

THE HUNTINGDON JOURNAL.

"One country, one constitution, one destiny."

Huntingdon, Wednesday morning, Oct. 19, 1843.

FOR PRESIDENT, HENRY CLAY, OF KENTUCKY.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT, JOHN SERGEANT, OF PENNSYLVANIA.

FOR GOVERNOR, GEN. JAMES IRVIN, OF CENTRE COUNTY.

OUR BANNER. Once more our glorious banner out Upon the breeze we throw;

We this week hoist our banner with the name of the noble, eloquent and patriotic SAGE OF ASHLAND—HENRY CLAY—inscribed upon it for President; that of JOHN SERGEANT—the firm, unwavering Patriot and Statesman of our own revered Commonwealth—for Vice President; and that of one of Pennsylvania's most distinguished sons—JAMES IRVIN—for Governor in 1844.

The nominee for the Presidency, is among all living men, as has been said, "the first in the hearts of his countrymen, and known by all and felt by all to be the very life, soul, and embodiment of Democratic Whig principles." His lofty genius, his matchless eloquence, and almost peerless statesmanship, combined with the fearless, noble, frank and generous qualities of his many nature, have interwoven the name and fame of HENRY CLAY with every fibre of the hearts of Whigs, and extorted even from the most decided of our opponents the warm homage of their admiration.

In casting our mind's eye around over the country to select one from the many worthy Statesmen in the Whig ranks for a candidate for Vice President, we could see no one who seemed to be more worthy than JOHN SERGEANT—no one whose principles are more assimilated to those of Henry Clay—no one whose political creed is more sound nor more inflexibly adhered to through evil as well as through good report.

Our candidate for Governor—Gen. JAMES IRVIN—is a gentleman in every way worthy of being placed on the ticket with Clay and Sergeant. His straight forward, persevering, manly course in the late Congress has endeared him to every Whig in the State and in the Union. No man in the Delegation from Pennsylvania was more respected at Washington than General Irvin—none possessed more moral weight than he; and the vote given him last week for re-election proclaims, in language that cannot be misunderstood, the estimation in which he is held by his constituents. We considered no one before making this nomination, and though it may surprise the nominee, we doubt not but it will be responded to by his PARTY BY ACCLAMATION; and at the same time CARRY CONSPICUOUSLY AND DISMAY INTO THE RANKS OF THE OPPOSITION!

Huntingdon County—Election.

The election is over, and victory is ours. Under all the circumstances, the Democratic Harrison party of this county has done nobly. Once more have we the gratification of announcing the triumph of correct Democratic Whig principles over Locofocoism in glorious "Old Huntingdon." Although the vote is small, Gen. Irvin's majority is 945. With as large a "turn out" as that of 1840 his majority would probably have reached 1800.

We are sorry to have to notice that some Whigs exerted themselves at the polls to "trade" votes with our opponents. In a county like this, where we have a clear Whig and Antislavery majority, it is always suicidal policy to barter with the enemy. Let Whigs and Antislavery men go to the polls and vote their own ticket—the whole ticket—and nothing but the ticket—and then we have nothing to fear. In five cases out of six the Locofoco who agrees to a "trade" of votes will prove treacherous to his promise.

At Hollidaysburg a ticket was formed, on the eve of the election, to effect a division of the county; and, with feelings of mortification and shame, we must say that many Whigs and Antislavery men sacrificed their PRINCIPLES for a mere promise made solely for votes! These men—as well as those who were willing to sacrifice their party for the advancement of a personal friend on the opposition ticket, as those who purchased a Locofoco with their votes—should be marked, and when an opportunity offers itself, they should receive measure for measure at the hands of the people. If there is no want of merit in the Division question, why did the great "sticklers" for Division not take up and run Edward Bell, Esq., the candidate living at the "upper end," instead of negotiating with the candidate residing in this place, where all are opposed to a division of the county according to the boundaries asked for by the land-holders of Hollidaysburg.

Sheriff's Sale omitted to-day shall appear next week.

17th Congressional District. This Gerrymandered District, to obtain which two former Apportionment Bills were vetoed, has rebuked the grasping spirit of Locofocoism in thunder-tones of condemnation! Even Centre county, the hitherto stronghold of the enemy—Centre, that winked at the many sins committed in the name of "Democracy," has at length been awakened, and has turned from the errors of its evil ways. Centre county has given General Irvin a majority of 346 votes over General McCulloch, a Poter "Democrat." Juniata too, gallant little Juniata, has also declared in favor of the Whig candidate by a majority of 142 votes. "Old Huntingdon"—she who is always true to herself, true to the State, and true to the country, has given 945 majority for her able and efficient representative in the late Congress. And Mifflin—poor benighted Mifflin alone clings to the carcass of Locofocoism. McCulloch's majority in Mifflin is only 84. Gen. Irvin's majority in the district will exceed 1200. "Glory enough for this year."

The Encampment at Hollidaysburg commenced on Friday last. On Thursday and Friday six or seven companies of volunteers passed through this place on their way to Hollidaysburg.

To ALEXANDER GWIN, Esq.

Sir—As you declared publicly on the election ground, in this borough, on the day of the election, that JAMES IRVIN, M. C. "voted against giving the poor man the right to vote, and that you could prove it by the Journal of Congress," I now call upon you to point me to the evidence. Until I see it myself I shall not believe your assertion.

Huntingdon, Oct. 17, 1843.

A CHEERING VICTORY. MARYLAND REDEEMED.

The election in Maryland on Wednesday (4th inst.) resulted in the most gratifying victory to the Whigs that they have recently achieved. Baltimore City, even, has given them an average majority of 97 on the legislative ticket; though they lost one member by a few votes. The following is the result as compared with last year:

Table with columns: HOUSE OF DELEGATES, 1842, 1843, W. L. F., W. L. F.

The Legislature stands: House of Delegates, Senate, Whigs, Locofoco.

Whig majority on joint ballot 17. The Baltimore Patriot says—"As the present fruits of this victory, beside the assurance it gives us for 1844, when Henry Clay is brought into the field, we have a Whig U. S. Senator, in place of Mr. Korr, whose term of service expired last March—and we have also the division of the State into Congressional districts.

The battle was every where fought with Henry Clay's name, and for Henry Clay. Not one of the 60 Whigs in the Legislature but prefers him above any other man in the Union for President, and it may be said with truth, that not a man who voted for any one of these sixty Whig Legislators, but also prefers Henry Clay.

The evidence which the result of this election gives, of the overwhelming strength of the Whigs whenever they are aroused, must cheer the heart of every patriot in the land, and by uniting them for the great struggle in 1844, insure the election, by a tremendous majority, of HARRY OF THE WEST.

Great Whig Triumph in Georgia. The Augusta Chronicle of the 7th inst., brings the gratifying intelligence that the Whigs of Georgia, by a noble effort, have succeeded in carrying that State at the recent election. The Chronicle says:

"From the seaboard to the mountains, the returns proclaim the triumph of the Whig cause—the election of a Whig Governor, two Whig members of Congress, and majorities in both branches of the Legislature.

It is impossible to estimate our majority, so unrivaled is the popularity of our cause and our principles. For Governor and members of Congress, it is certain, however, that we have elected both by a majority of thousands, and have a majority in the Legislature of 40 to 60 on joint ballot.

Maine. The returns are pretty much all in, and Anderson, the regular Locofoco candidate for Governor is elected by the people by barely 500 majority, a falling off of some thousands from the previous contest for the same office.

New Jersey. The Locos have triumphed in this State, by the aid of the corruption fund of John Tyler, the influence of Capt. Stockton, and general apathy on the part of the Whigs. The Locos carry all the members of Congress, and a majority of some 20 on joint ballot.

Jerseymen! your Broad Seal is clouded by disgrace. Up, then, and prepare in time to wipe it off next year.

President Tyler and the Cabinet. A Washington letter in the New York True Sun says—"The high contracting power have not yet agreed to the apportionment of work and spoils for the next ensuing Presidential fight. It goes very much against the grain of Mr. Tyler to withdraw his name as a candidate, and nothing can be done until this preliminary is settled. He is advised by all his Cabinet, except Mr. Spencer, to yield gracefully, and make a virtue of necessity; but the Secretary of the Treasury, trembling for his own position, bolsters up the efforts of his master to effect a re-election; and the deep-laid plans of the political wire-pullers may be defeated by the false ambition of Mr. Tyler, and the exclusively self-interestness of Mr. Spencer."

Asbestos. The York (Pa.) Republican copies a paragraph, affirming the existence of Asbestos in that neighborhood, and says—"We confess that we are not aware of the existence of Asbestos any where in the vicinity of this borough, or within the bounds of this county, though we have heard that it is to be found a short distance over the line in Maryland."

A Governor Indicted. The Indiana Statesman of the 23d ult. published at New Harmony, says that at a recent sitting of the Grand Jury in that county, a bill of indictment was found against Gov. Bigger for perjury (on the solicitation of the people of Clay county) an individual named Reed, before he was tried, for crimes committed in Posey county.

The Yellow Fever. The yellow fever, we regret to see, is on the increase in New Orleans. During the week ending on the 30th ult. there were 62 deaths by that disease at the Charity Hospital, and the number of cases in private practice had increased. Persons are cautioned against visiting the city at present.

Sickness in Rodney. The New Orleans Picayune, on the authority of a letter, gives a deplorable account of the health of this town. Out of a population of 250 souls, of which about 140 are white, there are not less than 30 cases of sickness—all severe and many dangerous. Cases were hourly occurring. The disease is regarded as a malignant form of bilious or congestive fever. Death ensues in about five days.

Gold Dust. The ship Nimrod, of Sydney, New South Wales, is reported as having on board when last heard from, a sixty-three gallon cask full of gold dust and bars, which has been obtained by trading with the natives of the Island of Borneo. A sample sent to the owners proved to be of a very rich quality.

Dreadful Explosion. The Albany Evening Journal contains an account of a terrible explosion in a powder mill at High Falls, about seven miles from Catskill. It occurred on Wednesday (4th inst.) about 5 o'clock. There were six persons in the building at the time of the explosion, all of whom were blown to atoms. Their names are John Cash, H. Norcutt, Virgil Lown, — Hotchkiss, a son of Charles Cash, 12 years of age, and a Swiss, whose name was not learned. The largest part of a body that has been found is the leg of a man from the foot to the knee. Some 300 kegs of powder are said to have been in the mill when the accident occurred. The foreman was indisposed, and the person having charge of the packing and drying house is supposed to have been intoxicated. The report of the explosion excited considerable alarm at Catskill, many persons taking it for an earthquake. A similar accident occurred at this place three or four years ago, when four persons were killed.

Horrible Murder. We are indebted to the Columbia (Lancaster county) Spy, Extra, for the particulars of a revolting murder committed in that borough. A German laboring woman who had for some time past occupied a building in a remote part of the town, had been missing for eight or ten days, but as she was frequently engaged abroad as a washer-woman, her absence excited but little suspicion. On Wednesday, however, the neighbors having broken open the door, discovered a large bundle of bed-clothes lying on the floor, which on being raised presented the body of the unfortunate woman, in a state of decomposition—her throat cut from ear to ear, the skull fractured in two places, and a large gash extending from the right angle of her mouth. Who the murderer is remains a mystery; but it is supposed that although a laboring woman she had considerable money in the house (of which only a very small sum was found) and whoever the villain may be, his motive was undoubtedly to get possession of it.

MARRIED. On Wednesday the 11th inst., in this borough, by Francis B. Wallace, Esq. Mr. ISAAC CORNELIUS to Miss ELIZABETH WALLSMITH, both of Huntingdon county.

On Tuesday the 3d inst., by the Rev. A. K. Bell, Mr. JOHN BAIRD to Miss MARY CUNNINGHAM, all of Frankstown township.

On Tuesday the 10th inst., by the Rev. David McKinney, Mr. JOHN BUCHANAN of Allegheny Forge, Bedford county, to Miss ANN CRAWFORD, of Blair's Gap, Huntingdon county.

DIED. In this Borough on the 14th inst., SUSANNA MARY, infant daughter of William and Catharine Zeigler, aged 1 year 3 months and 6 days.

On Friday the 6th inst., at the residence of his son, in Shirley township, JESSE COOKSON, Esq., in the sixty-fifth year of his age.

In Frankstown township, on Monday the 25th ult., CHRISTIAN GAST, Esq., aged 81 years 1 month and 15 days.

On Sunday evening the 8th inst., Mr. HENRY J. M'GUIRE, aged about 49 years—an old and respected citizen of Allegheny tp. Bedford county.

On Monday the 9th inst., LUCRETIA, youngest child of Samuel Frampton of Hollidaysburg.

Dr. Snodgrass' GERMAN REMOVING PILLS. Are exactly adapted to the reign of John Tyler. If the conduct of this remarkable man has disappointed and embarrassed the country, thereby subjecting the inhabitants to intense mental excitement and undue labor and exposure, which entail disease and curtail the means of liquidating the expense of combating it, certainly an antidote to the circumstances is gratifying. Such an antidote the Removing Pills undoubtedly are. Numbers of respectable members of our own community have testified this from their own experience. These testimonials have evoked to so great an extent that it is impossible or inexpedient to introduce them into a paper designed for general purposes. The public must, therefore, be henceforth respectfully referred to the agents below for evidence of the utility of the medicine. If such evidence, when examined, be unsatisfactory, no purchase is expected.

All the diseases in which these Pills are appropriate are not named in the notice from the fear of the imputation of extravagance. They are of undoubted and tried efficacy in Liver diseases and all Bilious affections, being the only vegetable compound whose useful action is nearly similar to that of calomel. Also—Cholera Morbus, Dyspepsia, Rheumatism, Breaking out on the skin, Fevers, Ague, Golds, Coughs, Inflammatory diseases, and particularly those affections originating from a bad state of the blood, which are numerous.

The afflicted are recommended to try this medicine, whose success is becoming unparalleled. Purchase of Fisher & M'Murtrie, Huntingdon, Alex. Knox & Son, Newry, W. & B. Lewis, Shirleyburg, Dennis O'Connor, Three Springs, Blair & McEldon, Middleburg, Miller & Winton, Rock Hill Furnace, Thomas F. Orison & Co., Orbisania, Bro. X. B. Snadgrass, Oct. 18, 1843.

LOST. Between Birmingham and Waterstreet, on Saturday the 14th inst., by a passenger in the Bellefonte stage, a Lady's gold curb guard chain. The finder, on leaving it with Mr. Lowry, of Waterstreet, or the editor of the Journal, will be liberally rewarded. October 17, 1843.
