APPRENTICE WANTED.
An Apprentice to the Printing Business is wanted at this office. A boy 14 or 15 years of age will find a good situation, if application is made soon to the EDITOR.

Full tickets are now ready for our friends in the country. It is hoped that every voter will provide himself with tickets of the "right stripe." Whether wet or dry—sunshine or rain, let every Whig, every Antislavery, every friend of the Tariff, and every lover of law and order, walk to the polls manfully on the 10th of October, and vote the whole ticket at the head of this paper, and he shall have "glory enough for one day."

NEWS FROM THE YOUNG FORGER.—One of the $1000 notes paid to young Saunders (the person who forged the name of Austin, Thilmering & Co.) was received in Wall street on Thursday morning from Albany. It seems, therefore, that he went north, and he had time to cross over the Great Western Rail Road, and reach the Britannia steamer at Boston, for England.

MURDER OF A FATHER BY HIS SON.—The Mayville Eagle gives an account of a son killing his father in a quarrel, with an axe. The unfortunate father lingered a day and expired. The son has been apprehended. Their names were Barrett.

Gen. James Irvin.
Our late able representative in Congress has been nominated for re-election; and most heartily do we enlist in the contest in his behalf. He has been tried, and found "honest and capable," and therefore we feel the more desirous to see him again elected. In all his official capacity he conducted himself as a true republican, and we are proud to say he gained for himself a standing and a reputation among his fellow members, for honesty and integrity, for industry and ability, far above that acquired by most men in the same space of time. His able speeches on the Tariff question have been quoted and favorably spoken of in every section of the country. They were not political harangues, made "for Buncombe," but they were clear, comprehensive, forcible arguments in support of Protection to American Industry. His old friends—those who carried him so successfully through the campaign of 1840, will rejoice at having another opportunity of giving a long pull, a strong pull, and a pull altogether for him, in 1843. Old Huntingdon, with a full turn out and a well canvassed campaign, can give him

13000 Majority.
Hon. Register.

General JAMES IRVIN of Centre county, the late able and efficient representative in Congress from this district, was on Tuesday last nominated by the conference for re-election. General Irvin's course in Congress receives the universal approbation of the whigs of this district, and his election by an increased majority, over any opponent the locofocos can put in the field against him, is certain.—Mifflin County Gazette.

Lewistown Convention.

We have not been as yet furnished with the proceedings of this Convention, further than that on the 23d ballot, Gen. Grover McCulloch, received a majority of the votes of the delegates. That this was altogether unexpected by us we must confess— that Gen. McCulloch should have permitted his name to be used at this particular time, for the purpose of defeating the democratic nomination, we regret. We are aware that no man, who remained identified with Governor Porter's Canal Commissioners can be elected, much less one who stands in so unenviable a position in connection with a certain William Overfield, one of Gov. Porter's Canal Commissioners, together with his support of this corrupt administration, and his opposition to giving the election of Canal Commissioners to the people, &c. That Gen. McCulloch had a fast hold on the democracy of this district, we are aware—that his friends were charged at his unfortunate election to Governor Porter's administration, in opposition to his own freely expressed opinion we must admit, but that he should permit his name to be used at this time to the further injury of his former democratic friends, we supposed improbable. But it is even so, and he is now again before you, not to receive your votes as a mark of your confidence, but to receive from your hands his sentence of condemnation.

It grieves us to look down into the political "grave yard" upon the many who have died for want of honest principles, and had hoped to be spared this unpleasant visit, but his friends have dragged him to his tomb, and memory supplies food for recollection. That his nomination was effected only after a severe contest is quite evident, and that his name was studiously withheld prior to the meeting of the convention, and only brought forward when the delegates had become excited and divided. That this nomination is not such an one as will receive the support of the democracy of the district we feel assured, and consequently we have refused to place his name amongst the list of democratic nominations. We are aware that some designing and dishonest men may charge us with opposition to our party, (in this particular.) We can bear such denunciations, until the people themselves have disposed of this charge, on the 21d of October, at which time they will refuse to ratify the nomination effected by intrigue, and wanting in the first principles of democracy, a respect for public opinion.

A letter in the New York Tribune, dated at Keokuk, Iowa Territory, Aug. 27th, states that during this Spring and Summer, the Mormons had had great additions principally from England, symptoms of disloyalty to Joe Smith, are already becoming apparent, and there are many who do not hesitate openly to manifest it.

Lewistown Convention.

Extract of a letter to the Editor, dated Lewistown, Sept. 9, 1843.

Dear Sir—The Congressional Conference, appointed by the democrats in the different counties, composing the 17th Congressional district, met at this place yesterday. Two sets of delegates appeared, claiming seats from your county, said to be Porter and anti-Porter. The delegates professing to be friendly to the Governor were however, by a vote of the convention excluded, and the (professionally) anti-Porter men admitted. The result of their deliberations has satisfied every person here, that the delegates admitted are as much the friends of Porter as those rejected. On the Convention proceeding to balloting, it was discovered from the tenacity and obstinacy displayed by the Junata conferees in adhering to their man, that there would be some difficulty in making a nomination. They no doubt being old shrewd politicians were not long in discovering that there were Ingins about, and determined to give them no advantage over them. Gemmill, Gustine, McCulloch and Smyth, were balloted for until about nine o'clock at night, without any likelihood of being able to nominate—the vote standing generally, Gemmill 5, Gustine 4, Smyth 2, McCulloch 2. About 10 o'clock, two of the Centre county men dropped Smyth and voted for Gemmill, which gave him 7 votes—a majority of the whole number, consequently he was fairly nominated. A motion was made to adjourn, and lost. Gemmill's nomination was announced in the street by one of the delegates, and appeared to be well received by the democrats, excepting General McCulloch himself, who had been on the ground in person for three or four days, and a few faithful Kickapoo. The people retired to rest, and were surprised in the morning with the intelligence that Gen. McCulloch had been nominated. It appears that by some locus poecus management, a motion to reconsider Gemmill's nomination was carried, and after talking Ingins until 2 o'clock of Saturday morning, McCulloch was nominated. I have been told by a gentleman who derived his information from one of the delegates, that Gemmill was nominated once or twice, subsequently to his first nomination. It was always decided an unfair toss (though) when he came up. Huntingdon and Centre will see the propriety of sending delegates to our place in future of incorruptible integrity and unflinching honesty, if they have any desire to have their wishes and instructions so emphatically expressed, regarded or obeyed. The Junata men proved that they had nerve enough for the emergency. Neither threats nor promises had any influence with them, and their unyielding firmness in the Convention invoked the anathemas of the Kickapoo, who were impatiently awaiting the result outside. You may rely on the above as authentic in every particular—indeed, it falls far short of a full account of this unparalleled outrage upon the people. A calm looker on, however, could expect nothing else. Major Reynolds was here the day before they met, and matters were put in a fair trial. Whether he left any lumber at our place or not, I cannot say—matters appear suspicious, always when moccasin tracks are discovered in these diggings.

Yours, respectfully, &c.
From the Baltimore American.

Dreadful Railroad Accident.

We regret to be compelled to record the occurrence of a very disastrous accident yesterday on the Susquehanna Railroad. When the first train from Baltimore, which left at 7 A.M., with a large party of Dealers, Military and Citizens on their way to the celebration at York, had reached a point about eight miles from York, the front axle-tree of the first passenger car broke, throwing the car and the two following it off the track, and entirely destroyed. The cars being covered with people, a scene of confusion and dismay ensued which may be readily conceived.

A number of persons who were imprudently standing on the platform in front of the cars were thrown off, some of them being caught between the cars, and others forced under them. Many, we are happy to say, escaped unhurt, but the following persons were found to have been more or less injured:

Michael Grubb, member of the Junior Artillerists, a leg broken.
Samuel Child, conconmaker, his left thigh broken, and so badly bruised that he is not expected to survive.

David Pugh, agent for the Gas Company, both thighs broken.
Peter McKaid, employed on the railroad had both legs broken.

Thomas Wilson, a young lad, had his left knee fractured, and was otherwise much bruised.
Ephraim Collet, a man who resides about 25 miles from Baltimore, hurt, not seriously.

John Guver, Junior Artillerist, much bruised.
David Lefever, Junior Artillerist, severely bruised.
William Allen, Sergeant of Junior Artillerists much bruised.

John Cooper, a resident of Fell's Point, and a member of the association of Defenders, very severely bruised and lacerated. He was taken from under the car where he remained for nearly thirty minutes, although every effort was made to release him.

Christian Meyer, a member of the German Yagers, slightly injured.

All the persons injured were on the platform. As soon as the wounded persons could be got out, medical assistance was instantly rendered to them by Doctors Dunbar, Miller, Martin, Maguire, Hall and Ringgold, as, soon as he could reach the spot by Dr. McClellan of York.

The wounded persons were soon after conveyed to York, and thence taken to the Hospital, where they were well provided for. At five o'clock their wounds were dressed, and they all seemed to be as comfortable as their condition would admit of.

The Susquehanna Rail Road Company have liberally tendered a free passage to York this morning to the families and friends of the injured persons.

MARRIED.
In Gaysport, on the 5th inst., by D. Tate, Esq., Mr. JOHN M. SMITH, of Bedford county, to Miss ELIZABETH MICHAELS, of Blair township, Huntingdon county.

CHEAP CASH STORE.

HENRY L. ELDER,
No. 493 Market Street, —above 13th, PHILADELPHIA.

Respectfully invites the attention of those who buy for cash (as he sells on no other terms) to his very large and splendid assortment of Hardware and Cutlery, just received from England, in addition to his usual stock of Foreign and Domestic Hardware, of the best quality.

He earnestly requests them to examine elsewhere, and after ascertaining the lowest prices at which they can purchase, then to call notwithstanding the distance and uninfluenced by the remarks of interested dealers in the same business, and enquire the prices of the same goods at his store.

It is his fixed determination, and he wishes so distinctly understood, not only to sell as cheap as any other store, but positively cheaper.

His arrangements are so made, he believes, as to enable him to do so, and yet make a small profit. At all events, cash purchasers will find it their interest to call.

Dr. Moffat's Life Pills

AND PHOENIX BITTERS.

The perfectly safe, unerring and successful treatment of almost every species of disease by the use of Dr. MOFFAT'S LIFE MEDICINES, is no longer an experiment; as a reference to the experience of many thousands of patients will satisfactorily prove. During the present month alone, nearly one hundred cases have come to the knowledge of Dr. MOFFAT, where the patient has to all appearance, effected a permanent cure by the exclusive and judicious use of the Life Medicines—some eight or ten of these had been considered hopeless by their physicians. Such happy results are a source of great pleasure to Dr. M., and inspire him with a new confidence to recommend the use of his medicines to his fellow citizens.

The LIFE MEDICINES are a purely VEGETABLE preparation. They are mild and pleasant in their operation, and at the same time thorough-acting rapidly upon the secretions of the system—carrying off all acrimonious humors, and assimilating and purifying the blood. For this reason, in aggravated cases of Dyspepsia, the Life Medicines will give relief in a shorter space of time than any other prescription. In Fever and Ague, Inflammatory Rheumatism, Fevers of every description, Sick Headaches, Heartburn, Dizziness in the Head, Pains in the Chest, Flatulency, Impaired Appetite, and in every disease arising from impurity of the blood, or a disordered state of the stomach, the use of these medicines has always proved to be beyond doubt, greatly superior to any other mode of treatment.

All that Dr. Moffat asks of his patients is to be particular in taking them according to the directions. It is not by a newspaper notice, or by any thing that he may say in their favor, that he hopes to gain credit. It is alone by the result of a fair trial. Is the reader an invalid, and does he wish to know whether the Life Medicines will suit his own case? If so, let him call at the office of the agent, and procure a copy of the Good Samaritan, published gratuitously. He will there find enumerated very many extraordinary cases of cures; perhaps some exactly similar to his own.
