 WEEKLYFORUM, The proprietors of the Philadelphia National Forum will, on the 1st of Jana- ry next, issue a weekly edition of the For- run. This edition will contain matter- selected from the daily Forum, with origi- nal articles prepared expressly for it.- The literary contents will be made up of selections from the most popular writers of fiction-of instructive essays upon ure- fall topics—and of an agreeable miscellary of fiction-of instructive essays upon ure- fall copics—and of an agreeable miscellary of light reading, which, for interest, varie- ty, and excellence, will equal any of the litterary weeklies. As the Forum will not be pat to press until the eve of Satur- day, it will contain the latest juess down to the Markets, and, on alternate weeks a carefully corrected table of the solvent Banks, and the rates of discourd at which their notes are bought in Phila- delphia, and a detailed Price Current of the Markets will be given. In its political course, the Forum will ad vacet with its utmost energies the Pro- rection of Hussing CLAAR as President of a Sound and Uniform Currency, and the election of Hussing CLAAR as President of a Sound and Uniform Currency, and the election of Hussing CLAAR as President of the United States. Ti will be published on a double Imper- vill compare with any paper in the Unitor.
