tuated by a spirit of sincerity, and if it proves to be wrong, it is not done wilfully. While in the latter, the persons who circulate false sentiments, are actuated by a mean and contemptible spirit to do injury—and injury without cause ; and to my old patrons I say "I'm verry sad," money is a cash article. These times, of Porter currency, have a tendency to give any man's Pocket Book the sweeny. Mine is as empty as a beggar's Wallet, and I not only must "stop payment," but must stop eating, both me and mine, unless some of you who are in arrears, relieve our necessities by handing over a few relief notes. August Court will be a very convenient time to make us merry.
