A CARD. HENRY L. ELDER, No. 493. Market Street, above 13th North side, Philadelphia.

HAVING reduced his prices of Hardware to the lowest rates, for cash, and in his advertisements, named some of the articles with the prices annexed, he finds that others in the same line of business have offered those particular articles at the same prices, saying they sell as low as Elder. Now the object of this card is to invite purchasers to ascertain the lowest prices for which they can purchase every description of Hardware elsewhere, and then enquire at his store, and they will be convinced that he is selling all his goods at similar low prices, and that he is doing what he professes to do—buying only for cash, and selling only for cash—which enables him to do business at such rates as cannot fail to make his Store the depot for those who wish to get the most for their money.

He has added to his large stock of Hardware a complete assortment of window glass, which he will sell at a scale of prices corresponding with the reduced prices of his Nails, Scythes, and Hardware generally, at wholesale and retail.
