THE EDITOR.

Canal Commissioners.

The Harrisburg Telegraph of Wednesday last says:—"The new Canal Board met in the Canal Commissioners' Room, on Monday, the 8th inst., and in pursuance of the requirements of the law, drew ballots for the length of their respective terms: William B. Foster, Jr., drew 3 years; James Clark, "2"; Jesse Miller, "1".

James Clark was chosen President of the Board; David Mitchell, of Bradford, Secretary, in the room of Thomas Wilson, Esq.; and William Jack, of Westmoreland, Assistant Clerk, in the place of Jno. P. Anderson, Esq.

Mr. Wilson's removal is viewed by citizens of all parties in Harrisburg, with much regret. His successor is one of Mr. Foster's favorites, under whom he served as Engineer on the North Branch Division of the Pa. Canal.

The appointment of Mr. Jack looks like more "Reform with a Vengeance." It is a fine commentary upon the clamor raised against the late Board, by the Anti-Porter faction, on the ground that the office was abolished by the Legislature.—There is no doubt that it was, but it is evident that "no streak" of Locofocism cares much for law, when it suits its purposes to disregard it.

Arrest of a Governor.

Governor Thomas, of Maryland, has been arrested for threatening Dr. Wm. Tyler, of Frederick. The Herald of that town states that Dr. Tyler, one of the most influential and respectable citizens of Frederick, for many years enjoying an extensive practice, and also president of the Farmers' and Mechanics' Bank at that place, received some time ago a letter from the Governor, of a somewhat hostile character, to which, however, no attention was paid. More recently he received another letter, couched in harsh language, and threatened him with personal violence, if he did not before some definite period, leave the town. Mr. T., by advice of his friends, then had the Governor bound over in $1,500 to keep the peace. The provocation alleged upon the part of the Governor for this hostility of feeling had reference to the unhappy alienation now existing between Mr. and Mrs. Thomas.

Murder Legally Justified.

A New Orleans paper of the 6th ultimo, gives an account of a trial for murder in Covington of that State, which resulted in the acquittal of the defendant, on the ground of the necessity of the crime! The facts were briefly these:

It appears that in April last, Hiram and Joseph Adams, brothers, of Washington Parish, La., were shot down in their own house by several of their exasperated neighbors, who were subsequently arrested and indicted for murder. The trial commenced on the 28th, when after the evidence on the part of the State, the purport of which was the identity of the prisoners at the bar as the persons who committed the murder, was disposed of, the counsel for the defence arose, and to the utter astonishment of the crowd who thronged the Court House, announced that he had been authorized by his clients to make a full admission of their participation in the fact which they were charged.

The position he said was a bold one, yet he feared not the result; he was sure that he should be able to convince the Jury that justice would require a verdict of acquittal. Several of the oldest citizens of the Parish were brought to the stand and testified to the many deeds of bloodshed, and robbery, and theft, and perjury, and adultery, and in a word, every dark crime that stains the face of society, and all of which had been enacted for the last twenty years in their neighborhood, and the commission of which all concurred in attributing to the murdered Adams.

The last witness on the part of the defence was a brother of the murdered Adams, who fully corroborated all the previous testimony with regard to their utter depravity. On summing up, the defence contended that the necessity of the case justified the act, and cited the execution of the murderers on board the brig-of-war Somers, as a case in point.

The trial is said to have been conducted with distinguished ability on both sides, and resulted in the acquittal of the accused.

The "Lancaster Union," one of the ablest Antislavery papers in the State, has passed from Mr. Middleton into the hands of Mr. HENRY MONTGOMERY, formerly of the Harrisburg Chronicle.—Mr. Montgomery has flung aloft the Clay flag, and battles manfully for gallant "Harry of the West."

JOHN STROHM, Esq.—We understand, says the Lancaster Examiner, that Mr. Stroh declines allowing his name to be brought before the State Convention of the 4th of March, as a candidate for Governor.

COUNTY MEETING.

A meeting of the Whigs and Antislaverys of Huntingdon county assembled at the old Court House, in the borough of Huntingdon, on Wednesday evening, the 10th inst., and organized by appointing the following officers,
GEN. S. MILES GREEN, President,

PETER HEWIT,
WM. WAGNER, } V. Presidents.
JOHN KRATZER,
William L. Spear, } Sec'y's.
Adam Hall,

The following preamble and resolutions were submitted to the meeting, by A. W. Benedict, and unanimously adopted.

WHEREAS, we believe it to be the duty, as well as the privilege, of American citizens to assemble and consult upon principles of Government; to express their opinions of national and state measures as well as men; and, having formed their opinions of government, its powers, and its duties, it is incumbent upon them as freemen, to select their men to carry out their measures, to urge their claims, and qualifications upon their fellow-citizens, and by every honest means endeavor to secure their election. And whereas, the time is fast approaching when we shall be called upon to choose men to administer the affairs of our State as well as Nation.

Resolved, That it be recommended to each borough and township in Huntingdon county, to organize for the contest, by forming Associations or Clubs, to promote our principles, and its advocates; and that Committees of Vigilance be appointed for the respective boroughs and townships, by the County Committee.

Resolved, That it should be a source of much gratification to every lover of his country to see that the feelings of the people are at last aroused to a sense of the injuries which have been daily inflicted upon them, by the rude and ruthless hand of the venial and corrupt—whose love of country is love of office—who love its institutions because they feed at its crib—and that they are now casting about their eyes to seek for men who have a love of country based upon a higher motive than the love of gain.

Resolved, That wherever we look to find such a man to give the highest office, not only in the gift of a free people, but in the world, our eyes still rest upon the same object, and there appears to be but one man to whom the people can be with confidence turn, with an assurance made doubly sure, that their confidence will not be misplaced—as possessing all that is comprehended in the statesman, the patriot, the man of integrity, and the man whose acts and whole life say he is all American—and that we are proud to say that that man is the "Mill Boy of the Slashes" of Hanover—"Harry of the West"—our own Henry Clay.

Resolved, That we pledge ourselves to go into the campaign of 1844 determined that the "same old con" shall be again abroad—and old Huntingdon sends greeting to the "Little Red Fox of Kinderhook."

Resolved, That Pennsylvania must redeem her character from the foul stain cast upon it by misrule, by electing men worthy as well as capable.

Resolved, That Gen. James Irvin is the man for the times, the man for the people, and the man for victory; and that our delegates be instructed to use their influence to procure his nomination by the 4th of March Convention.

Resolved, That A. K. Cornyn, Esq., and Dr. Alex. McKamey be the delegates to represent our county in the said 4th of March Convention.

Resolved, That inasmuch as the present Senator from this district resides in Bedford county, that therefore Huntingdon county is entitled to the Senatorial delegate to the 4th of March Convention, and we respectfully ask Bedford to concur in the nomination of S. Calvin, Esq.

On motion of Thos Fisher

Resolved, That in case of any vacancy in the delegation, the members of the Legislature from our county be authorized to fill the same.

On motion

Resolved, That Gen. S. Miles Green, the delegate to represent this district in the Baltimore convention to nominate candidates for President and Vice President of the United States, and be instructed to support Henry Clay.

David Blair Esq. offered the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted.

Resolved, That our delegate to the National Convention to nominate candidates for President and Vice President of the United States, is hereby instructed to use his influence to procure the nomination for Vice President of Harmer Denny of Pittsburgh.

On motion
Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be signed by the officers and published in the Huntingdon Journal and Hollidaysburg Register, and in all other papers in the State friendly to the cause. Signed by the officers.

Foreign News.

From the New York Express.
By the arrival of the packet ship Burgundy, Capt Wotten, from Havre, we have our files of Journal du Havre and Debats to the 8th December, and verbal intelligence two days after.

We have time to make but few translations and what English intelligence we have is very brief.

The London papers announce the arrival of the overland mail. To the details of the events already known of the Penjaub, is added the murder of Saroun Hurrah Goubal Sing. An army of fifty thousand men had assembled on the Sutlege. The State of Schinde remains in the same condition. The news from China is down to the 28th August, but is unimportant.

The colony of Hong Kong makes little progress. Disease is decimating the European troops—two officers and forty four soldiers of the 55th regiment having died during the months of June and July.—The restrictions imposed as to the employment of pilots on the river exist no longer. The captain can take any pilot he pleases, provided the pilot has license.

The London Standard, speaking of letters from China received by the India mail, says—"Exporters to China have acted imprudently in crowding upon the markets such an abundance of articles as to lower the price of all in the market."

There is much speculation in the French papers upon the forthcoming opening of the Chambers, and also upon the movements of the Duke of Bordeaux in London. They remark that none of the distinguished aristocracy of England are visitors at his hotel in Belgrave Square. They even say that the Queen visited Sir Robert Peel, to avoid receiving him officially, and so as not to give him affront. The Duke was expected to leave London on the 15th December, a few days after which the Queen would return.

M. Arago is publishing in the French papers his letters on the fortification of Paris. He has always been, he says, the adversary of detached forts.

The Algiers Monitor of the 25th November, gives a long account of the expedition of Gen. Tempour, in which the Calif Abdel Kaider, was surprised, and in the midst of his camp, forty leagues in the desert, killed with four hundred of his men.

The Duke d'Aumale had arrived at Algiers, where a banquet was given him.

The packet ship Francis I., Ainsworth, arrived at Havre on the 8th, in 20 days from New York, bringing two days later news than the steamer to Liverpool.—Cotton and ashes, however, were not affected by the advices.

From Spain we have the usual variety of troubles and disturbances. Olazaga, the Minister of State, has been removed by the Queen, and the whole Ministry, after this, gave in their resignations, with two exceptions, who with the President and Vice President of the Cortes are charged with the formation of a new Cabinet. The charge against Olazaga was, that he attempted to dissolve the Cortes, without having concert with his colleagues.

Madrid was quiet on the 1st December, but the excitement throughout the country seemed greater than ever.

A telegraphic despatch from Baronne, the 4th of December, says—"By a decree of the 30th of November, M. Gonzales Bravo has been named Minister of Foreign Affairs. In his character as Chancellor he presented to the Cortes, on the 1st, the declaration of the Queen, showing that M. Olazaga, after having shut himself up with her Majesty, in her apartment, on the night of the 28th of November, forced her by holding her hand, to sign a decree for the dissolution of the Cortes."

The Augsburg Gazette, of Dec. 2d, says "letters has been received from Cairo to-night, which say that the Pasha of Soudon has been poisoned by order of Mehemet Ali, and that also there have been some disorders in Syria."

It is stated that "during the late earthquake at Point Petre, a gentleman was rescued from death by the heroic efforts a slave. He was instantly offered a handsome reward for his humanity. 'No, no,' said the generous fellow—'nothing for money to-day—all for the love of God!' History scarcely records a nobler sentiment. The Colonial Council voted him 2,000 francs, 1500 to purchase his freedom and 500 for an outfit in his new career."

Mr Walsh writes to the National Intelligencer thus—"All endeavors to extenuate the backwardness and magnify the resources of the non-paying States may well be postponed. The European world is inaccessible to apologetical or dilatory pleas."

It is said that a retailer of eggs, in one of the markets in Liverpool, turns over above £30,000 per annum in this article alone.

The King of Sweden has conferred the Grand Cross of the Order of the Sword on Lieutenant General Count Harsipe, a peer of France.
