

Speaking of the present session of Congress and its labors, the Washington correspondent of the U. S. Gazette, says:

The Madisonian of to-day contains a letter from the Hon. Patrick Goode of Ohio, written in much the same strain as that of Mr. Calvary Morris; that is, charging his fellow members of Congress with a want of patriotism and of legislating for party purposes instead of for the relief of the country; joining in with, and affirming the truth of the slang and slander upon Congress, that fill the Loco-foco and Tyler papers, and which I am sorry to see not unfrequently endorsed by Whig editors. These persons either do not know or take good care that their readers shall not, that this Congress has matured more important bills—has made a greater number of valuable and important reports, and done more business already, than any Congress during the whole twelve years of Jackson's and Van Buren's administration; and they will have matured measures that will retrench expenses and put a stop to extravagancies and abuses to a greater extent than any Congress that has ever since the formation of the Constitution.— This I affirm and defy contradiction.

The Philadelphians talk of building a monument 210 feet high to the memory of William Penn.

A 24 lb. cannon ball, was lately dug up from a depth of two feet, near the battle ground of Bunker hill. It had evidently lain there ever since the battle.

The Celebration at Alexandria.

A large concourse of people—men, women and children—convened at Alexandria on the 4th, for the purpose of celebrating the Anniversary of the Declaration of American Independence. The celebration was conducted on Washingtonian temperance principles. As near as we could guess at numbers, there must have been from one thousand to fifteen hundred persons in attendance—all "sober and steady."

The Convention assembled at the Presbyterian Church at about 12 o'clock, M., where the exercises were opened by prayer, after which the orders of the day were announced.

A beautiful banner was presented by the ladies of Alexandria to the Alexandria Band. Mr. Scott spoke in behalf of the fair donors, and Dr. Burnett tendered the acknowledgements of the donees. The presentation came off well; but owing to the immense crowd, but few could see what all were most anxious to witness.

The procession was then formed and marched through Alexandria, and proceeded to the wood near the village, where a rostrum and seats had been prepared for the occasion. The Declaration was then read by Dr. J. M. GEMMILL—addresses delivered by E. V. EVERHART and GEORGE TAYLOR, Esqrs.—toasts read—and reports made by committees. A dinner which had been prepared by Mr. Burkett, of the new Temperance House, received due honors at the hands of those present.

The Huntingdon and Alexandria Bands were in attendance, and tickled the "musical bumps" of the auditory not a little. The proceedings in extenso will probably be handed in for publication in time for our next paper.

The Sabbath School Celebration.

The Celebration of the Sabbath School connected with the Methodist Episcopal Church of this place came off on Saturday last.

It was a delight to look upon the little girls and boys dressed out in their "Sunday best"—their bibs and tuckers clean and bright—and their faces reflecting the smiles of happiness, evincing that they delighted in the exercises of the day. Nor was it less pleasing to hear those youthful voices attuned to the sweet melody of music, and join in singing hymns of praise in all the purity of innocence itself.

The procession formed at half past nine o'clock, and moved to the Cottage, accompanied by the Jefferson Band. The exercises were—Prayer by the Rev. Mr. Crownover—Reading of the Declaration of Independence, by Mr. Furlong—Addresses by A. W. Benedict, Esq. and Rev. J. Munroe—Singing—and Music by the Band. Refreshments were sent around and about in abundance.

Every thing was done well and in order.

The growing wheat crop in Indiana promises to be very abundant—much larger, indeed, than has ever before been realized.

HUNTINGDON, July 1st, 1842.

A special meeting of the Washington Temperance Society, was called this day by order of the Executive Committee, to attend the funeral of our late fellow member JAMES STITT.

Society met, J. Gwin, Esq. presiding—formed procession, and attended the funeral, members wearing their badges, and returned to our usual place of meeting.—The President having resumed the chair, on motion of E. V. Everhart, Esq., Resolved, That a committee of five be appointed to draft a note expressive of the sense of the Society to the widow of our deceased brother, and assure her of our sympathy in her affliction.

The Chair named Dennis Buoy, Thos. Read, E. V. Everhart, Esq. Geo. Taylor, Esq. and John Bumbaugh, said committee—to report to-morrow evening.

July 2nd, 1842.

Society met pursuant to adjournment—J. Gwin in the Chair. The committee appointed last evening reported as follows:

Resolved, That in the decease of our brother, Mr. JAMES STITT, the first of our members that has been singled out by death, and whose mortal remains we yesterday attended to the grave, we feel that we have lost an esteemed fellow member, and society an honest man. Resolved, That we deeply sympathize with the widow and family of our deceased brother, in their affliction. Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be prepared and presented by the Secretary to the family of the deceased, accompanied with the assurance of our sincere condolence. Adopted unanimously.

On motion, Resolved, That the proceedings be published. M. McCONNELL, Sect'y.

FEVER AND AGUE.—We are happy in being able to say to our readers, that Brandreth's Vegetable Universal Pills are celebrated for strengthening weak stomachs, increasing the appetite, and a certain preventive and cure for the fever and ague. &c.

For the fever and ague, a malady so prevalent throughout the Southern States, and so afflicting to families residing in low countries, redundant with marshes, lakes, stagnated pools, rivers, &c., these celebrated and universally esteemed pills have surpassed any remedy ever administered, for relief and cure of that most obstinate oppressor of the human frame. Numberless instances of their efficacy have been testified, after the barks, and various other extolled prescriptions failed, they proved successful, to the admiration of those who experienced and witnessed their happy effects.—U. S. Gazette.

Purchase them in Huntingdon of WM. STEWART, and only of Agents published in another part of this paper.

MYSTERIOUS.—A gentleman belonging to one of the most ancient and wealthy families of this city, who must be well known to numerous friends, having since the year 1818 up to recently, been bent nearly double, and for several years confined to his bed, has been restored to good health—has regained his natural erect position—and has quitted his carriage, and now walks with ease!! We believe this is the gentleman's own description as near as possible, and there is no exaggeration in it. We will give inquirers his address, and doubt not his humane feelings will excuse the liberty; so that any one doubting may know these facts—though he requests his name may not appear in print.—Among other similar instances, Mr. Jas. G. Reynolds, 144 Christie street, has been restored, and will give personal assurances of the facts of his case. Both were rheumatism and contracted cords and sinews. How has this been done? Answer.—By the Indian Vegetable Elixer internally, and Hewes' Nerve and Bone Liniment externally.—N. Y. Herald.

For sale by THOS. READ, Huntingdon, and JACOB SNYDER, Holidaysburg, May 25, 1842.

The extraordinary virtues hourly developed in "Dalley's Magical Pain Extractor," induce me to come forward to inform every person that its equal is not to be found for the relief of pain and cure of burns, scalds, and injuries generally. My wife for 6 years endured a constant course of suffering by internal rheumatism, and her arms and neck, and now with much pleasure and thankfulness do I publicly state, that she is perfectly cured. She had before used 6 different remedies, besides having had much of the first medical advice, but to no purpose. It is now more than a year since this cure was effected, yet there is not the slightest indication of a return of the complaint. Cases of the most alarming piles constantly yield to its influence. This statement should, I suppose, be sufficient to convince the most incredulous and prejudiced.

OBITUARY.

Departed this life on Wednesday morning last, 29th June, in the 72nd year of his age, Mr. JONN McCONNELL, Inkeeper, of the Borough of Huntingdon. His disease was Paralysis, with which he was attacked on the Sabbath night previous, probably in his sleep. The violence of the stroke deprived him of the power of speech, and also of swallowing. He had for some time previously enjoyed good health, and attended Church on the day preceding the attack.

The deceased possessed great equanimity, and an abundant share of those amiable qualities which render man an agreeable companion, in the various relations of life, as neighbor, husband and father. He was a devoted member of the Seceder Church, which he supported liberally. In conformity with the benevolent spirit of the times he had converted his "Inn" to a "Temperance House." Those who knew him most intimately, loved him most. Take him "for all in all, we shall seldom see his like again."
