Training Day. Rub-ba-dub rub-ba-dub goes the drum, Training day has surely come, Seour your muskets, wash your taces, On with epaulets and graces ; Brush your whiskers, comb your bristles, Wipe your noses, clear your whistles, On with cartouch box and knapsack, Fix your plume, and set your cap back, Scour your buttons, chalk your breeches; Peas and mustard! how you straddle, Just as though you set a saddle, Keep your ahinbones close together. Tread upon your own shoe leather, Lucifer can't hold a taper; How his courage swells his belly, Like a kettle full of jelly! Dang it, how his buttons glitter, What a noble looking critter,— "Captain Cowdry, how do you do, sir?" "D-n your eyes, what's that to you, sir?" "Lord, how fine the critter grows, Yesterday he hunted crows, Now he's bigger than a giant, Or a lawyer side his client." Rub-ba-dub rub-ba-dub goes the drum, Training Day.

Rub-ba-dub rub-ba-dub goes the dram, Round the corner see them come, Drums are beating, fifes are squeaking, Silence! there, the captain's speaking,-"Blood and thunder! fellow critters, You're dismissed to get your bitters; Do it now in half a minute,--Zounds! my jug has nothing in it."

Rub-ba-dub rob-ba-dub rings the dru O'er the cheerful village hum, While the landlord and his wife, Listen to the martual fife; How with pride their faces glow, When they see the awful row; " Ma! who is that dressed in leather, With a cat's tail for his feather?" " Child you should not prattle so, That's your sister Lucy's beau." See him bend his back, I vanny, Just like Polly Fewcloth's granny. What a martial look! I wonder Whether he's afraid of thunder, Powder, fint or musket ball, Rub-ba-dub rub-ba-dub rings the drum,

The Rev. C. C. P. Crosby, writes as follows: New York, June 15, 1838. To Dr, Javne:-Dear Sir,-I have made use of your Expectorant, personally and in my family for the last six years, with great benefit. Indeed I may consider mylife pro-longed by the use of this valuable medicine, under the blessing ofGod, forseveral years. I may say almostas much in the case of my wife, and also of the Rev. Mr. Tonson, oi the Island of Jamaica. For all cases of cough inflamation of the chers, lungs, and throat, 1 do most unhesitatingly recommend this as the best medicine I have ever tried. My earness wish is, that others afflicted as I have been may experience the same relief, which I an persuaded they will by using your Expector rant. C. C. P. CROSBY.

COUGHS & COLDS

GUUGGHS & COLDS & These very distressing complaints often lead into CONSUMPTION through ne-glect at the first attack. I would therefore advise those whose cough begins to become troublesome, and the Expectoration scanty, with more or less soreness of the throat, di-ficult raising of phlegm, &cc. that they sho'd immediately apply for a suitable medicine, which is br. DUNCAN'S EXPECTOR: ANT Remedy for Consumption, &cc. This medicine I have found in every instance to remove those unpleasant annoyances in a few days. To those who desire Health. I hereby certify, that I was afflicted for 8 years with a severe nervous disease, attend-ed with constant pain in the breast, side and tomach, loss of appetite, no rest at night, sickness and dizziness in the head, pain in the stomach after eating, and other symp-toms which attends indigestlon, my bowels were weak and irregular. Having had ad-vice of various physicians during this long period, and used much medicine which only produced temporary relief. In the year 1839 I was often unable to leave my house, and being a poor widow, dependent on my own abor for a living, was obliged to go from house to house to obtain it. I at length gave up all hopes of recovery, and trusted to Him "that created all things." I fortunately was favored with work in Eighth street, when the family, discovering my miserable situa-tion, immediately recommended Dr. HAR LICH'S COMPOUND STREMGTHE. NING, & GERMAN APEXIENT PILLS which they procured for me. I used them, and continued for about three months; du-ring the time my strength rapidly increased to their former and natural colors. Since I have fully recovered, and at present enjoy perfect health. I feel it my duty to inform the public at large of the great virtues of Dr. HARLICH'S MEDICINE, hat others may procure it, and be likewise cured. I am well known in this city; any person wishing to see me, can callat my residence. MARY H. FOURSMAN, Jackson street, back of 144 Poplar lane. Sold at the Store of Jacob Miller, Hunt-ingdon, Pa.
