people," instead of the mode prescribed by the Charter. The reasons alleged for the change, as set forth, are in substance, "that the present Board neglect or refuse to exhibit an amount of the receipts and expenditures of the institution," and further "that it is kept up for the benefit of the Trustees, their friends and the wealthy, in exclusion of the poor."

You may judge of my surprise when I found in the last "Journal," the annual account of William Dorris, treasurer of the Board, as settled before, and certified by the county Auditors, in which they refer to "last year's settlement." Finding this allegation absolutely false, I thought it might be well to make some inquiry respecting the other serious charge. I have done so, and give you the result.

Some years ago, I was informed, an attempt was made by the Trustees of the Academy, and the Managers of the Common Schools, to mingle the concerns of the two, and to select from the latter and place in the former as many pupils as could be accommodated. The selection was made of those farthest advanced in scholarship, without respect to the wealth or poverty of the parents of the pupils. But in so delicate a matter dissatisfaction and jealousy arose, and the project however well intended, was abandoned.

On another occasion, the parents of some of the pupils became dissatisfied with the (then) teacher, alleging that their children were neglected, and that too much attention was bestowed on the classical scholars. This is the natural conclusion of parents whose people do not make equal progress with others. In this case the malecontents set up an "opposition line," and employed a Mr. Bedford, who turning out a sheer scamp on their hands, was soon dismissed. Since that time, with the exception of a few who make it a matter of conscience to find fault with every thing not done in accordance with their will, all seem to have united harmoniously in supporting the Institution.

Now for the charge against the present Board of Trustees. It appears they are fourteen in number, six of whom only send their children to the Academy. They all, as well as others who are able, pay regularly for tuition,—the funds of the institution being insufficient to pay the teacher, house rent, and incidental expenses. With regard to the exclusion of the poor, the teacher states that by direction of the Trustees he has received into the Academy several pupils, without pay for tuition, whose parents stated their inability, and that none have been refused admittance on that account to his knowledge. The Academy never was in a more flourishing condition, there being upwards of forty pupils in attendance.

Having ascertained the above facts, and recollecting that I had seen pressing invitations given by the Trustees to all, in the public papers, to apply for admission, and observing that the person most active in soliciting signatures to "the petition" was one who never had taken any interest in the subject of education, or indeed in any other, useful to the community, I inquired of several what the object could be in making him a cats-paw to sow mischief and circulate falsehoods so easily detected. It was suggested that the instigators expected to make "political capital" out of the project. Small potatoes, thinks I to myself. It has even been stated, doubtless with the view to induce others to sign, that "some of the Trustees" had signed the petition! This is highly improbable. No gentleman who knew, or whose duty it was to know, and who could so easily ascertain the facts of the case, would put his signature to a statement so derogatory to his own character as well as that of his colleagues. Were it not for the utter disregard of truth and malignity evinced, it would be a pity to deprive these loving (pretended) friends of the dear people of an opportunity of appearing in a "flaming paragraph," or of making a "stump speech," advocating the rights of the poor, of whom, they (Heaven save the mark!) claim to be the special guardians! It is hoped the disinterested "gentlemen," who have thrown out this "small bait" to catch popularity will be rewarded with a suitable "nibble."

LINES ON DR. BRANDRETH'S PILLS.
He came from afar, to the land of the brave,
To cure our diseases, and snatch from the grave.
Long, long had Columbia her suffering sons
Mourned,
But now she rejoices, for health has returned!
What prize shall we give, or what honor bestow?
With what wreath shall we deck the philanthropist's brow?
Thy name, Dr. Brandreth, 's inscribed on our souls,
And thy fame shall extend from the line to the poles;
Beware of all Druggists, who strive to deceive—
Their miserable imitations can never relieve;
The Agents advertised sell the genuine pills,
Which remove from the body the cause of its ills.
Purchase in Huntingdon of William Stewart, and of the agents published in an other part of this paper.

Washingtonians.

A general Convention of Washingtonians will be held in the Borough of Huntingdon on Tuesday the 22nd of February, it being the birthday of the immortal Washington, whose name our association bears. No more appropriate day could be selected on which the members of the several Washington societies in this county might meet to celebrate the great and glorious triumphs our cause is making under the Washington Banner.

We therefore most respectfully invite our brethren in every Washington society in the county of Huntingdon to meet us at that time, and join in the celebration of the rapid and gigantic strides of Temperance throughout our beloved county.—Let your delegation be full, and come up with the enthusiasm and charity which have united in giving to our cause such immortal and heart-cheering victories. "In union there is strength," and in communion one with another, our hopes are brightened—our hearts are animated—our arms are nerved—and our souls are fired with the pure and holy principles of our cause, and thus we will return to our homes with new zeal, improved knowledge and a fixed determination to battle more faithfully, more valiantly—more fervently than ever we did before.—Come one, come all—and as you come—
Swell high the Washingtonian cry;
The lost are still returning,
Until our banner "flaps the sky,"
The meteor light of morning.

The principle of this Strop is anti-elastic—consequently it does not round the edge of the razor. It consists of four sides of different sharpening properties, viz: No. 1, the Hone—which is of ten times the power of the ordinary Hone, and almost instantly thins a dull edge. No. 2, a powerful sharpening property for removing the wiry edge left by the Hone. No. 3, a less powerful composition for gradually reducing the razor to a fine edge. No. 4 is merely the calf skin, peculiarly prepared by the Manufacturer, and expressly adapted to the purpose of perfecting the edge of the Razor.—Five minutes will be ample time for putting the dullest Razor in perfect order.

Land For Sale.

WILL be offered at public sale, on the premises, on Friday, the 25th day of February next, a tract of Limestone Land, situated in Woodcock Valley, Huntingdon county, one quarter of a mile from the main road leading from Huntingdon to Bedford, and 6 and a half miles from the Pennsylvania canal at Huntingdon, being the late residence of John Patton, Esq. dec'd., containing

283 ACRES,

nearly all cleared and under good fence; about twenty acres of which are meadow, having thereon erected a large two story dwelling house, a new double bank barn, 60 by 90 feet, a stone horse stable, double corn cribs and wagon sheds, a stone spring house, and all other buildings necessary; several never failing springs of water, a large apple orchard of choice fruit, together with

A STONE DISTILLERY,

40 by 45 feet, with every thing necessary for carrying on the business, with an abundant supply of over head spring water. Attached thereto is a dwelling house, chop house, stabling, &c. &c., all in good order. There are three other comfortable tenant houses, situated at convenient distances, all with never failing springs of limestone water,—water on nearly every field, and a remarkable healthy section of country.

Also,

Adjoining the above, a tract of slate land, which will be laid off to suit purchasers, from 2 to 400 acres, about 160 acres cleared, and under fence, 3 or 4 acres of meadow, and 10 or 15 more can conveniently be made, a young apple orchard, and a good spring of water; thereon erected a comfortable log

DWELLING HOUSE,

a small double barn, &c. Through this tract there is a stream of water sufficient to run a saw mill several months in the year. Adjoining the above are several tracts of choice timber land, which will be laid off to suit purchasers, on some of which there is every appearance of an abundant supply of iron ore. The above described lands are all adjoining, and contain in all about and will be sold as a whole, or divided to suit purchasers. A diagram of the whole will be exhibited on the day of sale. The terms will be made known on the day of sale. Possession given on the 1st day of April, subject however to the leases of the several tenant houses for one year; the purchasers however to receive the rents; and as it is now late in the season, should the purchaser of the first described tract not find it convenient to get a farmer for this year, one of the owners now living on it would attend to having it farmed, and remain on the property during said time. This shall however be optional with the purchasers. An indisputable title will be given.

1500 ACRES,
