TICKETS.

Complete tickets will be ready for delivery at this office, in a few days. Our country friends will confer a favor upon the candidates by taking a supply to their respective districts.

The Sheriff's notice of the General Election will be found on the fourth page.

"STANWOOD" is informed that no communication will receive attention unless the author is made known. Such information is in all cases held strictly confidential.

Party Names.

Owing to our absence from the Editorial Chair, last week, the ticket of the Porter branch of the Locofoco party was headed "Democratic Locofoco Ticket." The Anti Porter branch of the Locofoco party find fault with this, and perhaps justly too, because we headed their own simply "Locofoco Ticket." We will state, for the satisfaction of all, that it was all right except the "Democratic" and this week we have altered the ticket so as to make it agreeable to our own views, and as it would have been published last week had we been at our post. We consider neither of the two factions "Democratic," nor any more entitled to the name of "Democrats," than to that of "Workingmen," under which they battled at the last two general elections. So long as they dub us "Feds," "Tories," "Coons" &c., they must be content to be called Locofocos by us.

Jefferson College.

We have received a copy of the Catalogue of the Officers and Students of Jefferson College, at Cannonsburg, Pa. It was published in July last, and shows the institution to be in a flourishing condition. The students are classified as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Student Level and Number. Seniors 49, Juniors 37, Sophomores 39, Freshmen 29, Preparatory 27, Irregular and Scientific 16, Total 206.

There are eight students from this county among them; viz—James Smith among the Seniors; R. C. Irwin among the Juniors; J. W. Henderson, J. H. Orhison and S. C. Stewart among the Sophomores; Robert M. Jones and W. W. Stewart among the Freshmen; and Robert A. Dorsey among the Irregular and Scientific.

Philadelphia City and County.

The locus of the 4th District nominated C. J. Iveson for Congress. The vote stood, for Iveson 45, J. S. Jones 3.

In the 3d District, John T. Smith was nominated, the vote standing, Smith 32, Charles Brown (tinder box!) 5, James Goodman 4, Daniel T. Miller 3.

In the 1st Congressional District Thos. McCarty was nominated by a vote, as we learn of 38 to 7.

Full Ticket--Duty of our Party--Partial split in the Locofoco Ranks.

We are enabled this week to present a full Ticket to the Democratic Harrison voters of Huntingdon county, from Canal Commissioners down to County Auditor. It is a ticket against which the voice of objection has not, and cannot, be raised.

The candidates for Canal Commissioners, are all three of them, gentlemen of sterling worth and unimpeachable integrity, who can well stand the Jeffersonian test as to honesty and capability. They are opposed to Locofocism in all its phases, and hold firmly the political principles of the party that nominated them--though they are men who are not very extensively known in the political world, never having practiced the fashionable iniquities of the day, which give some men notoriety. These men must certainly be elected over their Locofoco opponents, every one of whom has been or is now in some way connected with the present corrupt State or National Administration, and has his hands stained with their mal-practices.

The nominee for Congress is too well known to the people of his district to require commendation from the hands of any one. His course, in the late Congress, on the Tariff question alone, is sufficient to secure his re-election by an increased majority over his present opponent who is accountable not only for the sin of Porterism, but is also an out-and-out Locofoco, and consequently bound to go for a repeal of the Tariff act--that sheet anchor of the hopes and prosperity of the laboring classes of our country.

The remainder of the Ticket consists of gentlemen well known to most of the citizens of this county. They are all men whose characters for honesty and capability will bear the strictest scrutiny, and into whose hands the interests of our country may be placed with the utmost safety.

Our opponents are divided on part of their candidates, and the different factions manifest a considerable degree of animosity against each other, although one faction is entitled to as much honesty and has as much principle as the other, and not a jot or tittle more. This is a "family quarrel" with which we have nothing to do. Whigs and Antimasons may look on and will, no doubt, look on, with the same feeling that the "Hoosier" woman did when her husband and the bear were fighting; but no one ought to take part with either faction. It is a fight in which the one faction is contending for the keeping, and the other for the getting, of the "spoils." "HANDS OFF!" therefore seems to be a discreet dictate, and one which every sound Whig or Antimason will practice on at the approaching election.

EDWARD BELL, Esq., is on both Locofoco tickets for Assembly, and Capt. JOHN STEWART on both for County Commissioner for three years. There is, no doubt, design in this; and it is easily seen that if Whigs or Antimasons vote for these gentlemen, on either ticket, they may be elected. Locofocos are fond of office, and they know that "half a loaf is better than no bread." Their party may be united on their candidate for Congress and on their candidates for Canal Commissioners. It will therefore be a full ticket--the whole ticket--and nothing but the ticket.

Shirleysburg.

It is with pleasure that we notice that the borough of Shirleysburg is on the march of improvement. Several brick dwelling houses and other buildings are under way of erection this season, and the place exhibits quite a business appearance.

The town is beautifully located, and the surrounding country is good and rapidly improving.

We have had occasion to stop there several times, the present year, and it is but an act of justice to "mine host and hostess" of the "Exchange"--Mr. McHENRY and his lady--to say that they afford as good and comfortable accommodations at their Temperance Inn, as can be met with in the country, the "crack" hotels of Hollidaysburg and Huntingdon not excepted.

Mr. Fraker, who keeps the other public house, likewise administered on temperance principles, is also well spoken of by those who have given him their patronage.

The fruits of the temperance reformation, and the more recent revival of religion are plainly perceptible, and we hope they may advance with the pace.

Our Congressional Nomination.

Gen. JAMES IRVIN, of Centre county, our able and efficient representative in the late Congress, was, on Tuesday of last week, again nominated by the conferees from the several counties in the district. We publish the proceeding of the Conference Meeting in another column.

The many course of Gen. Irvin during the late Congress received the universal approbation of the Whigs of his district, and throughout the country. He proved a firm and zealous advocate of the Tariff as well as of all the other leading measures of the Whig party, and thus gained for himself the increased confidence of his constituents. Let the Whigs and Antimasons of Huntingdon, Centre, Mifflin and Juniata but do their duty faithfully, and General Irvin will be triumphantly elected over any Locofoco Anti-Tariff candidate that may be in the field against him. Whigs, Antimasons, and all friends of the Tariff act! be up and doing on the 2nd Tuesday in October!! Your duty to yourselves and to your country requires your exertions!!!

Locofoco Nominations for Canal Commissioners.

The Locofoco State Convention assembled at Harrisburg on the 5th inst., and made the following nomination for Canal Commissioners:--

JAMES CLARKE, of Indiana,

JESSE MILLER, of Perry,

WM. B. FOSTER, Jr., of Bradford.

These men, being of the same political "strips" as the present corrupt Board, must be beaten.

Robbers About--Case of Burglary--Arrest &c.

On Monday last our town was thrown into an unusual state of excitement on account of sundry robberies which had been committed here.

Early in the morning, about 2 o'clock, the family of WILLIAM ORHISON, Esq., heard a person in their house, when Mr. O. arose from his bed and went down stairs. On coming down he discovered the back door open, which he at once shut. About this time he was struck at by the robber--the blow being aimed at his head, in the dark, missed its aim and the arm of the assailant struck the shoulder of the old gentleman. Mr. Orhison who had nothing to defend himself with, now called loudly, "Boys! Come on boys, I've got him!" and Mrs. Orhison, who was yet up stairs, replied "I'm coming with the pistol--here it is!" or something to that effect. There were neither boys nor pistol in the house, yet the call and reply had the desired effect--the robber who was shut in, showed no more fight, but sprang to another room, jumped on a window, kicked over the eash--jumped into the street, and ran towards Wallace's Tavern as fast as his legs would take him. He had entered the house at a back window--took with him an axe from the wood shed, and opened a desk into which he set his light while he was rummaging it for plunder. He got but two or three dollars--specie--before he was driven from the house.

Early on Monday morning a stranger who gave his name as H. B. Orr, was arrested, in bed, at Wallace's, where he had stopped for a few days. He was introduced to Justice Africa, who, upon hearing, committed him to prison to await his trial.

Another robbery was committed the same night, in the house of JAMES STEEL, Esq. The robber entered the house by a window--went up stairs into the room in which Mr. Jacobs, Maj. Steel's clerk was sleeping, and took his watch and about $15 in money from the pockets of his clothes. The young man heard the pantaloons drop on the floor--raised himself up in the bed--but thinking the little dog belonging to the house had got into the room and made the noise which awakened him, he laid down again and went to sleep. In the morning he found his pantaloons in another room.

On the previous night, (Saturday) Jackson's tavern was entered by some person, through a window, and robbed of a gold watch, with a gold chain and key, four finger-rings, two breast-pins, a neck-lace, a pair of gold ear-rings, and a few dollars in money--the property of Miss Jackson, and also a pair of gold spectacles with blue glasses, belonging to Mrs. Jackson, in all amounting to about $200 worth.

The public house of Mrs. McConnell was also entered on Saturday night, but the robber found nothing to suit him and left the house without even disturbing the slumbers of its inmates. In the morning a profusion of burnt and broken matches were found scattered on the floor of one of the rooms. Suspicion rests upon the stranger, Orr, as the person who perpetrated all these robberies. If Orr is the robber he probably has one or more accomplices, although he has not been seen with any person or persons who would have been discovered. This case is of great interest, and a reward of $20 is offered for the thief who is taken with the stolen goods.

Nominations for Canal Commissioners.

The Democratic Harrison State Convention assembled at Harrisburg on Wednesday last, for the purpose of nominating candidates for Canal Commissioners. Mr. Middlewarth, of Union county, presided, assisted by six Vice Presidents and four Secretaries. WILLIAM TWEED and BENJAMIN WEAVER were nominated on first ballot--the former receiving 60 and the latter 39 votes; and SIMON GUILFORD on the fourth ballot--he receiving 48 votes. The Convention then, on motion, Resolved, That WILLIAM TWEED, BENJAMIN WEAVER, and SIMON GUILFORD, are declared unanimously nominated for the office of Canal Commissioners, by this Convention.

Locofoco NOMINATION FOR CONGRESS.--The Locofocos of this district have nominated Gen. GEORGE McCULLOUGH, of Centre county, for Congress.

The recent Locofoco Convention in Somerset county, denounced the late Bankrupt Law as a most atrocious measure of Whig rascality. It happens that one of the Committee which reported this resolution and several of the Delegates who had adopted it had themselves taken the benefit of this very law.

Mifflin County.

The Whigs of Mifflin county have nominated the following ticket:

For Congress--JAMES IRVIN, of Centre county.

Assembly--WILLIAM CUMMINS of Brown tp. Commissioner--Elijah Morrison, of Wayne tp. Treasurer--David McClure, of the Borough of Lewistown.

Auditor--James Thompson, of Arnaugh tp.

Juniata County.

The Whigs of Juniata county have nominated the following ticket:

Assembly--John Adams. Sheriff--Col. William Bell. Commissioner--Robert Silverthorn.

NATHAN SARGENT, Esq., is nominated as the Democratic Whig candidate for Congress in the Third Congressional District, consisting of the Northern Liberties and Spring Garden, Phil'a.

Shinpieters.

At the late Court of Quarter Sessions of Cumberland county, the Grand Jury, under the instruction of the Court, made a presentation of the Town Council of the Borough of Carlisle, for 1842, the Council for 1843, and Martin Neily, of Mechanicsburg, for issuing small notes in violation of the Act of Assembly of June, 1842. They also presented J. Ellis Bonham, and others who signed the notes. It appears to have excited considerable feeling at Carlisle. This movement will most probably have the effect of driving this currency out of circulation.

WHIG CONGRESSIONAL CONFEREE MEETING.

The Whig Congressional Conferees, appointed by the different counties composing the 17th Congressional District, met at Brown's Mills, Mifflin county, on Tuesday the 5th of September, for the purpose of nominating a suitable person to be voted for at the approaching election, to represent said district in the next Congress.

The convention was organized by the election of ROBERT CAMPBELL, Esq. of Huntingdon county, as President, and Col. GEORGE BUCHANAN, of Centre county, Secretary.

The following named gentlemen appeared, produced their credentials and were admitted. Huntingdon county--Robert Campbell, A. K. Cornyn, and David Blair, Esqrs.

Centre county--Col. George Buchanan, Samuel Patton and James T. Hale, Esq.

Mifflin county--Col. William Butler and Ralph Bogle, Esq.

Juniata county--Thos. Kinsloe and John Dobbs. James T. Hale, Esq. nominated Gen. Jas. Irvin. David Blair, " Jno. G. Miles.

Rob't Campbell, " Jno. Blanchard. William Butler, " Shem Zoak, Thos. Kinsloe, " James Mathers.

The convention proceeded to balloting, and on the fourth ballot, General James Irvin having a majority of all the votes, was declared to be duly nominated.

On motion of A. K. Cornyn. Resolved, That we unanimously recommend General James Irvin, to the Whigs of the 17th Congressional district, and that we will use all honorable means to ensure his election.

Resolved, That we are the friends of a Protective Tariff, for the encouragement of home industry--the full development of our vast natural resources--the prosperity and happiness of our people, and the promotion of our entire independence as a nation.

Resolved, That we are in favor of a distribution of the Proceeds of the Public Lands among the States; believing the same to be called for, by every consideration of right, expediency, and public justice.

Resolved, That we are in favor of the nomination of HENRY CLAY, for the Presidency, as the candidate of that portion of the American people, who believe, with us, that the public good requires a Protective Tariff--a distribution of the proceeds of the Public Lands among the States--a sound National Currency, sufficient in quantity to accommodate the business and wants of the country--a strict accountability of public officers and an economical administration of the government.

Resolved, That Gen. S. Miles Green be appointed a delegate to represent this district in the convention to be held at Baltimore in May next, to nominate candidates for President and Vice President.

Resolved, That the conferees composing this convention be appointed a committee to prepare an address to the Whigs of the respective counties pleading election, and the necessity which exists for increased exertion, and untiring zeal in the promotion of Whig principles.

Resolved, That the proceedings of this convention be published in the Mifflin County Gazette, Huntingdon Journal, Hollidaysburg Register, and Democratic Whig.

ROBERT CAMPBELL, President. GEO. BUCHANAN, Secretary.

REBECCA AND HER DAUGHTERS.--A correspondent, who perhaps has not paid much attention to the current foreign intelligence, (says the Baltimore Sun) desires to know, who are "Rebecca and her daughters," mentioned in connexion with the disturbance in Wales. "Rebecca" is a name, appropriated to a stalwart farmer, who is unknown to the authorities, and the "daughters" are his associates. They commit their depredations disguised, usually in female apparel. They have a secret organization, and are only known to each other. In Wales it appears that on roads turnpike gates have been erected a very few miles apart, at which enormous tolls are charged. To this the farmers object, and under cover of night, they meet and destroy the gates, in the hope by this means to compel the exactors of the tolls to remove the obnoxious gates entirely. This is the extent of their depredations.

A SINGING MOUSE.--A very remarkable little animal, a mouse, having the surpassing ability of warbling notes which very closely resemble those of a lark, has lately been exhibited in London. The animal also imitates various other birds with ease and fluency. It was recently caught, and has become quite tame, and sings very frequently.

FIRST DEMAND ON ENGLAND UNDER THE ASSURANCE TREATY.--Benjamin Hays, in company with Oliver M. Lownds, Esq. was employed by Jacob Little & Co. of New York, sometime ago, to proceed to England, and under the late treaty arrest a man named John Clinton alias John Reed, who is charged with having committed a series of forgeries, to a large amount, upon Messrs. Little & Co. The have had Clinton arrested and committed until further evidence of identity &c. can be procured from New York.

ANOTHER WARNING.--The Westmoreland Intelligence of the 1st inst. says:--Mr. Lemon Davis, of Mountpleasant township, was suddenly killed on Saturday (26th ult.) by a fall from his horse. The particulars of this unfortunate circumstance, so far as we could ascertain are these:--The deceased, in company with another individual, a Mr. Campbell, were on their way home from Ligonier; and being somewhat excited, they proposed racing their horses. Sometime after they had started, the horse which Davis rode, ran off through a wood; Davis when found, was lying on the ground unable to speak, having a severe bruise from the side of the neck down to his thigh. It is supposed that the horse, from the appearance of the saddle, which was covered with dust, must have fallen and rolled over the body of the unfortunate Davis. He breathed his last about 10 o'clock that evening.
