

VARIETY.

A Military Heroine.

I remember we had a virago attached to the Grenadiers through the whole of the Peninsular war. She was in strength and stature equally remarkable; and, though a brigand in conduct and appearance, still a corner of the heart was won. Amid the rolling musketry, Big Mary would plunder the dying and the dead without compunction, while the next day she would travel thirty miles of country to procure a rabbit or a fowl for a wounded officer. Four liege lords she buried during the campaign—two husbands existing on the field and the other twin in hospital, sedulously attended night and day to the last, by this wild but warm-hearted personage. In every action where the colors of the gallant—the were uncased, Mary was fearlessly under fire, and, whether advancing or retreating, though the ford was deep, the night dark, and the weather desperate, she was always at the head of the grenadiers. All and every peril she outlived; and when the regiment embarked in the Garonne, Mary quitted France with a fine child, a fifth husband, and (as it was said and believed) more than a thousand dollars. I met her years afterwards, the owner of a public house in the south of Ireland, and, for the fifth time, a widow.

"I'll never marry again, Major O'Flaherty!" said the mourner; "not but I have had offers from two pensioners and a police sergeant. But me, that never even listened to a light-bob, and wouldn't touch a battalion man with the tongue—me, with my four slashing husbands stretched the Lord knows where, in the Peninsular—and Tom Carrigan, the last one snug in the church-yard of Kilmain! Me marry one of the King's bad bargains, a flat-footed militiaman, or a pig-driver of a police! He this vargin hand, Major, jewel out of respect to the dead I'll never crook a knee before a priest or parson wid the face of clay that is under six feet two—nor take a man, Major asthore, that's not able to thrash me when I deserve it!"

TAKE YOUR TIME TO DIE.—The following is a capital anecdote, which actually occurred some years since, in one of the theatres in Dublin:

During the performance of a play, that was of course never repeated, the last scene was the death of a powerful monarch, who, in his dying moments was dictating his will—such an one was to succeed him to the throne—another was to be vicerey here—another there—and in keeping with a king of such vast possessions, he consumed a great deal of time in dying, so much so indeed that one at least of the audience got out of all patience and cried out—

"I say, Mr. King here I wish you'd die, and bad luck to ye—for ye'll be after keeping us all night here to see the end of ye!"

"Pat Dooly! how'd your tongue for a blackguard," shouted one on the opposite side of the theatre fiercely shaking a good shillalah at Mr. Dooly—"how'd yer tongue I say, for a blackguard, or I'll bate ye worse nor I did at Killarney fair." Then turning to the dying monarch, he addressed his majesty with the utmost earnestness thus:

"Tak yer time to die, yer worship if it be an hour yet, and never a bit mind Pat Dooly, the spalpeen beyant!"

MELANCHOLY SUICIDE.—An unusually painful occurrence took place at Milltown on Sunday night of last week. An amiable young woman, about twenty years of age, committed suicide by throwing herself into the river. In a bundle, which was found in her bed-room, was a note, of which the following is a correct copy:—

"O my nervous hand will hardly allow me to write a few lines to my dear friends. All that is wanting to relieve me of my trouble is a watery grave. A little courage will execute the plan. I want all who are indebted to me to pay it to my friends. O my dear mother!"

SUSAN WALDRON."

A GREAT PRINCE.—Cinque of the Aristocrat, who was made quite a lion in New York, in consequence of his killing the Captain and other white men of a Spanish merchant vessel, went back to Africa, married beat and deserted five wives, and finally ran off with all the funds of his companions.

The tender sex are becoming outrageous of late. At New York on Saturday, one Ann Flynn bit off the ear of Mary Atkins. A few days ago two females had a street fight in Pittsburg, in which one tore off the ear-rings, jewels, &c., of the other. It was an affair of the affections.

We like a good thing, even when uttered by a Whig. Here is Lieutenant Wallace's last:

"I declare, Sally," exclaimed an antiquated Whig maiden after reading the names of the nominees "I declare! our people used a new kind of tea at Baltimore instead of 'cider.' Well, I've drank a good deal of, Old Hyson," Young Hyson, and 'Hyson skin' in my day, but really I think the best of all must be the Fealing-Hyson."

TALL BUSINESS.—There is one establishment in the city of New York which makes, furnishes and sells, every week, one thousand clocks. Although they go "on tick," yet they are sold for cash.

Proclamation.

WRIGHT'S Indian Vegetable Pills.

If, during the continuance of storms and floods, the channels of

OUR MIGHTY RIVERS become so obstructed as to afford an insufficient outlet for the superabundant waters, we can expect nothing less than that the surrounding country will be

Overwhelmed with the Flood In like manner with the human body—if the skin, kidneys and bowels (the natural outlets for useless and corrupt humors) become so obstructed as to fail in affording a full discharge of those impurities which are in all cases

THE CAUSE OF SICKNESS, we surely can expect no other results than that the whole frame will sooner or later be

OVERWHELMED WITH DISEASE As in the first place, if we would prevent an inundation we must remove all obstructions, in order that there may be no hindrance to the free discharge of the superabundant waters. So, in the second place, if we would prevent and cure disease, we must open and keep open, all natural drains of the body.

Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills of North American College of Health, will be found one of the best if not the very

BEST MEDICINE IN THE WORLD for carrying out this beautiful and simple theory, because they completely cleanse the stomach and bowels from all bilious humors, and other impurity, and at the same time promote a healthy discharge from the lungs, skin and kidneys; consequently as all the natural drains are opened,

DISEASE OF EVERY NAME IS LITERALLY

DRIVEN FROM THE BODY. Caution.—As the great popularity and consequent great demand for Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills has raised up a host of counterfeiters, country storekeepers and agents will be on their guard against the many impostors who are travelling about the country selling to the unsuspecting a spurious article for the genuine.

It should be remembered that all authorized agents are provided with a certificate of agency, signed by WILLIAM WRIGHT, Vice President of the North American College of Health. Consequently, those who offer Indian Vegetable Pills, and cannot show a certificate as above described will be known as impostors.

The following highly respectable storekeepers have been appointed agents for the sale of

Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills, and of whom it is conscientiously believed the genuine medicines can be obtained:

William Stewart, Huntingdon. Henry Leamer Hollidaysburg, B. F. Bell, Antietam. Samuel McNamee, Newry. Samuel S. Isett, Tyrone township. Millikens & Kessler, Mill Creek A. & N. Cresswell, Petersburg. Gemmel & Porter, Alexandria. Moore & Steiner, Water Street. Joseph Patton, Jr. Duncansville. R. H. McCormick, Collinsville. Wolf & Willet, Frankstown. Henry Brewster, Shirleyburg. Walter Graham, Yellow Springs. Office devoted exclusively to the sale of the medicine, wholesale and retail, No. 169 Race street, Philadelphia.

Beware of counterfeiters.—The public are respectfully informed that medicine purporting to be Indian Pills made by one V. O. Flack, are not the genuine

Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills. The only security against imposition is to purchase from the regularly advertised agents, and in all cases be particular to ask for Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills. Dec. 27, 1843.—1y.

W. H. CREMER, ATTORNEY AT LAW.

HUNTINGDON, PA.

TO INVALIDS.

How important it is that you commence without loss of time with BRANDRETH'S PILLS. They mildly but surely remove all impurities from the blood, and no case of sickness can effect the human frame, that these celebrated Pills do not relieve as much as medicine can do. COLDS and COUGHS are more benefited by the Brandreth Pills than by Lozenges and Candies. Very well, perhaps, as palliatives, but worth nothing as ERADICATORS of diseases from the human system. The Brandreth Pills cure, they do not merely relieve, they cure. Diseases, whether chronic or recent, infectious or otherwise, will certainly be cured by the use of these all-sufficient Pills.

CURE OF A CANCEROUS SORE. SING SING, January 21, 1843. HONORED SIR, BRANDRETH:

Owing to you a debt of gratitude that money cannot pay. I am induced to make a public acknowledgment of the benefit my wife has derived from your invaluable Pills. About three years this winter she was taken with a pain in her acle; which soon became very much inflamed, and swollen, so much that we became much alarmed, and sent for the doctor. During his attendance the pain and swelling increased to an alarming degree, and in three weeks from its first commencing it became a running sore. She could get no rest at night the pain was so great. Our first doctor attended her for six months, and she received no benefit whatever, the pain growing worse and the sore larger all the time. He said it was healed up it would be her death, but he appeared to be at a loss how to proceed, and my poor wife still continued to suffer the most terrible tortures. We therefore sought other aid, in a Botanical doctor, who said when he first saw it that he could soon cure the sore and give her ease at once. To our surprise he gave her no relief, and acknowledged that it quite baffled all his skill.

Thus we felt after having tried during one whole year the experience of two celebrated physicians in vain, in absolute despair. My poor wife's constitution rapidly failing in the prime of her years from her continued suffering. Under these circumstances we concluded that we would try your Universal Vegetable Pills, determined to fairly test their curative effects. To my wife's great comfort the first few doses afforded great relief of the pain. Within one week to the astonishment of ourselves and every one who knew the case, the swelling and the inflammation began to ease so that she felt quite comfortable, and would sleep comfortably, and after six weeks' use she was able to go thro' the house and again attend to the management of her family, which she had not done for nearly fourteen months. In a little over two months from the time she first commenced the use of your invaluable Pills her ailment was quite sound, and her health better than it had been in quite a number of years before. I send you this statement after two years test of the cure, considering it only an act of justice to you and the public at large. We are with much gratitude, Very respectfully,

TIMOTHY & ELIZA A. LITTLE.

PS—The Botanical Doctor pronounced the sore cancerous, and finally said no good could be done, unless the whole of the flesh was cut off and the bone scraped. Thank a kind Providence, the medicine, and your Pills, which saved us from all further misery, and for which we hope to be thankful.

T. & E. A. L.
