

A CARD.

Persons visiting the city. The question is often asked by strangers, "where can we get the cheapest, best and most fashionable Hat or Cap, &c.?" We would recommend and refer them to C. F. Raymond, practical Hat and Cap Manufacturer, No. 52, Chesnut street, where they will find a large and select assortment of all goods in his line.

His Terms are Cash and no deviation in price. Dec. 7, 1842.

SOMETHING NEW FOR THE HOLIDAYS. BEAUTY AND ECONOMY.

Superior Fine Beaver Hats, $4.25. BUT little more than three months have elapsed since the subscriber submitted for the inspection of the Public his superior fine Fur Hats, at the low price of $4.25.

equal in all respects, to the most costly, (and with which he challenges a comparison,) and in this short period of time, he has more than realized his most sanguine expectations. He would therefore take this opportunity of making his grateful acknowledgments to a discerning public, and also of expressing his gratitude to his former friends and patrons who have so generally called on him since his re-establishment in business—as it is a proof that he has heretofore given satisfaction. He will now use every exertion, not only to please the fancy but to furnish the Cheapest and best Hats in the city. This he is enabled to do from his practical knowledge, and peculiarly economical cash system of business at less price than they can be offered by those who are mere buyers and sellers, and still adhere to the old credit system, with rents and extravagant expenses. In proof of this position, he has introduced for the inspection of the public, a Superior Fine Nutria Hat, On fine Russia body, at the unprecedented low price of three dollars and fifty cents!!! Equal in all respects to those sold under the old system, at $4 and $5.

The above named price will be strictly adhered to, and he trusts his friends who order their hats sent home, will not be offended should the bill be sent at the same time, or soon after, to their counting-house, as no book of charge is kept in this establishment. The subscriber is sorry to say, that efforts have been made, and doubtless will continue to be made by some, to injure his Economical and Fashionable Establishment. He would therefore particularly invite the public, after examining every where else, to call and see him

Charles F. Raymond, Practical Hat and Cap Manufacturer, No. 52 Chesnut street below Third, Opposite Congress Hall, Philadelphia. P. S. The Ladies will here find a handsome assortment of hats and fur trimmings, at reasonable prices. Old furs altered and repaired in the best manner.

PROSPECTS FOR A WEEKLY FORUM.

The proprietors of the Philadelphia National Forum will, on the 1st of January next, issue a weekly edition of the Forum. This edition will contain matter selected from the daily Forum, with original articles prepared expressly for it. The literary contents will be made up of selections from the most popular writers of fiction—of instructive essays upon useful topics—and of an agreeable miscellany of light reading, which, for interest, variety, and excellence, will equal any of the literary weeklies. As the Forum will not be put to press until the eve of Saturday, it will contain the latest news down to the day of its publication. A weekly Review of the Markets, and, on alternate weeks a carefully corrected table of the solvent Banks, and the rates of discount at which their notes are bought in Philadelphia, and a detailed Price Current of the Markets will be given.

In its political course, the Forum will be ardently, inflexibly Whig, and will advocate with its utmost energies the Protection of Home Industry, the Restoration of a Sound and Uniform Currency, and the election of HENRY CLAY as President of the United States.

It will be published on a double Imperial sheet, and as for beauty of typography, will compare with any paper in the Union. As it will be sent only for cash, in advance, the publishers will be enabled to afford it, notwithstanding its great size and the cost of its publication, at the low price of Two Dollars a year—six copies for ten dollars, or ten copies for fifteen dollars.

Subscriptions solicited by F. B. GRAHAM & CO., 85 Chesnut street, Philadelphia. Dec. 7, 1842.

THE AMERICAN AGRICULTURIST.

A. B. Allen and R. L. Allen, Editors, Saxton & Miles, publishers, 205 Broadway, New York.

The AMERICAN AGRICULTURIST is published monthly at 205 Broadway, New York, at one dollar per annum, payable always in advance; six copies will be sent for five dollars; thirteen copies for ten dollars. Agricultural Societies that wish to give this work as a premium, will be entitled to a discount of twenty-five per cent, or handsomely bound volumes at the subscription price.

This work will be devoted to the various pursuits of the agriculturist throughout every section of the United States, and will contain the latest intelligence on every branch of their occupation; the best seeds; modes of tillage; character of soils; improved implements; and the various and best breeds of cattle, horses, sheep and swine.

Each number consists of thirty-two pages, double column, royal octavo, and the work will be embellished with cuts, illustrating the different subjects on which it treats—making a volume of 384 large pages yearly for the low price of one dollar.

Seven numbers of this work have already been published, and as it is stereotyped, subscribers may commence with the back or present numbers, at their option.

From the general testimony in favor of the manner in which this paper has been conducted, from the public press and the most experienced Farmers and Planters throughout the country, there is every reason to believe it will prove universally acceptable, and remunerate its readers tenfold for their subscription. No man at this time who aspires to the noble occupation of an American agriculturist, should be without one or more periodicals, exclusively devoted to his interests.

Each number consists of one sheet and will be subject to newspaper postage only. Postmasters are permitted by law to enclose money for subscription free of postage.

ALEXANDRIA FOUNDRY.

LITERARY, DOMESTIC, AND FASHIONABLE FAMILY MAGAZINE.

Godey's Lady's Book for 1843.

EDITED BY Mrs. S. J. Hale and others. THE LONG ESTABLISHED Arbitrer of Taste, Fashion, and the Belles Letters.

FOR THE LADIES OF AMERICA.

GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK having been, for so long a series of years, universally recognized as the exclusive and indisputable guide to the fair sex, in matters of taste, fashion, and literature—the only work conducted by distinguished female authors, who have won for themselves a high place among the guiding spirits of the age—the only work which in point of fact has been exclusively devoted to the ladies, its favor with its fair patrons has not been less remarkable than its perfect adaptation to their feelings and tastes and their requirements. In entering upon a new year, the publisher, without diminishing in the least that sterling and useful literature, which has long resulted from laying under contribution the native good sense and elegant fancy of our American female writers, will, as each successive number appears present in the several departments of literature, fashion, and pictorial embellishment, a constant and ever varying succession of new and striking features.

Nor does he promise without ample ability to perform. The best literary talent, the best efforts of the "most distinguished artists" in the country—and to crown as well as to adorn the whole, the most perfect arrangements for the reception of the "American, London, and Paris fashions," far in advance of any other publication in this country, enable him to assure the patrons of the "Lady's Book" that the forthcoming volume will more than justify its well earned title of the "Magazine of Magazines," for the ladies of our country.

It has passed into custom to assert that dress is a matter of trifling importance, but this every lady knows to be utterly false. Taste in dress is universally felt to be the index of a thousand desirable qualities in woman, while a deficiency in this respect always injures one in the estimation of strangers, and even of her intimate friends—the beauty of Helen and the wit of Aspasia, would hardly commend to general favor an acknowledged dowdy in dress. Hence the importance of an accredited guide to the fashions.

This useful office, already filled for fourteen years with universal acceptance by the "Lady's Book," the publisher pledges himself to discharge in future in a style surpassing all his former efforts.—The Ladies know perfectly well that our Magazine is the highest authority in fashion.

No lady considers herself well dressed who contravenes this authority, and in our own city, in New York, Boston, Baltimore, Cincinnati, Louisville, Lexington, St. Louis, New Orleans, Mobile, Richmond, Charleston, Savannah, and the other Metropolitan Cities of the various States, the tasteful fashion plates of the "Lady's Book" dictate the laws of dress. In future the figures will be thrown into tasteful groups, displaying the graces of dress to the best advantage, and the back grounds of the plates will present interesting views, designed by first rate artists.

As a further assurance of thorough excellence in this department, the publisher has secured the services of MISS LESLIE, who will illustrate the fashion plates, in her usual felicitous and graphic style, uniting a thorough knowledge of the subject, with a clear, intelligible and graceful manner of treating it. Her descriptions are worthy of the productions of her own glowing pencil, which drew the earliest fashion plates for the Lady's Book.

The Publisher's correspondent in Paris is possessed of such ample means of obtaining the real and present Paris fashions, and of transmitting them in advance of all competitors, that the ladies may continue, as they have always done, to copy from our plates what has relieved the sanction of indisputable ton, the last, the newest, the best fashions, fresh from Paris.

The arrangements for producing a most brilliant and attractive series of mezzotint and line engravings are now complete. Pictures fresh from the easels of our first rate American artists are now actually in the hands of the ablest American engravers, the subjects embracing not only the usual popular and domestic topics, but others which are interwoven into the very heartstrings of American Nationality, treating as they do of stirring incidents in the glorious and heroic age of America.

With respect to the general literary and moral tone of the "Lady's Book," for 1843, it will maintain its usual consistent character of a Domestic and Fashionable Family Magazine. While such contributors as Miss Leslie, Miss Sedgwick, Mrs. Hall, Mrs. Embury, Mrs. E. F. Ellet, Mrs. Sigourney, Mrs. Volney E. Howard, Mrs. Seba Smith, Mrs. A. M. F. Annan, Mrs. C. Lee Hentz, Mrs. Parsons, and Mrs. S. J. Hale continue their contributions, the beautiful and the useful, all that charms the fancy, and all that mends the heart, and guides the best affections of our nature, will continue to adorn and dignify our pages. The lovers of historical romance, and those who regard our nation's glory as the prime object of our nation's literature, will have their peculiar tastes gratified by the contributions of Dr. Robert M. Bird, the author of "The Gladiator," "Calavar," &c. The admirers of Southern scenery and manners will recognize with pleasure, among our correspondents, the name of W. Gilmore Simms, the Novelist author of "Guy Rivers," "Yemassee," &c. Those who are partial to graceful, easy, nonchalant, gentlemanly story telling, will always find with pleasure the monthly return of N. P. Willis, the most piquant, lively and fertile of all magazine writers.

The admirers of the high-toned, moral and domestic Nouvelle will recognize with pleasure, among our contributors, the name of T. S. Arthur, author of "Six Nights with the Washingtonians," &c. Contributions are also ready from the pens of Prof. Alexander Dallas Bache, late principal of the Philadelphia high school, Prof. John Sanderson, author of "A Year in Paris," Prof. John Frost, Editor of "Young People's Book."

Our limits will not give us space enough to enumerate the names of a tithe of our contributors. Our list of foreign contributors is enriched with the distinguished names of Joanna Baillie, Mary Russell Mitford, Mary Howitt, Maria Edgeworth, Hon. Mrs. C. Norton, and Mrs. S. C. Hall, recognised in Europe as the elite of British female authors.

The publisher's means of increasing the beauty and value of the Lady's Book are accumulating year by year. To his already inestimable list of contributors, he is constantly receiving accessions both at home and abroad. His arrangements with respect to original paintings, from such artists as Rothermel, Frankenstein, Croome, Chapman, MacIse, Huntington, are now complete, and he numbers among the engravers whose services are constantly retained, Tucker, Smith, Warner, Dick, Sudd, Ellis, Gimbrade, Classen, and Jones.

His whole system of arrangements with respect to fashion plates is now developed and perfected. The Lady's Book will therefore continue to maintain that proud pre-eminence in merit and in popularity, which fourteen years of unintermitted attention on the part of the publisher has earned—it will still remain, as always heretofore the favorite of the fair.

NATURAL PRINCIPLES.

It is written in the Book of Nature and common sense, that the natural vegetable productions of every country are, if properly applied, amply sufficient for the cure of every malady incident to that climate.

WRIGHT'S INDIAN VEGETABLE PILLS are founded upon the principle, that the human body is subject to but one disease, viz: corrupt humors, which, when confined to the circulation, give rise to those disordered motions of the blood called fevers; but when lodged in the various parts of the body, are the cause not only of every ache or pain we suffer, but every malady incident to man.

It should be remembered that Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills are composed of roots and herbs, which grow spontaneously on our own soil, and consequently are so admirably adapted to our constitutions that, while they cannot possibly injure even the most delicate, a perseverance in their use, according to directions, is absolutely certain to drive disease of every name from the body.

When we wish to restore a swamp or morass to fertility, do we not drain it of the superabundant water? In like manner, if we would restore the body to health, we must cleanse it from impurity.

Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills, will be found peculiarly adapted to carrying out this grand purifying, because they expel all corrupt humors in an easy and natural manner, and while they every day

GIVE EASE AND PLEASURE, the constitution is restored to such a state of health and vigor, that disease will find no abiding place in the body.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS! As the great popularity of Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills, has raised up a host of counterfeiters the public are cautioned against impostors, who are travelling about the country, selling to the unsuspecting storekeepers a spurious article for the above celebrated Pills.

It should be remembered that, all who sell the genuine medicine are provided with a certificate of agency, of which the following is a copy:

This is to certify that the within named — is a regular and duly appointed Agent for the sale of Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills, in the town of —, in the State of —, and this certificate, which is signed by Wm. Wright, Vice President of the North American College of Health, must also be countersigned by the acting Clerk or Agent, from whom said certificate is received.

This certificate of agency will be renewed every twelve months; therefore, if any alteration should be made in the date, do not purchase.

The public are further informed that all who receive the above certificate, are also required to sign the following

PLEDGE

This is to certify, that the subscriber, by certificate bearing even date herewith, signed with the proper handwriting of William Wright, Vice President of the North American College of Health, — been appointed Agent for the sale of WRIGHT'S INDIAN VEGETABLE PILLS, Or Indian Purgative, in the town of —, and State of —, to hold and continue in said agency during the pleasure of the said William Wright, and no longer, any thing contained in the said certificate signed by the said William Wright, to the contrary thereof notwithstanding. In consideration whereof, I hereby covenant and agree to and with the said William Wright that I will not sell, or expose to sale, any medicine bearing the above or a similar name during my said agency, other than that which I receive from his authorized agent or agents, under the penalty of five hundred dollars to be paid by him, as liquidated damages. Witness — hand and seal, this — day of — one thousand eight hundred and forty —

Thus it will be seen that the friends of the genuine medicine may be perfectly free from any apprehension of fraud, as all agents, who are provided with a certificate of agency, have invariably

SIGNED THE PLEDGE not to sell any Indian Vegetable Pills except those received from the above named William Wright, or his authorized agent.

Country agents and other, will be on their guard against travelling impostors, and remember that all authorized travelling agents are also provided with a certificate of agency as above described, and that Pills offered for sale, by those who cannot show a certificate of agency, are sure to be counterfeit.

It will be further observed that all genuine medicine has the title expressed in full on the sides of the boxes, viz:

WRIGHT'S INDIAN VEGETABLE PILLS, (Indian Purgative) OF THE NORTH AMERICAN COLLEGE OF HEALTH.

The patrons of Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills, will also bear in mind that the directions which accompany each box of Pills, have been signed by copyright, and the proper form, viz: "Entered according to the act of Congress, in the year 1840, by William Wright, in the Clerk's Office of the District Court of the Eastern District of Pennsylvania," will be found at the bottom of the first page of said directions.

Thus it will be seen, that a trifling attention on the part of the purchaser in the above particulars, will put an effectual stop to this wholesale robbery, and drive, it is hoped, all depredators upon society to an honest calling.

The following highly respectable storekeepers have been appointed agents for the sale of Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills, of the North American College of Health.

William Stewart, Huntingdon. Henry Leamer Holidaysburg. B. F. Bell, Antes township. Robert McNamara, Newry. Samuel S. Isett, Tyrone township. Silkeous & Kessler, Mill Creek. A. & N. Cresswell, Petersburg. Gemmel & Porter, Alexandria. Moore & Steiner, Water Street. Joseph Patton, Jr. Duncansville. R. H. McCormick, Collinsville. Wolf & Willet, Frankstown.

Offices devoted exclusively to the sale of the medicine, wholesale and retail, No. 258 Greenwich street, New York; and No. 193 Fremont street, Boston; and Principal Office, No. 169 Race street, Philadelphia.

N. B. The public are respectfully informed that the Pills made by one V. O. Flack, and sold by a man named Parker, in Third street, are not the genuine Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills; and as counterfeiters and their associates sell at half price, it is absolutely impossible for them to have the genuine medicine for sale.

* Be particular in all cases to ask for the genuine Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills. November 30, 1842.
