The Cabinet.

It is said that John Neilson, an eminent loco loco lawyer of Maryland, is appointed Attorney General of the U. States in place of Mr. Legare dec'd.

David R. Henshaw, a loco, of Boston, Massachusetts, has been appointed Secretary of the Navy, in the place of A. P. Upshur, who has been appointed to the State Department.

Error Corrected.

Our contemporaries, and persons generally, call the 4th of July 1843 the 67th Anniversary of the Declaration of Independence. The Declaration was made on the 4th of July 1776—the 4th of July 1777 was the first Anniversary—and the 4th of July 1843 was the 66th. On the 4th inst., however, we entered on the 67th year of American Independence. Every one should be right in this matter.

More Coal.

The Gettysburg Star says:—Capt John Camp, of Oxford, Adams county, has left at our office, several specimens of stone coal, which he discovered in opening a stone quarry on the Catholic church land in Paradise township, York county, about one mile east of our county line. The vein is supposed to be very extensive.

Cool.

The Nauvoo Neighbor, a Mormon paper, expresses surprise at the progress of the Miller humbug, and of fanaticism in this country.

The Government of the United States has ordered the remains of Commodore Porter, who died at Constantinople, to be brought home in a national vessel; in honor of his high rank, and the distinguished services he has rendered his country.

The Whig Convention of Georgia has unanimously nominated John M. Berrien for Vice President on the ticket with Mr. Clay. The National Forum nominates Hon. John Sergeant of Pennsylvania. Both are the names of sterling men.

The Loco-foco Humbug, under the spurious name of "Workingmen's Party" was so effectually exploded last year that the chief actors therein are hearily ashamed of it, and have concluded to return to their "first love." By the following notice, which we copy from the Hollidaysburg Standard, it appears that the order is "as you were"—that the name of "Workingmen" is to be dropped and that of "Democrats" again assumed for the ensuing fall election. This movement is no doubt prompted by a strong desire for success in the election of a member of Congress and a Board of Canal Commissioners well versed in "Indian Affairs." As for the rest of the move—"nominating a Democratic ticket"—they are scarcely in good earnest about it, but "just trying their hand like," as it don't cost the "actors" any thing—and the candidates won't feel very bad if they are defeated—they are used to that—and don't expect to be elected. But to the notice.

Democratic Delegate CONVENTION.

The Democratic citizens of the several Townships and Boroughs in the county of Huntingdon, are requested to convene at the usual places of election delegates, on SATURDAY, the 12th DAY OF AUGUST next, and elect two delegates from each Township and Borough, who will assemble in at the Borough of Huntingdon, on Tuesday the 15th day of August, for the purpose of nominating a Democratic ticket to be supported at the ensuing general election—to appoint delegates to the State Convention which will assemble at Harrisburg, on the 5th day of September next, to nominate three Canal Commissioners—and also to elect conferees to meet conferees from the other counties of this Congressional district to put in nomination a candidate for Congress.

By order of the County Committee, ALEX. GWIN, Chairman.

Rail-Road Accidents at Hollidaysburg.

We learn from the Hollidaysburg Register, that on Friday night, the 23d ult., a great explosion took place in the Tunnel of the Allegheny Portage Railroad. Some cars laden with whiskey and bacon had been run into the tunnel in the evening, where they were left for the night; but in coming along, a spark from the Locomotive got into one of them and remained unobserved. Towards morning it had increased to a flame, and, reaching the contents of the barrels, an explosion of tremendous violence occurred—rending the car into a thousand atoms, and disengaging huge masses of rock above, filled the tunnel to such an extent as to render it impassable for a day or two.

From the same paper we learn that a rather perilous and unfortunate accident occurred at Plane 10, A. P. Railroad, one day week before last. The rope broke while a burden train was near the head of the plane. The cars rushed down the plane "like mad," the conductors held on, and applied their levers, but unavailingly; they gained in velocity every moment; so that when near the foot of the plane, the conductors leaped off, and escaped without injury; but the cars kept on, and coming in contact with another burden train on the same track at the bottom, in an instant there was a "wreck of matter," and the road lay strewn with fragments of the broken cars and their burdens. Six cars were utterly destroyed.

THE CROPS.

The crops of Michigan are said to be particularly promising.

The Elizabeth City, N. C., Advocate of Saturday last says, the farmers have harvested a large crop of wheat of fine quality this year. The corn also presents a most promising appearance. The same may be said of the entire crops of wheat and corn in this state.

The Wheeling Times of the 4th inst., says:—We notice that the improvement in our wheat and corn fields, within a few days, has been very great.

The Crops and the Weather in Virginia.

The Norfolk Herald of 4th inst. says:—"The weather could not be better for harvesting the wheat and making the corn grow. We have had six successive days of clear, hot weather. On Sunday afternoon, the 2nd inst., the sky became darkened with clouds, and a war of the elements was foretold; but all passed off with a gentle rain and a shift of wind to the eastward, cooling the previous fervid heat, and refreshing vegetation.—Yesterday was clear, with delightful and invigorating breezes.

A friend in Princess Anne informs us that every thing looks cheering to the farmer in that county. The wheat, he says, proves to be a better crop than has been made in that section for many years. The corn and oat crops too, were never more promising, and if nothing happens to mar so fair a prospect, the yield of both will be beyond all precedent."

A portion of Shelby county, Ohio, was visited on the 17th ult., with a tornado which did considerable damage along the portion of the county over which it passed, almost everything being levelled to the earth.

The Lancaster (Pa.) Examiner contains a call for a county meeting of the friends of HEXAR CLAY, signed by two thousand citizens. The meeting is to be held at the Court House in Lancaster on the 29th inst.

The Legislature of New-Hampshire has voted not to take her share of the proceeds of the Public Lands, about $10,000. The fools are not all dead yet.

Last Saturday's U. S. Gazette has the following:—"Mr. W. W. Young asks us to acknowledge for him the receipt of the following letter, enclosing a sum of money:

"Esteemed Friends—Receive that which is thine own, but which has been in the unrighteous possession of one who feels bound to restore it as unlawful gain, and who has no pleasure in the possession of what is not his own in moral justice, although custom may sanction the means by which it is acquired. "W. W. Young."

Borough Notes--Shin-Plasters.

At a meeting of the citizens of this Borough held on Saturday evening the 8th inst., on motion DAVID SNARE, Esq. was called to the Chair, and W. S. HILDEBRAND appointed Secretary. A Committee was then appointed to report the sentiments of the meeting, and to have their report presented to our Merchants, with a request that they sign it and permit it to be thus published. The following is the report of the Committee:

The people having borne for a long time the annoyance arising from the issue and circulation of that worthless, illegal, and ragged currency denominated "Shin-Plasters," and being now convinced that is sufficient silver in our county to answer every purpose of change; and that consequently there exists no necessity for their circulation, unless that necessity may exist in the inability of the several corporations issuing them, now, if not, ever to redeem them, they have

Resolved, That we will not either receive or circulate, as a currency, those small notes issued by boroughs, counties, or individuals; and they earnestly solicit the co-operation of all our citizens in town and country, in the accomplishment of this desirable object—the suppression of this illegal and useless currency.

AGRICULTURAL.

Time for Budding Fruit Trees.

August has been generally considered the best month for budding, but other months are found to answer quite as well. Pear trees that are not in rich ground should be budded earlier than August, for they often cease to extend their limbs in July; and when they have stopped growing, the buds that we insert are not likely to live.

The peach in nurseries continues to grow to a late day; and when they are thrifty, August is early enough to insert buds. Some nurserymen prefer budding to grafting apple trees; and we must say we have been most successful, in budding. In grafting, if the scion does not live, we lose the stock, or we are obliged to wait for a sprout to grow large enough to be operated upon. In case of a failure of a bud in August, the stock in which it was inserted may have a graft in the spring; thus a nurseryman will stand a double chance of keeping his rows full.

The operation of budding is simple; yet some of our young friends never seen it performed; and we will try to describe it, though it is a harder job than to bud a stock. The bud should be cut from a limb or twig of this year's growth, and a slip of bark should be taken from the twig with the bud, one inch in length; half of this slip above and half below the bud. A little of the sap wood of the twig will naturally be sliced off, and will adhere to the bark inclosing the bud. It has been customary to peel out the sap wood, and leave nothing but the clear bark with the bud; but unless this is done with caution, a vital part of the eye of the bud will come out, also, and spoil the bud. Some in slicing of the bud, take out a little of the sap wood from the twig, and they let that remain. As soon as the bud is prepared, take a sharp penknife and cut a perpendicular slit in the stock, one inch long, and as near the ground as you can with convenience. You must cut quite through the bark, at the bottom of the slit cut an other at right angles, or directly across the stock, so deep as to enable you to raise the bark or peel it up enough to admit the bud under it; this may be done with a smooth bit of iron or ivory; the bud should then be slid up as far as the slit will admit; if the bark of the bud be too long for the slit, it should be cut off square with the cross cut in the stock; and the bud should be kept in place by tying some matting around the stock, above and below the bud.

Some choose the month of June for budding; in this case, the bud will become a limb in the same season. When the buds are inserted early, care must be taken to cut the matting, or to loosen it, on finding that the stock wants more room.—Massachusetts Ploughman.

Things to be Remembered.

Horses should never be put to severe work on a full stomach. More horses are hurt by hard driving after a feed, than by a full feed after driving.

If the farmer wishes to have his pork barrel and meat closet to hold out, let him look well to his kitchen garden. Plenty of vegetables conduces not more to health than lard to profit.

In laying in a stock of winter fodder for animals, let it not be forgotten that a little too much is just enough. Starving animals at any time is miserable policy.

As you treat your land so it will treat you. Feed it with manure liberally and it will yield you bread bountifully.

Avoid debt as you would the leprosy. If you are tempted to purchase on credit, put it off for three days. You need time for reflection.

Never beg fruit, or any thing else you can produce by the expenditure of a little time or labor. It is as reasonable to expect a man to give away the products of his wheat field, as of his orchard or fruit garden.

If you keep your sheep and cattle in your meadows until June, don't complain because you are compelled to purchase hay for your stock.

The man who uses good seed, has a good soil, and works it in good season, rarely fails of having a good crop to reward his toil.

Never forfeit your word. The saying in truth, of any farmer, "his word is as good as his bond," is worth more to him than the interest of $10,000 annually.—Albany Cultivator.

Democratic State Convention.

Whereas, the General Assembly of Pennsylvania, at its late session, enacted a law by which the Free-men of the State are required, at the general election in October next, to elect, by a popular vote, a Board of Canal Commissioners: And whereas, it is important that the Democratic Harrison party should preserve a full and complete organization of all its forces by the presentation of honest, faithful and competent candidates, distinguished for their integrity, in favor of a prudent and economical management of the public works, and opposed to the wasteful expenditures and flagrant abuses of the present administration, to the free and independent voters of the State, for their support:—The undersigned State Committee, therefore, call upon the members of said party, in the different counties to elect at such times and places as they may think proper, in conformity with the usages of the party, Delegates from each Senatorial and Representative District, pursuant to the provisions of the Senatorial and Representative Apportionment Act, passed at the recent session of the Legislature, and equal to the number of Senators and Representatives from such county or district, to meet in General Convention, at Harrisburg, on WEDNESDAY, THE 6th DAY OF SEPTEMBER, NEXT, at 12 o'clock, M., to nominate suitable candidates for CANAL COMMISSIONERS, to be supported by the Harrison Democratic party of the State, at the ensuing general election.

A FRIENDLY HINT. It is now more than a year since I disposed of the "Huntingdon Journal," and during all that time, I have been writing patiently, upon those who are in my debt, for subscription and advertising. I have been living on promises; and what is more, those to whom I am indebted, have been obliged to take "promises" from me; and they like myself, are getting out of patience with this kind of a "credit system." Now by way of a hint I wish to say to all who know themselves to be in arrears to me, that I must have my accounts closed; and there is another part of the story—I WILL. I am not disposed to be ill-natured, but mind I tell you all, I am out of money—nearly out of credit—and a settlement must be had between this and August Court—or well I won't say what.
