Seduction, and Attempt to commit Murder in Philadelphia.

The peace and quiet of Philadelphia; was again broken in upon on Monday the 21st ult., by an attempt to commit murder, by a young man named Joseph Crawford, upon the body of a villian, named Joseph S. Wimer.

The facts in the case appear to be these:—Mary Crawford is the sister of the above named Joseph Crawford, and appears to have borne a respectable character up to the time of her acquaintance with Wimer, which is about two years ago. At the time of her first acquaintance with Wimer; she was living in the house with a Mr. Walker, teller of the Mechanics Bank, where she remained nearly a year. While here, she became acquainted with Wimer, and their acquaintance grew into intimacy, and finally into crime; and she became the victim of the man to whom she had confided her character—her reputation—her all. After she left Mr. Walker's she went to work for a Miss Carpenter, a milliner, and boarded with a married sister. From here she went to live with a Methodist Minister by the name of Sorin, from which place, Wimer took her to Wilmington, and there deserted her and left her in the care of a nurse, where she remained until after the birth of a female child. About two weeks after which time, she returned to Philadelphia, and lived in the family of a Mr. Climer, until her money was exhausted. She then called upon her sister, and informed her of all that had befallen her; which was the first she, or any of her relatives knew of the fact, or even of her place of residence since her removal from Mr. Sorin's. This was also the first intimation they had of an intimacy between her and Wimer.

Joseph Crawford, her brother, who tends a grocery store in the city of New York, hearing of the matter, arrived in Philadelphia, on Saturday night, and went in search of his sister, and found her at the house of Mr. Baker, in the capacity of a nurse, from which he learned the particulars.

On the next day, (Sunday) he went in search of Wimer, but did not succeed in finding him until Monday afternoon. He called at the house of Wimer (who, to make the matter much worse, is a married man, which was not known by the girl, until after he had taken her to Wilmington.) Wimer was not at home at the time, but being at work a short distance off, his wife sent for him. When he arrived, Crawford asked him if he knew him.—Wimer replied that he did not. Crawford then drew a dirk from a cane and plunged into Wimer's right side. Wimer fell into the arms of his wife, exclaiming that he was killed, and Crawford left the dirk on the floor and fled the street. He was soon arrested by one of the neighbors, and taken before Alderman Hoffman, who, after hearing of the whole statement from Crawford, committed him to prison.

The wound inflicted by Crawford, is, however reported as not likely to prove fatal. It is to be hoped that he may survive in order to meet the heaviest punishment the law can inflict.

We had a very heavy rain last night.

Parties in Pennsylvania.

The York, (Pa.) Peoples' Advocate says—"In looking into the political arena in this State, we find a considerable number of antagonists, each marshaling for combat; and if we are to judge of the multitude of the conflict by the number of the arms on each side, fitting to and fro, bearing the despatches of the belligerents, we may look for a great number of killed, wounded and missing.

There are but two parties properly speaking in the field, viz: the old Democratic Whig party and the Modern Democrats; but the latter are so divided into classes, each seeking preeminence, that we may class each as a distinct element of party, fighting under their own banner and recognized leader. For the benefit of our readers, we will give them in their several spheres of warlike preparation, each waiting for the word "go."

We shall now present the "GREAT SNARE," into which the moderns have got, and out of which, it is impossible for them to get—for it depends on contingencies which are not reconcilable at this late date, namely, the abuse of power and of the public mind for years—derangement and depression of the public finances—an unsound currency and a total depression in the commerce of the country—the doctrine of Free Trade and the reduction of labor.

The Rhode Island Election.

We have again to record a triumph of the laws; to announce a victory of the Rhode Island party over the last desperate effort of Dorrism. Cranston and Potter are elected by majorities even greater than the triumphant vote which swept the State last April. We have gained every where. With less of party machinery than we ever knew in a contested election, we have gained a victory which would have been glorious after any amount of effort. This election confirms still stronger the lasting triumph of Law and Order in Rhode Island. It shows not only that we can sustain ourselves while the national administration is indifferent, but that we can sustain ourselves while it is hostile. It shows how much Tylerism is worth in Rhode Island and how much any party can gain by an alliance with it. Our returns from the Eastern District are complete, and show a majority for Cranston of 1521. From the Western District we have returns from but five towns. In every one Potter gains handsomely, and his majority will be increased over that of April.

CHEROKEE NATION.—The last Arkansas Intelligence states that the Cherokees have elected John Ross their Principal Chief, and Geo. Lowry Second Chief, by a majority of 800 votes; and that Mr. Ross had a majority in the Committee and Council. The same paper announces that it has received various rumors of disturbances among the Cherokees; that David Vann, the Treasurer of the Nation, Elijah Hicks and Isaac Bushyhead were murdered on the 8th ult., at one of the precincts, during the election. It further learns that the friends of the deceased were arming and collecting for the purpose of arresting the murderers; and that the friends of the murderers were also collecting for the purpose of defending and protecting them.

THE MORMONS.—The St. Louis New Era says: "We learn by a gentleman from Warsaw, that a meeting of the People of Hancock county, to be held at Carthage, was called for to-day to take into consideration their relations with the Mormons. It is said that a good deal of excitement exists against them, and apprehensions that it has received various rumors of disturbances among the Cherokees; that David Vann, the Treasurer of the Nation, Elijah Hicks and Isaac Bushyhead were murdered on the 8th ult., at one of the precincts, during the election. It further learns that the friends of the deceased were arming and collecting for the purpose of arresting the murderers; and that the friends of the murderers were also collecting for the purpose of defending and protecting them.

What's in the Wind?

We find the following in a Baltimore paper: POLITICAL MOVEMENT.—I have learned from a friend, just returned from Harper's Ferry that on Wednesday last the Hon. James Buchanan of Pennsylvania, arrived at that place, and soon after left it in a private carriage for the residence of Mr. L., a gentleman of considerable influence in that section of Virginia, who represented that district in Congress, and is the fast friend of Mr. Van Buren. Whether this flying visit is to promote harmony in the Locofoco ranks, or to convert Mr. L. to the standard of the Pennsylvania candidate for the Presidency, remains to be seen. There is something in the wind, and it may not be improper to chronicle this movement.

The Jonesborough (Tenn.) Whig discourses as follows upon the result of the election in that State: TENNESSEE FOR CLAY.—The result of the late hard fought battle in this State, that HENRY CLAY is the favorite of Tennessee for the next Presidency. His claims to that high office, as well as by the various Whig candidates for the State Legislature. The public will distinctly recollect the bold avowal of Jones, who said, I GO FOR HENRY CLAY FIRST, I GO FOR HIM LAST, I GO FOR HIM ALL THE TIME!"

SPUNK.—A young couple at Paris were lately going to the Mayor with the civil ceremony of marriage performed. The young lady, in stepping out of the carriage, entangled her lace dress in the step and tore it. "How stupid!" exclaimed the gentleman. The lady took no notice of this ungallant expression, and the party went into the hotel of the Mayor. But upon being asked whether she consented to take the gentleman present for her husband, she replied, "Not so stupid," which was the only answer that could be obtained from her.

A FRIEND OF THE PRINTERS.—A Captain of a steambot on Lake Erie, running between Buffalo and Detroit, (the Daniel Webster) has offered to carry editors free, and deduct one dollar proof of taking a newspaper and paying for it in advance. If the Captains of the steamboats, railroad cars, &c. between Philadelphia and Buffalo will only do like-wise by editors, we will go and pay the Captain of the Daniel Webster, and Detroit a visit, and give him our right for a clever fellow.—Forum.

A BIRTH.—On the 30th June, at Surinam, Mrs. Schinley, the wife of her Britannic Majesty's Commissioner, was delivered of a daughter. Mrs. S. is the young boarding school miss who ran away from N. York with Mr. Schinley, some time ago.

VAN BUREN AND CALHOUN.—The Locos of New York city have chosen Van Buren and four Calhoun delegates to the State Convention.—Van will head Cataline on the district system of electing delegates to a National Convention.

SOLITUDE SWEETENED.—Married, in Warren, by Moses Shattuck, Esq., Mr. Abraham Solitude, to Miss Mary Ann Sweet, all of that place.

Black your own boots, shave your own face, iron your own hat, get some friend to cut your hair, and let your wife patch your garments should they need it, instead of purchasing new ones such hard times as these.

U. S. SENATOR FROM ILLINOIS.—The Governor of Illinois has appointed JAMES SEWELL to serve out the unexpired Senatorial term of the late Hon. Samuel M'Roberts, to terminate in 1847.

A FRIENDLY HINT.

It is now more than a year since I disposed of the "Huntingdon Journal," and during all that time, I have been writing patiently, upon those who are in my debt, for subscription and advertising. I have been living on promises; and what is more, those to whom I am indebted, have been obliged to take "promises" from me; and they like myself, are getting out of patience with this kind of a "credit system." Now by way of a hint I wish to say to all who know themselves to be in arrears to me, that I must have my accounts closed; and there is another part of the story—I WILL. I am not disposed to be ill-natured, but mind I tell you all, I am out of money—nearly out of credit—and a settlement must be had between this and August Court—or well I won't say what. A. W. BENEDICT, Huntingdon, May 3, 1843.—tac.

Dr. Moffat's Life Pills

PHOENIX BITTERS. The perfectly safe, unerring and successful treatment of almost every species of disease by the use of Dr. MOFFAT'S LIFE MEDICINES, is no longer an experiment; as a reference to the experience of many thousand patients will satisfactorily prove. During the present month alone, nearly one hundred cases have come to the knowledge of Dr. MOFFAT, where the patient has to all appearance, effected a permanent cure by the exclusive and judicious use of the Life Medicines—some eight or ten of these had been considered hopeless by their physicians. Such happy results are a source of great pleasure to Dr. M., and inspire him with a new confidence to recommend the use of his medicines to his fellow citizens.

THE LIFE MEDICINES are a purely VEGETABLE preparation. They are mild and pleasant in their operation, and at the same time thorough-acting rapidly upon the secretions of the system—carrying off all acrimonious humors, and assuiling and purifying the blood. For this reason, in aggravated cases of Dyspepsia, the Life Medicines will give relief in a shorter space of time than any other prescription. In Fever and Ague, Inflammatory Rheumatism, Fevers of every description, Sick Headaches, Heartburn, Dizziness in the Head, Pains in the Chest, Flatulency, Impaired Appetite, and in every disease arising from impurity of the blood, or a disordered state of the stomach, the use of these medicines has always proved to be beyond doubt, greatly superior to any other mode of treatment.

All that Dr. Moffat asks of his patients is to be particular in taking them according to the directions. It is not by a newspaper notice, or by any thing that he may say in their favor, that he hopes to gain credit. It is alone by the result of a fair trial. Is the reader an invalid, and does he wish to know whether the Life Medicines will suit his own case? If so, let him call at the office of the agent, and procure a copy of the Good Samaritan, published gratuitously. He will there find enumerated very many extraordinary cases of cure; perhaps some exactly similar to his own. Sold by JACOB MILLER, Huntingdon. August 30, 1843. 3m.
