OATS and CORN will be taken, at the market price, in payment of subscription and jobbing due this office.

NEW ORLEANS ELECTION.

On the 3d inst., the election took place in Louisiana for members of Congress and the Legislature. We have partial returns from New Orleans with the following result:

Table with columns: Congress—District 1, Slidell, Rogers, First Municipality, Third Municipality, Total.

The parishes of St. Bernard and Plaquemines are to hear from, but will not alter the result.

In Dist. 11, E. D. White (Whig) majority in the second municipality is 111. He is probably elected if the country parishes have done their duty.

Felix Labatut is elected to the Legislature from the municipalities, by a majority of 32 votes. The general result is not as favorable as we had hoped, but the election day comes off at a season when many business men are at the North, who can only be induced to remain there until July on great occasions.

GERMAN PROFESSORSHIP.—Columbia College having received a legacy of $20,000 for that purpose from the estate of the late Frederick Gehland, of N. Y., has established a German Professorship, and made the German language an indispensable portion of the collegiate course.

Another Parson.—We have heard the question frequently asked—What is the use of trying criminals when the sentence of the law has hardly been pronounced, before we observe individuals, convicted of gross violations of the law—stalking through our thoroughfares, in mockery of public justice!

The Philadelphia Daily Forum of the 10th inst., says:—“We understand that some cases of the cholera morbus have occurred about town. They who are apprehensive of this disease, should abstain from, or cautiously use, such articles as murrain or decayed fruit, cucumbers, and certain other vegetables of an indigestible nature.

The Rochester Post says that on Sunday evening last, during the exercises in the Miller Tent in that city, a woman became very much excited, and finally fainted away. When restored to animation, she confessed that she had, several years since, committed a murder in Great Britain, and expressed a wish to be sent back to atone the penalty of the law.

The St. Louis, Mo., Standard of the 30th ult., states that Joe Smith, the Mormon Prophet, has been arrested at Ottawa, on the Illinois River, on a requisition made by the Governor of Missouri. Great excitement exists at Nauvoo, in consequence of his arrest, and parties of armed men have left it for Ottawa.

A BROKEN HEART HEALED!—On Tuesday last, at Newport, R. I., Miss Abby Breck obtained a verdict of $5000 against C. Dalrymple, for a breach of promise. He must have been a desirable match!

The money paid for advertising should never form the least difficulty to a man who has anything to gain. It should be to him as a mere drop from the ocean. A painter once asked a very wealthy merchant, why he had not a better sign. “Ah, said he, I advertise. My neighbors have all splendid signs, but they never bring as many as mine. Any one in the country may see my sign board. It is the printer and not the painter, that has made my wealth.

“His own household.”—The Secretary of War, has appointed three nephews to clerkships in his department! The four PORTER'S draw $10,000 year from Government!

DIED, On the 10th inst., in the Borough of Lewistown, ISABELLA, youngest daughter of Robert Davidson, Esq., of Huntingdon county, aged twenty-three years.

THE BEST SONG SINCE 1620.

We copy the following as the best political song which has appeared since the memorable campaign of 1840. It was sung on the 4th inst., at the Whig celebration in Philadelphia, and received with shouts of applause. It is said to have been written by an eminent literary gentleman of that city.—Pa. Tel.

Hurrah for the Clay.

A health to the Farmer, who follows the plough, And earns independence by sweat of the brow! He sings, as he turns the rich soil to the day, How happy's the farmer who lives by the Clay. Hurrah for the Clay, hurrah for the Clay, How happy's the farmer who lives by the Clay!

The Brickmaker places his forms in the sun, To harden them well when his moulding is done; Then fires them boldly, not fearing that they Will crack in the kiln, for he trusts to the Clay. It stands to the Clay! it trusts to the Clay! It stands every trial, the well temper'd Clay!

Hurrah for the Clay, hurrah for the Clay, It stands every trial, the well temper'd Clay!

The Potter is careful in choosing his stuff, And works it to make it both plastic and tough; And sings as he fashions his ware on the tray, “We'd all go to pot if it were not for Clay.”

Hurrah for the Clay! hurrah for the Clay! We'd all go to pot if it were not for Clay!

The Dyer, good fellow, the ladies to please, Takes Clay for a mordant and Clay for the grease, And proud of his colors so true and so gay, Sings, “boys as we live let us dye by the Clay! “Who would't be so if I trusted to Clay!”

Hurrah for the Clay! Hurrah for the Clay! Who would't be so if I trusted to Clay!

The Ditcher who works in the mud and the sand, Is cheated by shills of the treacherous land; And cries in despair as the work breaks away, “It would't be so if I trusted to Clay!” “Trusted to Clay! trusted to Clay!” “It would't be so if I trusted to Clay!”

Hurrah for the Clay! hurrah for the Clay! It would't be so if I trusted to Clay!

The toll-wreath'd Cotter, at evening, at home, Tho' soiled are his hands and his jacket with loam, Is happy to see his sweet children at play, And smiles at their bliss for he earned it by Clay. Earned it by Clay! earned it by Clay! He smiles at their bliss for he earned it by Clay.

Hurrah for the Clay! hurrah for the Clay! Let's follow the Cotter and work in the Clay.

When winter-winds howl round the Clay-plastered cot, And yon son is smoking, and hominy hot, The woodman exults that the tempest's at bay, And laughs at the storm for he's sheltered by Clay, Sheltered by Clay! sheltered by Clay! He laughs at the storm for he's sheltered by Clay.

Hurrah for the Clay! hurrah for the Clay! We'll laugh at the storm when we're sheltered by Clay!

The Cabin of State to its ruin runs fast, It lies in the snow drift, the rain and the blast; It's furniture's rotten, its finishers decay, And nothing can save it but filling with Clay! Filling with Clay, filling with Clay! And nothing can save it but filling with Clay.

Hurrah for the Clay! hurrah for the Clay! There's nothing can save it but filling with Clay!

The world over, boys, there is Clay that is good, For building of cabins and raising of food; But for work such as ours let me tell you the best Is Clay of Kentucky—the Clay of the West, Clay of the West, Clay of the West, There's nothing for us like the Clay of the West.

Hurrah for the Clay! hurrah for the Clay! There's nothing for us like the Clay of the West.

Come join then my hearers, each son of the land, And citizen stranger hand linked into hand, United and earnest, we'll carry the day, And rescue the land by top-dressing with Clay. Topping with Clay, topping with Clay, We'll rescue the land by top-dressing with Clay.

Hurrah for the Clay! hurrah for the Clay! We'll rescue the land by top-dressing with Clay.

Nine cheers for great Harry, whose honor won't bend, Who never turned back on a foe or a friend, Who works for his country by night and by day, The country will thank him by working for Clay. Working for Clay, working for Clay, The country will thank him by working for Clay.

Hurrah for the Clay! hurrah for the Clay! The country will thank him by working for Clay.

EXCHANGE HOTEL, HUNTINGDON, PA. PETER LIVINGSTON.

Respectfully informs the citizens of this county, and the public generally, that he has removed to and opened a Public House in that large and commodious brick building situated at the centre of the Diamond, formerly occupied by C. Cents, where the "way worn traveler" will find every attention that will minister to his convenience and comfort. His TABLE will receive his special attention, and shall always be abundantly supplied with the best to be had in the county. His BAR is furnished with the choicest Wines and Liquors. His STABLE is the best in the place, and the most careful and attentive ostlers will always be in attendance; and the Host pledges himself to make every exertion to render his house a "home" to all who may favor him with a call. The stranger and the friend may rest assured that if a desire to please be successful he doubts not his success. He tenders his thanks to his old customers for past favors, and respectfully solicits a continuance of their patronage.

BOARDERS will be taken by the year, month or week. July 12, 1843--6m.

THE PHILADELPHIA ZOOLOGICAL GARDEN.

THE PHILADELPHIA ZOOLOGICAL GARDEN, UNITED WITH THE NEW YORK INSTITUTE, FOR THE YEAR 1843.

Under the direction of Mr. H. Hopkins & Co. WILL be exhibited at HUNTINGDON, on Saturday the 29th July 1843.

Admission reduced to 25 cents, children under ten years of age half price. Doors open from 5 to 6 o'clock, P. M. New and splendid Scenery, done in oil painted by one of the best artists in Philadelphia, decorates the sides of 20 wagons, all containing animals of different descriptions, affording one of the most rich and animating displays ever brought forth, all the designs being of the latest finish and most admirable fashion. To enliven this scene, on entering the town a high-toned band will pour forth some of the most fashionable airs. The celebrated JOHN SCHAFFER, the subduer of the savage d-mons of the forest, will appear in a most magnificent series of scenes entitled "The dreadful doom of the Sultan's slave." Among a variety of thrilling situations, the following will be exhibited:—The outcast slave banished to the forest of Fairih, expiring from hunger and fatigue; when a fierce Brazilian Tiger darts like lightning upon him from an upper cavern. The Eastern despot's most awful sentence:—A forfeited life spared on condition of training a wild lion to harness, which is accomplished, and the slave rides across the road in a wretched car. Also a variety of other beautiful and striking situations will be presented during the progress of the piece, to conclude with the most bold, grand and daring human display presented among a whole caravan of wild animals let loose at the same time, upon the Indian Slave, who will gradually subdue, and playfully exhibit his remarkable skill, in clearing up the grouping the matchless zoological exhibition. The above will be exhibited at Greenwood, Mifflin county, on Friday July 28th.

TO TRAVELERS.

THE subscriber will sell a reasonable quantity of that well known GRANULAR PROPERTY, formerly belonging to John Burket, situated near the town of Warriorsburg, in Huntingdon county, containing about 60 acres of good meadow land, with a Tan House, a Bark Mill, a two story Plastered Dwelling House, a number of VATS, a good well of water, and a good garden thereon. The land is in good tillable order, and the buildings &c. in good repair. This property possesses greater advantages in regard to location and convenience than any other property of the kind in the country, and persons wishing to carry on the Tanning Business will do well to call and examine it. The terms will be made known by the subscriber who lives about one mile and a half from the premises. JOHN SPANOGLE, Jr. June 28th 1843--3t. pd.

A FRIENDLY HINT.

It is now more than a year since I disposed of the "Huntingdon Journal," and during all that time, I have been writing gratefully, upon those who are in my debt, for subscription and advertising. I have been living on promises; and what is more, these to whom I am indebted, have been obliged to take "promises" from me; and they likewise, are getting out of patience with this kind of a "credit system." Now by way of a hint I wish to say to all who know themselves to be in arrears to me, that I must have my accounts closed; and there is another part of the story—I will not be distressed to be illustrated, but mind I tell you all, I am out of money—nearly out of credit—and a settlement must be had between this and August Court—or—well I want say what. A. W. BENEDECT, Huntingdon, May 8, 1843--1 ac.
