

Loco Foco Humbuggery.

What has become of the boasted resumption promised by the leaders of the Loco Foco party? Did they not promise before the last general election, that if they gained the power they would make the "rascally Banks" resume? Did they not threaten the repeal of the "odious relief bill," and promise to compel the Banks, one and all, to shell out the cash, or go down and wind up their concerns? Yes, all this they promised. Well, they got the power—the Legislature met—they railed out against the Banks—made "patriotic" speeches for home consumption—spent the winter and the people's money at Harrisburg, legislating on Banking—and finally passed their sanative bill, and went home to mingle among their constituents. The time is now near at hand when they will return to an Extra Session. But where is their promised specie? Shout it among the hills and in the valleys, and the mountains will echo—where? but you hear not the joyous jingle of dollars. No, no. Your rulers and your representatives have let off their "indignation"—they have taxed their ingenuity to the utmost; and they have embodied their wisdom in a resumption law—but where is the resumption? Shout it again, and the mountains still echo and re-echo—resumption. It is true, a few Banks who found it convenient, have resumed specie payments; but these are, "like angel visits, few and far between," and their notes are as scarce as gold. A majority of the Banks continue to do business as they did before the Legislature met; and the people, instead of having gold and silver, the constitutional currency, are glad to get what the Loco Focos delight to denominate "skin-plasters," which are issued in direct violation of the law. And instead of repealing the relief bill, the party cursed us with over issues of Erie

COUNTERFEITERS ARRESTED.—Two men, calling themselves Francis Miller and John Gyger, who stood in need of some change, presented at the counters of the Farmers' Bank of Lancaster, and the Lancaster Bank, two five hundred dollar notes, of the Commercial Bank of Pennsylvania, both of which were taken in exchange for Lancaster paper. Had these cheviliers de industrie left town immediately, they might have easily escaped with their booty, but they remained to view the beauties of the place, and look about them, probably to ascertain whether any of our merchants wanted to procure "Eastern Funds." An hour or two after they had passed the notes, one of them went into a tavern and bought a drink, and threw down an eagle to pay for it.—Mr. Hinkle, the tavernkeeper, immediately recollected that he had seen it stated in a newspaper that a man had been robbed near Wilmington, of several hundred dollars in gold. Suspicion was at once aroused, and shortly after he informed Mr. Hughs, our vigilant city constable, who, in company with Mr. Hinkle, started immediately in pursuit. They had a hard chase, but finally succeeded in capturing the rogue near the coconery on the Reading road. The other, we believe, was caught in town. Both are now in jail, fully committed for trial.—Lan. Union

MR. WISE'S FUNERAL SERMON.—Some genius in the neighborhood of Hagerstown, Md. spread a report that Mr. Wise had been killed in a duel by Mr. Stanley. On Sunday the Rev. Mr. Harris took advantage of the subject and preached a funeral sermon on the imaginary dead. He moralized on the sin of letting our "angry passions rise," severely reprehended the practice of duelling, alluded to the agency of Wise in the death of Cilley, and remarked that "now he (Wise) himself lies mouldering in the cold and silent tomb."

TO THE PUBLIC.—We have experienced the good effects of Brandreth's Vegetable Universal Pills, and believe them to be the most valuable medicine ever yet offered to the public, for curing the gout, cramp, and wind in the stomach; also a certain cure for the dysentery or bloody flux, cholera morbus, severe gripings, and all other diseases of the bowels. A dose never fails to remove Washington Temperance Society of Huntingdon County.

In pursuance of a resolution of the County Society passed Feb. 23rd last, a special meeting of the Washington Temperance Society of Huntingdon County will be held at Alexandria on the FOURTH OF JULY NEXT, and what day could be more appropriately selected for such a purpose?

It is confidently expected that every Washingtonian in the county will endeavor to be present. The different Societies will come prepared to report to the meeting as to their numerical force, success, and all other matters they may consider interesting to the Temperance cause. Such arrangements will be made as to suit the convenience of the Society.

The day, the occasion, the facility of transit by means of the canal—all auger well that we shall have such an assemblage of Temperance men as shall be an honour to "Old Huntingdon."
