Huntingdon, Nov. 15, 1843.

WOOD WANTED.

Wood is wanted at this office in payment of subscription, advertising and job work.

To Advertisers.

Advertisements must be handed in on Tuesday morning before 9 o'clock to insure their insertion in next morning's paper.

Religious Notice.

Divine worship, according to the usages of the Protestant Episcopal Church, will be held at the Academy in this Borough, every Sunday, at the hours of 11 in the morning and 3 in the afternoon.

Electors of President.

The next election for President will be decided under the new apportionment of Electors. The number to which each State is entitled, is set forth in the annexed table.

Table with columns: States, Electors, States, Electors. Lists electors for various states including Maine, New Hampshire, Massachusetts, Vermont, Rhode Island, Connecticut, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, N. Carolina, S. Carolina.

It is now a matter of certainty, that, unless death again prostrate the hopes of the nation, Henry Clay, of Kentucky, will receive the nomination of the Whig Party.

The votes of the following States may be safely calculated upon as certain for Clay:

Table listing states and their votes for Clay: Massachusetts (12), Vermont (6), Rhode Island (4), Connecticut (6), New Jersey (7), Delaware (3), Maryland (8), North Carolina (10), Georgia (10), Louisiana (6), Tennessee (12), Kentucky (12), Indiana (12), Michigan (5), Ohio (23), Mississippi (6).

Mr. Clay's chance is decidedly best for New York 36, and Virginia 17, making 58. And an equal chance for Pennsylvania 26, and Maine 9, making 85.

The only States the Locos can calculate upon with any degree of certainty, are— New Hampshire, 6; South Carolina, 13; Alabama, 9; Arkansas, 7; Missouri, 9; Illinois, 9.

Burning of Horses.

It has often been remarked that a horse cannot be driven from a building when on fire; but many have considered it an unauthenticated statement.

An incident of which the writer was an eye-witness, may be interesting to some of our readers. It was a cold night, in November 1840, while we were sojourning in the State of New York, that the cry of fire alarmed the citizens of the quiet town in which we were then staying.

We soon discovered that the stable attached to the hotel was in flames, and our first effort was directed to the safety of the horses which it contained. We threw wide open all the doors, and unloosed the halters; but no sooner was this done, than some of them rushed to the fire, inhaled the burning element, and fell down and died instantly.

Matters in Wisconsin.

James R. Vineyard, who shot C. P. Arndt in the Legislative Hall of Wisconsin, both of them being members of the Legislative Council, was tried at Monroe in that Territory, last month, and acquitted, though the evidence was clear enough against him.

a society which is itself the dregs of the population of the neighboring States. According to the same authority, there were, however, some respectable men engaged in this singular trial.

It is not wonderful that strangers hear such a report about this country, when within its borders, under the influences of its institutions, such as this can be.

TAILORING.

WILLIAM FAHS RESPECTFULLY informs the citizens of Huntingdon, and the public in general, that he still continues the Tailoring Business, at his old stand, in Main street, in the borough of Huntingdon, in the brick house immediately opposite the store of Thomas Read, where he is fully prepared and ready to accommodate all, who may favor him with a call.

He receives, regularly, from New York, Scott's New York, Paris and London FASHIONS; and he is desirous to employ none but the best and most experienced workmen; and he guarantees to execute all orders in his line in the most fashionable and workmanlike manner, or according to the wishes and orders of customers.

COUNTRY PRODUCE will be taken, at the market price, in payment of work done at his shop.

Thankful for past favors, he solicits a continuance of public patronage. August 16, 1843.—4f.

CHEAP CASH STORE. HENRY L. ELDER, No. 493 Market Street, above 13th, PHILADELPHIA.

Respectfully invites the attention of those who buy for cash (as he sells on no other terms) to his very large and splendid assortment of Hardware and Cutlery, just received from England, in addition to his usual stock of Foreign and Domestic Hardware, of the best quality. He earnestly requests them to examine elsewhere, and after ascertaining the lowest prices at which they can purchase, then to call notwithstanding the distance and unfluenced by the remarks of interested dealers in the same business, and enquire the prices of the same goods at his store.

It is his fixed determination, and he wishes it distinctly understood, not only to sell as cheap as any other store, but positively cheaper. His arrangements are so made, he believes, as to enable him to do so, and yet make a small profit. At all events, cash purchasers will find it to their interest to call. HENRY L. ELDER, Cheap Hardware Store and Nail Warehouse, No. 493 Market Street, between 13th and Broad. Philadelphia, Aug. 23, 1843.

TO PURCHASERS.

BEING desirous to have my real estate sold at a fair price for the times and of paying my debts as far, and as soon as possible, I take this early opportunity to announce the sale of the following described property by the Sheriff at the November Court, now next ensuing, and most respectfully invite persons to call and examine the same.

ONE HALF LOT, adjoining Jacob Lex on the west, with a frame building, with brick front, 30 by 34 feet, three and a half stories high, plastered from top to bottom, containing 12 Rooms and two Cellars, calculated for two families—splendidly finished with cornish and plastered on front; with double stable, 18 by 30 feet, and other back buildings, and protected by a wharf 8 1/2 feet high.

Two thirds of a Lot, adjoining the above, protected by a stone wharf 8 1/2 feet high, with a Brick Building 40 feet front by 20 feet back, with a back building

18 by 20 feet, three and a half stories high, containing 10 rooms, with large hall, and Piazza, and all plastered, and a cellar under the whole building—cornish and plastered on front—three rooms and the hall splendidly papered, and four Russian Sheet Iron Grates, permanently fixed in the fire-places—porch to the back building—also a back building on the lot.

One third of a Lot, adjoining the above, protected by a wharf 8 1/2 feet high, with a Brick Building 20 feet front by 50 feet back, (being the store-room, and it is said to be the most splendid in the county,)—three and a half stories high; the third story being in one room, second story in three rooms, first story being the STORE ROOM, and all plastered—the store being furnished in the best style, having the common shelving, with glass cases round the whole room, and 32 drawers, two heavy paneled counters, with heavy popular plank tops, each counter being 36 feet long—also sash doors between store and office. All the above buildings in one block.

Call and see, gentlemen, I will be happy to show you through. JOHN BOUSLOUGH, Sept. 27, 1843.—tc.

NEW MIRROR.

Every Number embellished with an original and exquisite design on steel.— Edited by G. P. MORRIS—Illustrated by J. G. CHAPMAN, who is engaged exclusively for this work.

TERMS—Three Dollars per annum.—Single Number 6 cents.

In the course of a few weeks the undersigned will commence on his own account the MIRROR, in the octavo form, on an entirely novel and original plan, with a steel engraving in every number, and at the reduced price of three dollars per annum, or six and a quarter cents per copy.

The NEW MIRROR will appear with many striking and attractive features, distinguishing it from every other periodical. It will be published with new type, on fine paper, and each number will contain a beautiful original Engraving on steel, designed and etched by Chapman illustrating the letter press which it accompanies and which it will invest.— Besides the contributions of all our extensive cords of correspondents, which embraces most of the talent of this country, we have made arrangements for fresh and early translations from some of the best writers of France, and for proof sheets from several of the popular authors of England. With such materials and with such able fellow-laborers in the literary vineyard, we hope to present to the American reader a weekly journal of much value and unusual excellence.

The parade of mere names will be sedulously avoided. The Mirror will be remarkable, we hope, rather for good articles without names, than for poor articles with distinguished names. It will embrace in its scope every department of elegant literature, comprising tales of romance, sketches of society and manners, sentiment and every day life, piquant essays, domestic and foreign correspondence, literary intelligence, wit, humor, fashion, and gossip, poetry, the fine arts, and literary, musical and dramatic criticisms. Its reviews of new works will be careful, discriminating and impartial. It will aim to foster a literature suited to the estate and desires of the age and country. Its tendency will be cheerful and enlivening, as well as improving. It will seek to gratify every refined taste, but never to offend the most fastidious, and it will ever feel its duty to be to turn the sunny side of things to human eyes.

The work will be published every Saturday, in numbers of sixteen large octavo super-royal pages, with double columns, and enclosed in a neat ornamental cover. It will form, at the end of the year, two superb volumes, each of four hundred and sixteen pages, filled with the gems of literature and the fine arts.

The very low price at which it will be issued renders it the cheapest periodical in this or any other country, considering the cost of its fifty (50) engravings, and the intrinsic value of its literary contents. Those desirous of receiving periodically from the commencement, will have it punctually sent to their address upon their forwarding to the undersigned, at No. 4, Ann street, three dollars free of expense.

Letters enclosing the amount of subscription, Agents, carriers, and newsmen, will be supplied on the usual terms. The cash system will be rigidly adhered to without any deviation whatever.

Such editors as copy the above, will oblige me by forwarding a marked paper, and by resuming the exchange which was interrupted much to my regret, by circumstances over which I had no control. GEORGE P. MORRIS, Editor and Proprietor. No. 4, Ann st. near Broadway, N. York.

WASHINGTON HOTEL, MARKET SQUARE, HARRISBURG, PA.

The subscriber respectfully announces to his friends and the public generally, that he has taken the above named well known Tavern Stand, (formerly kept by Wm. E. Camp) where he will endeavor to serve those that may call upon him in the most satisfactory manner. The House is centrally and pleasantly located, and is furnished throughout with the best of bedding and other furniture, and his accommodations are such as to make it a convenient and desirable stopping place.

No exertions will be spared to make it agreeable in all its departments to those who may favor him with a call. FREDERICK J. FENN. December 21, 1842.

Potts, Linn & Harris, Wholesale Druggists and Apothecaries, No 215 1/2 MARKET ST. PHILA.

N. B. The Harris in the above firm, is Dr. John Harris, known in Huntingdon and Centre counties. Having been long engaged in the Drug business in the country, he trusts he will be the better prepared to meet the wants of country druggists, storekeepers and Physicians. September 27, 1843.—pd.

TEMPERANCE HOUSE.

The subscriber occupying the large three story brick dwelling house at the south east corner of Allegheny and Smith streets, in the borough of Huntingdon, the third story of which during the last summer has been fitted for sleeping rooms; having a large stable on the premises, and having employed a careful person to attend to it and take care of horses, &c., informs the public that she is prepared to accommodate such of her friends and such strangers and travelers as may desire accommodation. She respectfully solicits a share of public patronage, and hopes the friends of Temperance will give her a call. ESTHER CLARKE, Huntingdon March 1, 1843.

FOR SALE.

SIX FARMS are offered for sale, containing each about 250 Acres, of fine Limestone and Chocolate Land, well watered and improved, with a due proportion of wood, situate on the State Road, in Trough Creek Valley, six miles from the Raystown branch of the Juniata and Chillicoatstown, about 7 from the Pub-mill Gap, 13 from Campbell's Lock on the State Canal, and 20 from M'Connellsburg and the town of Huntingdon.— They are surrounded by a respectable and thriving population, established more than 50 years since; and are near to several iron works, which, independent of other sources, afford markets for the produce of this fertile and beautiful valley.

For information, apply to Mr. James Entekin, Jr., Coffee-Run P. O. Huntingdon Co. Pa., or Mr. William Houck, Broad-top P. O. Huntingdon Co. Pa., who will show the premises. JOHN HARE POWELL, Aug. 16, 1843.—3mc. Philadelphia.

AT THE HEAD OF THE PERIODICALS OF THE WORLD.

Graham's Lady's and Gentlemen's Magazine for 1844. The January Number to be published December 10th, 1843.

GRAHAM'S MAGAZINE has long enjoyed the enviable reputation of being the best periodical in the United States, in the quality and number of its embellishments, and the tone of its literary matter. It is the cheapest as well as the best. For the year 1843 the publisher has given about 100 pages more original reading matter than any other of his contemporaries, and more original steel engravings, in addition to the fashion plates and colored flowers. The cheapness and merit of a three dollar magazine over all others may be understood, which has made an outlay of over seventeen thousand dollars greater than any other, and an addition of engravings over other magazines that would embellish the costliest Annual. The publisher is, however, satisfied that nothing but real excellence can maintain the high position his periodical has assumed in the United States, and as the taste improves and extends for good works, that nothing of a humbug order will be tolerated.

Every number of Graham's Magazine is issued at a cost of nearly $4000—the plates alone, costing nearly half the sum. Most of the plates are from ORIGINAL AMERICAN PAINTINGS. Executed expressly for the proprietor, for engravings for the Magazine. Among the pictures painted for the volume for 1844, are two by Sully the great artist, several by Leutze, Chapman, Inman, Conarre, Rothermel, Thompson, and others of the best artists of America.

To POSTMASTERS AND OTHERS. The high merit of Graham's Magazine considered, the publisher flatters himself that the following liberal terms will induce thousands to subscribe. To CLERKS the following proposals are made—two copies for $3, five for $10, eight for $16, eleven for $20.

To postmasters, or other persons forming a Club, the publisher will forward a Novel for every subscriber sent, so that varying the books a complete Library may be obtained by any person in a short time. Single copies, three dollars per annum, in advance.

And to the person sending the money, a copy of "The Gems of Art and Beauty," containing 13 splendid Mezzotint and Line Engravings, and also a copy of "Ringwood the Rover," Herbert's Prize Novel, will be forwarded gratis. GEO. R. GRAHAM, No. 98 Chesnut street, Phila. Nov. 15, 1843.

CHAIRS! CHAIRS!!

The subscriber respectfully informs the inhabitants of Huntingdon and its vicinity, that he has opened an establishment in the borough of Lewistown, for the manufacture of Chairs, Settees, &c., of the following kinds, viz: French Chairs, Half French, Grecian, Fancy curled Maple, Black Walnut, Office, Fancy and Windsor, Boston, Rocking, Spring seat Mallogany, Night Cabinets, and Studying Chairs.

Those desirous of receiving periodically from the commencement, will have it punctually sent to their address upon their forwarding to the undersigned, at No. 4, Ann street, three dollars free of expense.

Letters enclosing the amount of subscription, Agents, carriers, and newsmen, will be supplied on the usual terms. The cash system will be rigidly adhered to without any deviation whatever.

Such editors as copy the above, will oblige me by forwarding a marked paper, and by resuming the exchange which was interrupted much to my regret, by circumstances over which I had no control. GEORGE P. MORRIS, Editor and Proprietor. No. 4, Ann st. near Broadway, N. York.

SETTEES.

Mohogany, Fancy, Cushion, cane and common Settees, on an improved and fashionable plan, Settee Bedsteads, both elegant and useful, designed to close up, making a handsome Settee with cushion seat for the day time.

The subscriber having been for several years past engaged in the above business in the cities of New York and Providence R. I. he flatters himself that he will be able to give general satisfaction to all those who will honor him with their patronage.

All the above mentioned articles, and every thing in his line of business he will furnish in the latest style and fashion, on the most reasonable terms, and warranted to do good service. N. B.—Chairs, Settees, &c., repaired and ornamented on the shortest notice and most reasonable terms. A constant supply of the above mentioned articles may be seen at the Wareroom, one door east of the Store of Mrs. Jane M'Conrck and immediately opposite the store of Patterson & Horner. GEORGE W. SWAIN, Lewistown, Nov. 30, 1842.
