ARE YOU ASSESSED?

Harrison Democrats, if you wish to vote at the next election, you must be assessed

10 days before the day of election. SATURDAY THE 30th OF SEPTEMBER. Remember this, and attend to it in time.

Declination of Mr. Dorland.

ISAAC DORLAND, who was nominated for Treasurer by the Porter branch of the Locofoco party, has declined the honor of being a candidate. In a note to the publishers of the Hollidaysburg Beacon Light, under date of the 5th September, Mr. Dorland says "I, perhaps, ought to be under obligations to those who brought about the arrangement; but as I have already experienced the bad effects of being considered a partisan candidate, I must decline the honor intended, and request you to withdraw my name. Should I ever appear before the public as a candidate for any office, it shall be on my own footing."

"Knocked Under."

The Beacon Light has at last knocked under to the Standard and Anti-Porterites, and hoisted the regularly nominated Democratic (late Working-men) Ticket, headed by Thomas P. Campbell and Edward Bell, Esquires. The Porter Ticket, headed by William McKnight and Edward Bell must, therefore, depend solely on the office-holders—who are not quite as numerous as their brethren, the office-seekers—for support.

Vermont Election.

"That Same Old Coon" is still alive in Vermont. The election for Governor is over, and the "Green Mountain Boys" have again covered themselves with glory. The returns in 140 towns, as far as heard from, give Matlocks (Whig) nearly 4000 majority over Kellogg, (Locofoco).

1st Congressional District.

EDWARD JOY MORRIS, Esq., has been nominated for Congress by the Whigs of the 1st District, composed of Southwark, Moyamensing, and Passyunk, and Cedar Ward and New Market Ward, of the city of Philadelphia.

Cumberland County.

The Whigs of Cumberland met in County Convention, last week, and resolved not to nominate any candidates for the present contest.

Judge Black, a Porterite, of Perry county, and Judge Miller, an Anti-Porterite, of Cumberland, are the candidates for Congress. The Whigs will vote for the latter who is and always has been a Tariff man.

Freshet.

The continued heavy rains which had been falling for a week or ten days past, raised the Juniata river to an unusual height on Friday and Saturday last.

It is said the Raystown Branch has not been so high since 1810.

A breach in the Canal, of perhaps 150 feet, occurred two or three miles below this place.

The Stages and Packets were delayed, the water being up over the turnpike in Jack's Narrows.

We are informed that considerable damage has been suffered on the Raystown Branch of the Juniata.

Election of Canal Commissioners--

The People want a Change.

After all the fighting and wrangling that was carried on between the Porter and the Anti-Porter factions of the Locofocos--"Lumbermen," "Kick-apoos," "Winnebagoes" and all--they have at length partially buried the tomahawk and scalping knife and are now smoking the calumet of peace, in order to make a death fight against the "universal Whig party" on the second Tuesday in October. Having met in State Convention, and nominated a ticket for Canal Commissioners, composed of men who have all been tried and proved expert plunderers, they have dropped the quarrel and fight among themselves for the present, and united upon the nominees, satisfied that if elected, the same system of plunder which has been carried on by the present Board and which has sunk them deeply in the estimation of all honest men, will be continued. The office holders and office seekers have combined to perpetuate this system of plunder. But the people, the honest and untrammelled of all parties, are determined that there shall be a change--that the revenue raised on our rail roads and canals shall no longer be squandered among office holders and favorites of the "Royal Family," but shall be applied to the payment of the debts of poor, bleeding, tax-ridden Pennsylvania.

The following plain and truthful statement from the Pennsylvania Intelligencer, shows the great necessity of the change for which the people are contending.

$360,595 98!

Is the amount of EXPENDITURES OVER RECEIPTS on the finished lines of the Public works of Pennsylvania in 1839--40, when JAMES CLARK, of Indiana, was President of the Board of Canal Commissioners! whilst the year before, under an honest administration of the public affairs, the same Public works yielded a REVENUE to the State, over and above all expenses, of $354,180 17 1/2!

The difference of expenditures between these two years, was thus $711,351 48 1/2!! Here was the enormous sum of upwards of SEVEN HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS lost to the State in a single year, by the mismanagement of the public officers, or by the outrageous system of WHOLESALE PLUNDER practiced by those officers on the Public works. This sum properly appropriated, would have been sufficient to have paid nearly the half of the interest of the Public Debt, and relieved the people of one year's taxation. It cannot be pretended for a moment that this enormous expenditure was necessary to carry on the works. It is clear that the money was squandered upon political favorites as a reward for partisan services.

Now the question is an interesting one to the people of Pennsylvania at this time--under whose name is now the Locofoco candidate for the same office, was then the PRESIDENT OF THE BOARD OF CANAL COMMISSIONERS!

What confidence can the people have in the ability or integrity of a public officer under whose administration the public works such astounding corruption and plunder was permitted? Will they--can they reinstate him in the same office, to revive perhaps, the same system again, at a time when the Commonwealth is bleeding at every pore, and when every dollar of public revenue ought to be carefully husbanded and appropriated to the payment of the interest due to the innocent and suffering holders of her State bonds, her Domestic creditors, and the poor, but honest laborers who have toiled in her service, and have been cheated by her dishonest agents? We greatly mistake the feelings and temper of the people of Pennsylvania on this subject, if they do. They want a change in the management of affairs on the Public Improvements--A THOROUGH AND RADICAL CHANGE. For this purpose they have taken the appointment of the Commissioners from the Governor, and resolved to take it into their own hands. The Locofoco party, however, say, to the people now--"the old officers are good enough--they know best how to manage the Improvements FOR THE GOOD OF THE PARTY, and you must elect such men. CLARK and FOSTER have both had experience on the public works, and they always managed things admirably FOR THE PARTY!"

But will the people submit to this party dictation? No! The election of Clark and Foster would defeat the very object they had in view in making the Commissioners elective. They desired by that act to take the management of the Improvements out of the hands of the old officers, and place them in the hands of NEW MEN--men who are entirely disconnected from the rotten, crumbling administration of David R. Porter. This they can accomplish by voting for the men placed on the Democratic Whig Ticket. Elect TWEED, GUILFORD and WEAVER, and you will have a Board of Commissioners composed of NEW MEN--CAPABLE AND HONEST MEN--who will conduct the business entrusted to their hands FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE STATE, and not solely for the benefit of a party.

YORK COUNTY.

The Locofocos of York county have nominated the following Ticket: Congress--Dr. Alexander Small. Senator--Adam Ebaugh. Assembly--W. S. Picking, Samuel N. Bailey, Stephen McKinley. Commissioner--Thomas Kerr. Treasurer--John M'Curdy. Director--Peter Peters. Auditor--Jacob F. Crone. The Whigs will make no nominations, but will probably cast their votes for Dr. HENRY NESS, a volunteer candidate for Congress.

Pilgrim Presidents and Travelling Cabinets--Most of the members of Tyler's Cabinet are absent from the seat of Government.

Pretended Robbery.

The Baltimore papers on Wednesday the 6th inst., contained an account of an extensive robbery said to have been committed in Frederick city on Monday previous. It appears that Mr. EDWARD ISA, a Broker of Baltimore, was entrusted by several Banks and individuals with a large amount of money to be taken to Frederick and Hagerstown. He arrived at Frederick on Monday evening, stopped at Zimmerman's Hotel, took his supper and retired to bed; and in the morning reported that he had been robbed. Search was immediately made, and a reward offered for the recovery of the money, but nothing heard of it, and ISA proceeded back to Baltimore.

On his return to Baltimore he was examined by several officers, and so closely questioned that he equivocated and contradicted himself, and finally was compelled to acknowledge that he himself was the robber. The money in question,--consisting of five packages of Frederick and Washington county Bank paper belonging to the Merchants' Bank, the Mechanics' Bank, and to Messrs. Johnson & Lee, comprising an aggregate of between $17,000 and $18,000,--was all recovered, not having been taken out of Baltimore. ISA was suffered to depart unmolested, and, it is thought, is now on his way to Texas, or some other congenial port.

More of the Robberies--Restitution--Arrest, &c.

On Friday morning last, the watch, jewels and spectacles stolen from Jackson's the preceding Saturday night, together with the watch stolen from Steel's the previous Sunday night, were found in the entry of Jackson's house, carefully wrapped in a newspaper. It is supposed they were placed there on Thursday night before the house was closed.

On Saturday afternoon the money stolen from Mr. Jacobs was dropped into the post-office, in a letter addressed "to the man who lost the money in the white house near Jackson's."

A young man, rather genteelly dressed, who had been loitering about town for several days, was on Sunday, arrested as a vagrant, and after examination before Daniel Africa, Esq., he was committed to prison. He gave his name as H. B. Howard. The same night two Constables started in pursuit of a Dutchman, passing under the name of NAMAN, who arrived in town on Saturday night and took lodging at one of our hotels, where he delivered his pocket book to the bar-keeper for safe keeping. The pocket book was apparently well filled; but on opening it at the request and in the presence of some of our citizens, it was found to contain a handkerchief carefully folded up, but nothing else! The officers, however, were not able to find him after he took to his heels.

These two persons and the one committed to jail on Monday of last week, it is ascertained, came to Hollidaysburg together, and remained there some days. They came to this place one by one, a few days apart, and were all taken up by the police from Huntingdon, where they were first taken up for them.

GEN. M'COLLOCH'S NOMINATION.

It will be seen by some articles copied into this paper, that the Locofoco nomination for Congress does not go down well with some of the party. There is trouble in the wigwag.

We have copied a letter and an editorial article from the Democratic Standard, which seem to scalp the "Ingin" fairly, and we have an article from the Juniata Spirit of the Times which applies the torch to him, but we must reserve that for next week, giving for the present only this brief extract.

"If such is the man that has been gratuitously presented to us by men professing political friendship, and in the face of our remonstrances, we know of no principle of justice requiring submission in the people of Juniata county, nor can we see that our equal rights will be in any worse condition than they have been by being suffered to drop into the hands of our political opponents. In the state of an enemy there is less poignance than when inflicted by a friend, notwithstanding the fatal consequences may be the same. We shall therefore be disappointed if the democratic citizens of Juniata will not seek that redress from opposition which they have hitherto expected at the hands of their political friends as their equitable rights."

The Locofoco Congressional Conference of this county, appointed on the 29th of August, have published, in the Lewistown Republican, an Address to the "Democracy" of this district, in which they set forth their grievances in being excluded from the Conference at Lewistown. The address embodies a letter from Gen. A. P. Wilson, dated 5th inst., declining a nomination for Congress.

William Tweed, Esq.

The Sunbury American in a brief notice of the Whig nominations for Canal Commissioners says: "Mr. TWEED of this County, is well known as an honest and able man."

This is the testimony of an enemy, from the home of Mr. Tweed, where he is best known. The same may be said of Messrs. Guilford and Weaver, in their respective homes. These are the kind of men--honest and able--that the people of Pennsylvania want for their Canal Commissioners.

More Locofoco Trouble.

The Porter and Anti-Porter divisions of the Locofoco party in Cumberland, Perry and Franklin, have now two candidates in the field. Judge BLACK of Perry, a Porter man, succeeded in getting the regular nomination, and the Anties have brought out Gen. THO. C. MILLER as their candidate.

The Carlisle Statesman, referring to the nomination of Judge Black, says: "The people here look upon the nomination of a Porter man as a great outrage committed upon them by the Kick-apoo chiefs of this county and Perry, and they will speak out in such a way at the polls in favor of Gen. Miller as to convince these dictators that Kick-apoo trickery will no longer be submitted to in silence."

A Dancing Master recently in his card offered "his most respectable thanks" to all who had honored him with their patronage.

Unparalleled Speed!!!!!!

The Philadelphia Forum says--We have heard of the ten leagued boots of Jack the Giant Killer, of Northern men with Southern principles, and of John C. Calhoun's political somersets, but we never could conceive of such a perfect change, annihilating both time and distance as was exhibited by the locos at the Canal Convention on Tuesday. After Mr. Clarke and Jesse Miller, had been nominated, the great struggle to choke off the Cameron influence resulted in the choice of Mr. Foster of Allegheny. Thus all three members were from the west of Susquehanna, the claims of the North having been entirely thrust aside. Mr. Foster of Allegheny was announced as elected, but some time after, there appeared an extra containing the official proceedings, in which he was designated as Mr. Foster of Bradford!

This was speed indeed--for Mr. Foster was a resident of Pittsburg at 5 o'clock P. M. but before dark he had travelled some 250 miles to Bradford county, where he had not been before, even on a visit, for 18 months--had taken bag and baggage, pitched his tent and became a regular bona fide resident of Bradford county--all for the sake of having a nomination "hail" from the North for one of the Canal Board Candidates.

And they hope to gull the people by this trick--the Western locofocos, who for years have subsisted on the plunder of our public works, hope to have all three Commissioners in their interest, that they may go on robbing the State, and tax payers yet a little longer.

Pennsylvanians! look to this shallow artifice! Look that you perpetuate not the plunder system by casting your votes for these men.

The Locofoco candidates for Canal Commissioners are all from the Western or Northern part of the State--Clark from Indiana--Miller from Perry--and Foster from Bradford. This it is understood was an agreement in the party, that the Governor should be from the East. In this way are the people sold, by truckling politicians. It remains to be seen, whether the people of the party, in the east, will consent to be deprived of any representation in the canal board through this bargaining--Reading Journal.

Our friend of the Journal is in error. The Locofoco Candidates are all from the West! Foster hails from Allegheny, though his friends represent that it is his intention to remove to Bradford. If the Convention desired to pay any respect to the claims of the North for a candidate, why not take a candidate from that district who has resided in it at least long enough to become acquainted with its interests and its wants, and not bring a man into it from a distant part of the Commonwealth, regardless of the claims of Northern men. No, this did not suit the purposes of the party. They must have candidates who can be moulded into whatever shape the leaders of the party desire. The gentlemen named as candidates from the North and East, to be used after they are elected.

If Mr. Foster is defeated, which is highly probable, he will remain a resident of Allegheny county. --Harrisburg Intelligencer.

Wyoming Monument.

The Wilkesbarre Advocate says--"This Memorial of the brave men who fell in defence of their country is on the eve of completion. Six weeks hence, and the many who have been anxiously waiting to witness the evidence which liberality has consecrated to patriot valour, will be gratified by seeing the Cap stone upon the Wyoming Monument. The shaft is now some forty feet in height--the stone for all of it cut and ready to be placed, and the work going on swiftly and surely. A hearty good speed to all engaged, and for the thousandth time a thousand thanks to the Ladies, whose perseverance is so nearly being rewarded."

Remarkable Suicide.

On Tuesday, the 12th inst., as the train of cars from Harrisburg were passing on the Columbia Railroad about four miles above the Inclined plane, one of the passengers who had left the car and ran for a short distance along side the train, threw himself under the wheels and was instantly crushed to death. His name was ascertained to be Charles Ate about 43 years of age, on his way from Mercer county to Philadelphia, and who some time since worked as a miller in or near Norristown. A son of his, 14 years of age, was with him, who states that during the morning his father expressed to him a desire to kill himself. An inquest was held by the Coroner. Verdict, suicide.

CLERICAL EDITORS.--We sometimes give specimens from Parson Brownlow, of the Tennessee Whig. The parson carries a bible and psalm book in one pocket, a brace of hair trigger pistols in the other, and a large cane in his right hand. His reasons are given: "We are not among those who believe that because a man happens to be a Preacher, or a professor of Christianity, he is to be insulted, spit upon or knocked down by every upstart, or villain with whom he may chance to meet. When this is attempted it is time for good men to practice the logic of the Hudibrastic discipline of the Church militant, who

"Proved his doctrine orthodox, By apostolic blows and knocks."

Philadelphia County.

The Whig Conference for the county of Philadelphia made the following nominations: SENATOR. William Wagner, Germantown. ASSEMBLY. John D. Harly, P. B. Savery, Southwark. William Penn Feeny, Moyamensing. Jacob Steiner, William McFerran, Northern Liberties. William Curry, John B. Barras, Spring Garden. Charles Kurlbaum, Kensington. CONGRESS--FOURTH DISTRICT. William Connard. Michael Day, Esq., was appointed the Delegate to represent the District in the National Convention to assemble at Baltimore. Men are never so easily deceived as when they are plotting to deceive others.
