"Our Banner Streams in Light." The numerous friends of Gen. JAMES IRVIN in this region will, no doubt, be pleased to hear that his nomination as a candidate for Governor is well received abroad. Therefore we give the following

The Philadelphia National Forum, after noticing the nomination of Clay and Sergeant in terms of approbation, says:

The Hon. JAMES IRVIN is likewise named as a candidate for Governor. This gentleman's vote in the strong local district from which he has just been elected, shows that he has popular strength as well as inflexible integrity to recommend. Of the many names offered in connection with the Governor's nomination, none can be more unexceptionable than that of Gen. James Irvin.

Gen. IRVIN OF CENTRE.—The Huntingdon Journal brings forward the name of Gen. JAMES IRVIN, the popular Congressman elected in that district, as the Whig and Antislavery candidate for next Governor. This is one of the best suggestions of a candidate we have noticed. Gen. Irvin would make a strong run.—Harrisburg Telegraph.

Gen. JAMES IRVIN.—We have placed at the head of our paper the name of Gen. JAMES IRVIN, of Centre county, as our choice for Governor in 1844; and in so doing we believe that we but express the sentiments of nine tenths of the Democratic Whigs of this county. His brilliant talents and sound practical experience, together with his unbounded popularity renders him probably the most available man that could possibly be taken up at this time. With HENRY CLAY for President and Gen. JAMES IRVIN for Governor the "TAR-ROFF" party of Pennsylvania will have nothing to fear. More anon.—Money Luminary.

The Huntingdon Journal raises the name of Gen. James Irvin, as a candidate for Governor in 1844. A good man and true.—Mifflin County Gazette.

THE NEXT GOVERNOR.—The Editor of the Huntingdon Journal has raised the name of Henry Clay and John Sergeant to his head for the Presidency and Vice Presidency, and that of Gen. JAMES IRVIN of this borough, for Governor, an indication of the growing popularity of these gentlemen, that gives us much pleasure. Gen. Irvin is, without doubt, the most popular man in this section of the State, and his sound views on Pennsylvania policy, his integrity, industry, and fidelity to the interests of his constituents give him claims to the favorable consideration of the nominating Convention and the people, that few men can bring with them.—With Clay and Sergeant to manage the General Government and Irvin that of the State, both might soon be raised from the degradation to which they have been sunk, and again take their former standing among the governments of the earth.

The Hollidaysburg Register, in speaking of the nomination of Gen. Irvin, has the following remarks.

"The General is a good man and true, and would, unquestionably, make a strong run. Of this we were satisfied as early as January, 1841, when we first brought forward his name in connexion with the office of Governor. His triumphant reelection to Congress in a district which had been formed by the Locos with an eye single to its political complexion, proves his powers upon the political turf; and proclaims, in indisputable language, that he is held in high estimation for honesty, ability, and sterling integrity, by those who KNOW HIM. A man of General Irvin's stamp—moral, virtuous, sober, honest and patriotic—in the gubernatorial chair, would soon raise the character of Pennsylvania to its own proud elevation."

The Cambria Gazette, in noticing the nomination of Gen. Irvin, says:—"The name has a magic about it, which almost impels us to hoist it at once."

By request we publish the following from the Hollidaysburg "Standard."

Journey to Camp Warren. Mr. ENYON:—On behalf of the Penn's Valley Cadets, we ask a place in your paper for the expression of the gratitude entertained by the members of the company, for the many kindnesses received on our march to—during our stay at, and on our return from Camp Warren.

We left our friends in Boalsburg on the morning of the 12th, under a threatening sky, but with buoyant spirits. On reaching Pine Grove, we partook of refreshments gratuitously furnished by Mr. O'Bryan. At Mr. Stovers, where we next halted, we were provided with an excellent cold collation, at a moderate charge, that it scarcely amounted to a charge at all. We arrived at Colerain Forge about 5 o'clock, and pitched our tents on a beautiful and romantic spot selected by Mr. Crane. Wood and straw was kindly supplied by Mr. Stonebraker, who refused any compensation. To Mrs. Stewart and family, who sent into camp delicious cakes and coffee, we are deeply indebted. On the following day we pitched our tents at the Yellow Springs, where cream was supplied to us by Mrs. O'Bryan, at whose house all who wished partook of refreshments. We left Yellow Springs at an early hour, and as we drew near Frankstown, the inspiring tones of martial music struck upon the ear, telling us that we were about to join our fellow soldiers from Mifflin and Juniata, who, like ourselves had left their homes for the tented field. On rounding an acclivity we suddenly came upon the village, the streets of which were alive with armed soldiers, exhibiting all the pomp and glitter of military show.

The sight, at once so grand and imposing, kindled in our bosoms all the enthusiastic feelings of the soldier. Here we were met by Major Williams, who informed us that the Hollidaysburg Grays waited to escort us to Camp Warren. Accordingly we made no delay, and soon reached that handsome and well disciplined company, who received us in a manner which told that we were welcome guests.—The bright smiles of the fair ladies of Hollidaysburg shone upon us as we passed through the streets, with a radiance all their own, to which our "pomp and circumstance of war" seemed no circumstance at all. At the Camp we received from our friends a soldier's welcome. To our friends of the Bedford Grays and Hollidaysburg Grays, especial acknowledgments are due. To the ladies who enlightened us with their presence on the several days of the Encampment, and particularly to her who regaled us with a bounteous present of delicious cake, we can only say that we cannot, with any eloquence of words, express our grateful feelings. At 1 o'clock on Thursday, we left Hollidaysburg with much regret, and embarked on the boat Exchange, Captain Wolf, and amid the cheers of numerous friends who had accompanied us to the Depot. At 10 o'clock, Friday morning, we arrived at Colerain, where we again experienced the exceeding kindness of Mrs. Stewart and family, in the shape of another rich treat. On reaching Mechanicsville we received the hearty and cordial welcome of a numerous assemblage of ladies and gentlemen, at 1 o'clock we partook of a most sumptuous dinner, provided by the citizens of the village and vicinity, with a liberality above all praise, and which did equal honor to the generosity of the gentlemen, and the taste and skill of the ladies. After drilling for a very short time we were honored by the spirit-stirring cheers of both ladies and gentlemen, and as we took our reluctant departure we were certain that there was not a heart in the company but wished for the "power to grasp Time's wings, and flit them together," so that we might stay yet longer, with our warm-hearted friends of Mechanicsville. We arrived late in the evening at Mr. Stovers', where we were again most hospitably entertained. At Pine Grove, Mr. O'Brian, with his usual kindness, again invited us to his well-laid table. At 2 o'clock we reached Boalsburg in high spirits, welcomed warmly by our friends who had assembled to greet our return from Camp Warren. After having marched through the town we stacked our arms at the Armory, and took leave of each other, and repaired to our homes, all highly delighted with our visit to Hollidaysburg.

Shop near to Mr. J. Honck's blacksmith shop. Huntingdon, April 19, 1843.—1y.

WASHINGTON HOTEL, MARKET SQUARE, HARRISBURG, Pa. The subscriber respectfully announces to his friends and the public generally, that he has taken the above named well known Tavern Stand, (formerly kept by Wm. E. Camp,) where he will endeavor to serve those that may call upon him in the most satisfactory manner. The House is centrally and pleasantly located, and is furnished throughout with the best of bedding and other furniture, and his accommodations are such as to make it a convenient and desirable stopping place. No exertions will be spared to make it agreeable in all its departments to those who may favor him with a call. FREDERICK J. PENN. December 21, 1842.

TO PURCHASERS. BEING desirous to have my real estate sold at a fair price for the times and of paying my debts as far, and as soon as possible, I take this early opportunity to announce the sale of the following described property by the Sheriff at the November Court, now next ensuing, and most respectfully invite persons to call and examine the same.

ONE HALF LOT, adjoining Jacob Lex on the west, with a frame building, with brick front, 30 by 34 feet, three and a half stories high, plastered from top to bottom, containing 12 Rooms and two Cellars, calculated for two families—splendidly finished with cornish and dormant windows in front; with double stable, 18 by 39 feet, and other back buildings, and protected by a wharf 84 feet high.

Two thirds of a Lot, adjoining the above, protected by a stone wharf 84 feet high, with a Brick Building 40 feet front by 20 feet back, with a back building 18 by 20 feet, three and a half stories high, containing 10 rooms, with large hall, and Parlor, and all plastered, and a cellar under the whole building—cornish and dormant windows in front—three rooms and the hall splendidly papered, and four Russian Sheet Iron Grates, permanently fixed in the fire-places—porch to the back-building—also a back building on the lot.

One third of a Lot, adjoining the above, protected by a wharf 84 feet high, with a Brick building 20 feet front by 50 ft back, (being the store-room, and it is said to be the most splendid in the county)—three and a half stories high; the third story being in one room, second story in three rooms, first story being the STORE ROOM, and all plastered—the store being furnished in the best style, having the common shelving; with glass cases round the whole room, and 32 drawers, two heavy paneled counters, with heavy popular plank tops, each counter being 36 feet long—also sash doors between store and office. All the above buildings in one block. Call and see, gentlemen, I will be happy to show you through. JOHN BOUSLOUGH. Sept. 27, 1843.—1c.

TAILORING. WILLIAM FAHS. RESPECTFULLY informs the citizens of Huntingdon, and the public in general, that he still continues the Tailoring Business, at his old stand, in Main street, in the borough of Huntingdon, in the brick house immediately opposite the store of Thomas Read, where he is fully prepared and ready to accommodate all, who may favor him with a call.

He receives, regularly, from New York, Scott's New York, Paris and London FASHIONS; and he is determined to employ none but the best and most experienced workmen; and he guarantees to execute all orders in his line in the most fashionable and workmanlike manner, or according to the wishes and orders of customers. COUNTRY PRODUCE will be taken, done at his shop. Thankful for past favors, he solicits a continuance of public patronage. August 16, 1843.—1f.

CHEAP CASH STORE. HENRY L. ELDER, No. 493 Market Street, above 13th, PHILADELPHIA. Respectfully invites the attention of those who buy for cash (as he sells on no other terms) to his very large and splendid assortment of Hardware and Cutlery, just received from England, in addition to his usual stock of Foreign and Domestic Hardware, of the best quality.

He earnestly requests them to examine elsewhere, and after ascertaining the lowest prices at which they can purchase, then to call notwithstanding the distance and uninfluenced by the remarks of interested dealers in the same business, and enquire the prices of the same goods at his store. It is his fixed determination, and he wishes it so distinctly understood, not only to sell as cheap as any other store, but positively cheaper.

His arrangements are so made, he believes, as to enable him to do so, and yet make a small profit. At all events, cash purchasers will find it their interest to call. HENRY L. ELDER. Cheap Hardware Store and Nail Warehouse, No. 493 Market Street, between 13th and Broad. Philadelphia, Aug. 23, 1843.

NATURAL PRINCIPLES. It is written in the Book of Nature and common sense, that the natural vegetable productions of every country are, if properly applied, amply sufficient for the cure of every malady incident to that climate. WRIGHT'S INDIAN VEGETABLE PILLS are founded upon the principle, that the human body is subject to but one disease, viz: corrupt humors, which, when confined to the circulation, give rise to those disordered motions of the blood called fevers; but when lodged in the various parts of the body, are the cause not only of every ache or pain we suffer, but every malady incident to man.

It should be remembered that Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills are composed of roots and herbs, which grow spontaneously on our own soil, and consequently are so admirably adapted to our constitutions that, while they cannot possibly injure even the most delicate, a perseverance in their use, according to directions, is absolutely certain to drive disease of every name from the body.

When we wish to restore a swamp or morass to fertility, do we not drain it of the superabundant water? In like manner, if we would restore the body to health we must cleanse it from impurity. Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills, will be found peculiarly adapted to carrying out this grand purifying, because they expel all corrupt humors in an easy and natural manner, and while they every day GIVE EASE AND PLEASURE, the constitution is restored to such a state of health and vigor, that disease will find no abiding place in the body.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS! As the great popularity of Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills, has raised up a host of counterfeiters, the public are cautioned against impostors, who are travelling about the country, selling to the unsuspecting storekeepers a spurious article for the above celebrated Pills. It should be remembered that, all who sell the genuine medicine are provided with a certificate of agency, of which the following is a copy: This is to certify that the within named is a regular and duly appointed Agent for the sale of Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills, in the town of —, in the State of —, and this certificate, which is signed by Wm. Wright, Vice President of the North American College of Health, must also be countersigned by the acting Clerk or Agent, from whom said certificates are received.

This certificate of agency will be renewed every twelve months; therefore, if any alteration should be made in the date, do not purchase. The public are further informed that all who receive the above certificate, are also required to sign the following PLEDGE. This is to certify, that the subscriber by certificate bearing eye date herewith, signed with the proper handwriting of William Wright, Vice President of the North American College of Health, been appointed Agent for the sale of WRIGHT'S INDIAN VEGETABLE PILLS, Or Indian Purgative, in the town of —, and State of —, to hold and continue in said agency during the pleasure of the said William Wright; and no longer, any thing contained in the said certificate signed by the said William Wright, to the contrary thereof notwithstanding. In consideration whereof, I hereby covenant and agree to and with the said William Wright that I will not sell, or expose to sale, any medicine bearing the above or a similar name during my said agency, other than that which I receive from his authorized agent or agents, under the penalty of five hundred dollars to be paid by him, as liquidated damages, of itness — hand and seal, the — day for — one thousand eight hundred and forty — Thus it will be seen that the friends of the genuine medicine may be perfectly free from any apprehension of fraud, as all agents, who are provided with a certificate of agency, have invariably SIGNED THE PLEDGE not to sell any Indian Vegetable Pills except those received from the above named William Wright, or his authorized agents. Country agents and other, will be on their guard against travelling impostors; and remember that all authorized travelling agents are also provided with a certificate of agency as above described, and that Pills offered for sale, by those who cannot show a certificate of agency, are sure to be counterfeit. It will be further observed that all genuine medicine has the title expressed in full on the sides of the boxes thus: WRIGHT'S INDIAN VEGETABLE PILLS, (Indian Purgative) OF THE NORTH AMERICA COLLEGE OF HEALTH. The patrons of Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills, will also bear in mind that the directions which accompany each box of Pills, have been secured by copyright, and the proper form, viz: "Entered according to the act of Congress, in the year 1840, by William Wright, in the Clerk's Office, of the District Court of the Eastern District of Pennsylvania," will be found at the bottom of the first page of said directions.

Thus it will be seen, that a trifling attention on the part of the purchaser to the above particulars, will put an effectual stop to this wholesale robbery, and drive the following highly respectable store keepers have been appointed agents for the sale of Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills, of the North American College of Health. William Stewart, Huntingdon. Henry Leamer Hollidaysburg. B. F. Bell, Antas township. Robert McNamara, Newry. Samuel S. Isett, Tyrone township. Millikens & Kessler, Mill Creek. A. & N. Cresswell, Petersburg. Gemmel & Porter, Alexandria. Moore & Steiner, Water Street. Joseph Patton, Jr. Danzansville. R. H. McCormick, Collinsville. Wolf & Willet, Frankstown. Offices devoted exclusively to the sale of the medicine, wholesale and retail, No. 288 Greenwich street, New York; and No. 198 Tremont street, Boston; and Principal Office, No. 169 Race street, Philadelphia.

N. B. The public are respectfully informed that the Pills made by one V. O. Flack, and sold by a man named Parker, in Third street, are not the genuine Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills; and as counterfeiters and their associates sell at half price, it is absolutely impossible for them to have the genuine medicine for sale. * * Be particular in all cases to ask for the genuine Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills. November 30, 1842.

EXCHANGE HOTEL, HUNTINGDON, PA. PETER LIVINGSTON, Respectfully informs the citizens of this county, and the public generally, that he has removed to and opened a Public House in that large and commodious brick building situate at the centre of the Diamond, formerly occupied by C. Coats, where the "way worn traveller" will find every attention that will minister to his convenience and comfort. His TABLE will receive his special attention, and shall always be abundantly supplied with the best to be had in the county. Wines and Liquors. His STABLE is the best in the place, and the most careful and attentive ostlers will always be in attendance; and the Host pledges himself to make every exertion to render his house a "home" to all who may favor him with a call. The stranger and the friend may rest assured that if a desire to please be successful he doubts not his success. He tenders his thanks to his old customers for past favors, and respectfully solicits a continuance of their patronage. BOARDERS will be taken by the year, month or week. July 12, 1843.—6m.

NOTICE. ALL persons who know themselves indebted to the subscriber for subscription, advertising or job work, are requested to make payment immediately, if not sooner, as I expect to leave these "digging" in a short time. E. V. EVERHART.
