Great Excitement.

The January Nos. of the Periodicals of Philadelphia, are creating a great excitement; but the following article, from the Daily Chronicle, settles the fact of which is the best periodical of the day.

"We have been favored with an early copy of Godey's Lady's Book, and it is, without any exception, the most wonderful production of the age. We understand that the Mezzotints are by Mr. Warner, the gentleman who took at the last exhibition of the PHAENIX INSTITUTE, a society composed of the most celebrated artists of the day—the premium for Mezzotinting."

Croom, the celebrated artist, has furnished an embellishment which will be hereafter known as Croom's Vase. This is conceded, by artists and amateurs, to be the prettiest embellishment ever furnished by a periodical.

Fancy Ball Dresses are just in season. These we believe are the first of that kind of embellishments ever published. We will now mention one embellishment in preparation, that we know will give the greatest satisfaction to our numerous readers—a full length Portrait of Miss E. Leslie, the celebrated contributor of Godey's Lady's Book.

The embellishments alone in this number cost nearly $7000. Our contributors are the best in the country.

We annex the names of those who contribute to the January number, viz.—W. C. Bryant, N. P. Willis, C. F. Hoffman, J. C. Neal, Mrs. L. H. Sigourney, Prof. J. Sanderson, W. H. Burleigh, A. Hervey, Miss A. D. Woodbridge, Mrs. S. J. Hale, T. S. Arthur, A. Parisian, R. Morris, Mrs. M. E. Robbins, Mrs. C. L. Hentz, Mrs. E. C. Embury, Mrs. E. O. Smith, Miss Leslie, Mrs. H. F. Lee, Miss E. S. Norton, H. T. Tuckerman, T. L. Cuyler, A. H. Clapp, Adriaan, G. Waterman, Jr., J. A. Swan, Prof. J. Frost, M. M. Michael.

In fine Godey's Lady's Book can never be surpassed. L. A. GODEY, Publishers' Hall, Phil'a.

We learn that the numbers for subscribers will be sent on in a few days.

CIRCULAR.

The Temperance associations of Pennsylvania—of every description—are hereby notified, that in pursuance of the following Resolution, adopted at the State Convention, held at Harrisburg, in January last, a State Temperance Convention will again be held, at Harrisburg, on the second Wednesday, being the tenth day of January next, 1844:

"Resolved, That we recommend to all the Temperance Associations of this Commonwealth, to appoint Delegates, to meet in Convention, in the Borough of Harrisburg, on the second Wednesday of January, 1844: and that the said Societies furnish the Chairman of their respective Delegations with a Report, embracing the names of their Officers, and the number of Members belonging to the Association, together with any other information they may think proper to lay before the Convention."
It is also earnestly requested that all Associations which do not send Delegates to the proposed Convention, address a letter "to the President of the Temperance Convention at Harrisburg," containing the information desired by the Resolution above stated: so that satisfactory Temperance Statistics, of the whole Commonwealth, may thus be had. JOHN C. BUCHER, and others. State Central Committee.

Fresh Shal, the first of the season, were exposed for sale in the market house in Savannah, Ga., on the 6th instant.

NOTICE.

ALL persons indebted to the subscriber, to save cost will make immediate payment. All the accounts are now in the hands of a proper officer for collection—it is useless to wait any longer. He is determined to have money if it is to be had; he has a desire to pay his creditors, and therefore urges payment of those who owe him. JACOB HOFFMAN. Huntingdon Nov. 15, 1843.

TAVERN NOTICES.

To the Honorable the Judges of the court of Common Pleas of Huntingdon county, holding and composing a court of Quarter Sessions of the peace in and for said county, at January Sessions, A. D. 1844.

The petition of Mary Scullin respectfully sheweth, that she is still provided with house room, stable, hayrack and all the necessary accommodations for keeping a house of public entertainment at her old stand in the borough of Petersburg in said county.

She therefore prays your Honors to grant her a license to continue to keep a house of public entertainment at the said place for the current ensuing year, and as in duty bound will pray &c.

MARY SCULLIN. We the undersigned, citizens of the borough of Petersburg in said county of Huntingdon, do certify that we are well acquainted with Mary Scullin, the above petitioner, that she is a woman of good repute for honesty and temperance and that she is well provided with house room and other necessary accommodations for the entertainment of strangers and travellers, and that in our opinion a tavern at the place applied for is necessary for the accommodation of strangers and travellers. To the Honorable, the Court of Quarter Sessions of Huntingdon county.

The petition of James Chamberlain, of the town of Warriorsmark, in the county of Huntingdon, respectfully represents that your petitioner is desirous of keeping a public house or tavern, in the house he now occupies, (formerly kept by Wm. Shipley, dec'd.) that he has provided himself with necessaries for the convenience and accommodation of travellers and strangers, he therefore prays the court to grant him a license to keep a house of public entertainment in said house and he will pray &c.

JAMES CHAMBERLAIN. We the subscribers, inhabitants of the township of Warriorsmark, in which the above inn is prayed to be licensed, do certify that James Chamberlain, the above applicant, is of good repute for honesty and temperance and is well provided with house room and conveniences for the lodging and accommodation of strangers and travellers & that such an inn is necessary to accommodate the public.

SHERIFF'S SALES.

By virtue of sundry writs of Levari Facias and Venditioni Exponas, issued out of the Court of Common Pleas of Huntingdon county, and to me directed, will be exposed to public sale, at the Court House in the borough of Huntingdon, on Monday the 8th day of January, 1844, the following property, viz:

A tract, piece or parcel of land situate in the township of Woodberry, in the county of Huntingdon, containing 375 acres and 134 perches of limestone land, being the whole of a survey made in the name of Alexander Douglass, containing 389 acres and part of a survey in the name of John Swift, adjoining lands of Joseph Feay, Jacob Rodkey, Charles Echoltz, George Clapper and the Franktown branch of the Juniata river, about 230 acres of which are cleared and cultivated, having thereon erected Franklin Forge, a stone cottage house, a log barn and a number of houses and work shops for the use of the Forge hands.

Also, three adjoining tracts of unseated land situate in Franktown township, in said county, one thereof containing 400 acres, surveyed on a warrant in the name of James Hunter, another thereof containing 17 acres and 25 perches, in the name of Absalom Boyles, and the other thereof containing 54 acres and 23 perches, also in the name of Absalom Boyles, and a piece or parcel of land adjoining the same containing 6 acres, known by the name of "The Gul," and being a part of a survey of 150 acres made in the name of James Hunter.

Also, a tract of barren land situate in Woodberry township, in said county, containing 204 acres and 150 perches, being part of a tract of land surveyed on a warrant dated 25th August, 1794, in the name of Caleb Newbold, the other part of which is hereafter mentioned and described along with the lands attached to Springfield Furnace.

Also, the right title and interest of Samuel Royer in and to the following mentioned and described seven tracts of unseated land, situate partly in Woodberry and partly in Franktown townships, in said county, viz: one thereof containing 426 acres and 140 perches, surveyed on a warrant in the name of Jonas Hartzel—one thereof containing 372 acres and 122 perches surveyed on a warrant in the name of Isaac Hartzel, one thereof containing 479 acres and 153 perches surveyed in the name of Jonas Hartzel Jr.—one thereof containing 371 acres and 2 perches surveyed in the name of Jonathan Hartzel—one thereof containing 165 acres and 59 perches surveyed on a warrant in the name of George Hartzel—one thereof containing 161 acres and 77 perches surveyed on a warrant in the name of John Hartzel, and the other thereof containing 122 acres and 129 perches surveyed on a warrant in the name of Catharine Hartzel, all of which warrants are dated respectively 13th February, 1791. The last described three tracts being only parts of surveys, the remaining parts of which are respectively described in the lands hereafter mentioned, as attached and belonging to Springfield Furnace.

The above mentioned and described real estate all belongs to and composes the Franklin Forge property. Also four lots of ground situate in the town of Franktown, in the said county of Huntingdon, on the northerly side of main street, and marked in the plan of said town numbers 18, 19, 20 and 21—thereon erected a dwelling house, barn, tanyard and outbuildings.

Also, four lots of ground situate in the town of Franktown aforesaid, on the back street and numbered 45, 46, 47, and 48 in the plan of said town.

Also, two adjoining lots of ground in the town of Williamsburg, in said county, numbered 76 and 77 in the plan of said town, fronting each 50 feet on Main street, and running back at right angles 175 feet to an alley—having thereon erected a two story brick dwelling house, a log stable and two frame shops.

Also, a tract of unseated mountain land situate in the township of Franktown, in said county, on the south side of the Brush mountain, containing 370 acres, adjoining lands of Michael Hileman, David Markey and Christian Garber.

Also, all the right, title and interest of Samuel Royer in and to the following mentioned and described real estate, composing the Springfield Furnace property, viz:
