

The Rich Merchant.

BY MRS. JANE WEAVER.

It was late at night, and the streets were nearly deserted, the more especially as it was snowing fast. A single traveller, however, might have been seen wrapped in a thick overcoat, urging his way against the tempest, by the light of the dim lamps. Suddenly, as he passed, a ruinous monument the figure of a girl started up before him.

"Please sir," she said, "if it's only a penny—mother's sick, and we have eat nothing to-day."

The first impulse of the moment was to go on: his second to stop. He looked at the girl. Her face was thin and pale, and her garments scanty. He was a man of good impulses, so he put his hand towards his pocket, intending to give her a shilling. She saw the act, and her lustrous eyes brightened. But the traveller had forgot that his overcoat was buttoned tightly over his pocket.

"It is too much trouble," he said to himself, "and this wind is very cutting. Besides, these beggars are usually cheats. I'll warrant this girl wants the money to spend in a gin shop." And speaking aloud, he said, somewhat harshly, "I have nothing for you: if you are really destitute, the Guardians of the Poor will take care of you."

The girl shrank back without a word, and drew her tattered garments around her shivering form. But a tear glittered on her cheek in the light of the dim lamp.

The man passed on, and turning the next corner, soon knocked at the door of a splendid mansion, through whose rich curtained windows a rosy light streamed out across the storm. A servant obediently gave him entrance. At the sound of his footstep the parlor door was hastily opened, and a beautiful girl apparently about seventeen, sprang into his arms, kissed him on his cheek, and then began to assist him in removing his overcoat.

"What kept you so long, dear papa!" she said, "I had known where you were I would have sent the carriage. You never stay so late in the office."

"No my love, I was at my lawyer's—busy very busy, and all for you," and he kindly patted her cheek. "But now, Maggy, can't you give me some supper?"

The daughter rang the bell, and ordered the supper to be served. It was such an epicurean delight in just the supper for a traveller on a night like that.

"Pa," said the daughter, when it was finished, "I hope you are in a good humor, for I have a favor to ask of you," and she threw her arms around his neck and looked up in his face, with that winning smile and those beautiful dark eyes of hers. "I wish to give a ball on my birth-day—my eighteenth birth-day. It will cost, oh! a sight of money, but you're a kind good papa, and I know you have been successful or you would not have been to your lawyer's."

"Yes my darling," he said, fondly kissing her, "the cotton speculation has turned out well. I sold all I had of the article this afternoon, received the money and took it to my lawyer's telling him to invest it in real estate. I think I shall soon give up business."

"Oh! I do do papa. But you'll give me this ball—won't you?"

"You little tease," said the father, but he spoke smilingly; and putting his hand in his pocket took a note for five hundred dollars, and placed it in his child's hand. "Take this, if it is not enough, you must have another I suppose. But don't trouble me about it any more."

The next morning broke clear, but the snow was a foot deep on the level, and here and there lay in huge drifts, blocking up the door ways. At ten o'clock the rich Merchant was on his way to his counting-room. He turned down to the same street up which he had come the preceding evening. A crowd had gathered round the open cellar door of a ruined tenement. The merchant paused to inquire what was the matter.

"A woman, sir, has been found dead below there," said one of the spectators: she starved to death, it is said, and they have sent for the coroner. Her daughter has just come back, after being out all night. I believe she was begging. That's her, moaning."

"Ah said the merchant; and a pang went through his heart like an ice-bolt, for he remembered denying a petitioner the night before. He pushed through the crowd and descended the steps. A girl covered over an emaciated corpse, that lay on a heap of straw, in one corner of the damp apartment. It was the same girl he had feared it would prove. The merchant was horror struck.

Which will you do?

One of two things must be done in this country. Parents must expend money to educate children, or they must pay taxes to build penitentiaries and to punish crime. There is a great mistake about what is called education. Some suppose every learned man is an educated man. No such thing.—That man is educated who knows himself, and who takes accurate common sense views of men and things around him. Some very learned men, now are the greatest fools in the world; and the reason is they are not educated men. Learning is the only means, not the end: its value consists in giving the power of acquiring the discipline which when properly managed, it gives the mind. Some of the greatest men in the world were not over stocked with learning, but their actions proved they were thoroughly educated. Washington, Franklin, Sherman, were of this class and similar though less striking instances may now be found in all countries. To be educated a man must be able to reason, compare and decide accurately. He may study metaphysics till he is grey, and if he is nothing more, he is an uneducated man. There is no class in the country who have a stronger interest in the proper education of children than farmers, and the subject should receive from them the attention it deserves.

WRIGHT'S Indian Vegetable Pills.

If, during the continuance of storms and floods, the channels of OUR MIGHTY RIVERS become so obstructed as to afford an insufficient outlet for the superabundant waters, we can expect nothing less than that the surrounding country will be

Overwhelmed with the Flood In like manner with the human body—if the skin, kidneys and bowels (the natural outlets for useless and corrupt humors) become so obstructed as to fail in affording a free discharge of those impurities which are in all cases

THE CAUSE OF SICKNESS, we surely can expect no other results than that the whole frame will sooner or later be OVERWHELMED WITH DISEASE. As in the first place, if we would prevent an inundation we must remove all obstructions, in order that there may be no hindrance to the free discharge of the superabundant waters. So, in the second place, if we would prevent and cure disease, we must open and keep open, all natural drains of the body.

Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills of North American College of Health, will be found one of the best if not the very BEST MEDICINE IN THE WORLD for carrying out this beautiful and simple theory, because they completely cleanse the stomach and bowels from all bilious humors, and other impurity, and at the same time promote a healthy discharge from the lungs, skin and kidneys; consequently as all the natural drains are opened,

DISEASE OF EVERY NAME IS LITERALLY DRIVEN FROM THE BODY.

Caution.—As the great popularity and consequent great demand for Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills has raised up a host of counterfeiters, country storekeepers and agents will be on their guard against the many impostors who are travelling about the country selling to the unsuspecting a spurious article for the genuine. It should be remembered that all authorized agents are provided with a certificate of agency, signed by WILLIAM WRIGHT, Vice President of the North American College of Health. Consequently, those who offer Indian Vegetable Pills, and cannot show a certificate as above described will be known as impostors.

The following highly respectable storekeepers have been appointed agents for the sale of Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills, of whom it is confidently believed the genuine medicines can be obtained: William Stewart, Huntingdon. Henry Leamer, Hollidaysburg. B. F. Bell, Antes township. Robert McNamara, Newry. Samuel S. Isett, Tyrone township. Millikens & Kessler, Mill Creek. A. & N. Crosswell, Petersburg. Gemmel & Porter, Alexandria. Moore & Steiner, Water Street. Joseph Patton, Jr. Duncansville. R. H. McCormick, Collinsville. Wolf & Willet, Frankstown. Henry Brewster, Shirleyburg. Walter Graham, Yellow Springs.

Office devoted exclusively to the sale of the medicine, wholesale and retail, No. 169 Race street, Philadelphia. Beware of counterfeiters.—The public are respectfully informed that medicine purporting to be Indian Pills made by one V. O. Flack, are not the genuine Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills. The only security against imposture is to purchase from the regularly advertised agents, and in all cases be particular to ask for Wright's Indian Vegetable Pill. Dec. 27, 1843.—1y.

TO INVALIDS.

How important it is that you commence without loss of time with BRANDRETH PILLS. They mildly but surely remove all impurities from the blood, and no case of sickness can effect the human frame, that these celebrated Pills do not relieve as much as medicine can do. COLDS and COLICUS are more benefited by the Brandreth Pills than by Lozenges and Candies. Very well, perhaps, as palliatives, but worth nothing as ERADICATORS of diseases from the human system. The Brandreth Pills cure, they do not merely relieve, they cure. Diseases, whether chronic or recent, infectious or otherwise, will certainly be cured by the use of these all-sufficient Pills.

CURE OF A CANCEROUS SORE. SING SING, January 21, 1843. DR. BENJAMIN BRANDRETH: Honored Sir,—

Owing to you a debt of gratitude that money cannot pay, I am induced to make a public acknowledgment of the benefit my wife has derived from your invaluable Pills. About three years this winter she was taken with a pain in her acle, which soon became very much inflamed, and swollen, so much that we became much alarmed, and sent for the doctor. During his attendance the pain and swelling increased to an alarming degree, and in three weeks from its first commencing it became a running sore. She could get no rest at night the pain was so great. Our first doctor attended her for six months, and she received no benefit whatever, the pain growing worse and the sore larger all the time. He said it was healed up it would be her death, but he appeared to be at a loss how to proceed, and my poor wife still continued to suffer the most terrible tortures. We therefore sought other aid, in a Botanical doctor, who said when he first saw it that he could soon cure the sore and give her ease at once. To our surprise he gave her no relief, and acknowledged that it quite baffled all his skill.

I thus felt after having tried during one whole year the experience of two celebrated physicians in vain, in absolute despair. My poor wife's constitution rapidly failing in the prime of her years from her continued suffering. Under these circumstances we concluded that we would try your Universal Vegetable Pills, determined to fairly test their curative effects. To my wife's great comfort the first few doses afforded great relief of the pain. Within one week to the astonishment of ourselves and every one who knew the case, the swelling and the inflammation began to cease so that she felt quite easy, and would sleep comfortably, and in six weeks she was able to go through the house and again attend to the management of her family, which she had not done for nearly fourteen months. In a little over two months from the time she first commenced the use of your invaluable Pills her acle was quite sound, and her health better than it had been in quite a number of years before. I send you this statement after two years test of the cure, considering it only an act of justice to you and the public at large. We are with much gratitude, Very respectfully, TIMOTHY & ELIZA A. LITTLE.

PS—The Botanical doctor pronounced the sore cancerous, and finally said no good could be done, unless the whole of the flesh was cut off and the bone scraped. Thank a kind Providence, this made us resort to your Pills, which saved us from all further misery, and for which we hope to be thankful. T. & E. A. L.

Dr. Brandreth's Pills are for sale by the following Agents in Huntingdon county. Thomas Read, Huntingdon. Wm. Stewart, Huntingdon. A. & N. Crosswell, Petersburg. Mary W. Neff, Alexandria. Read the following from Dr. Jacob Hoffman, a physician of extensive practice in Huntingdon county: Dear Sir:—I procured one bottle of Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, from Thomas Read, Esq. of this place, and tried it in a case of obstinate Asthma on a child of Paul Schwelbe, in which many other remedies had been tried without any relief. The Balsam gave sudden relief, and in my opinion the child is effectually cured by its use. Yours, &c. JACOB HOFFMAN, M. D. Dec. 23, 1841.

Dr. Moffat's Life Pills

PHENIX BITTERS. The perfectly safe, unerring and successful treatment of almost every species of disease by the use of Dr. MOFFAT'S LIFE MEDICINES, is no longer an experiment; as a reference to the experience of many thousand patients will satisfactorily prove. During the present month alone, nearly one hundred cases have come to the knowledge of Dr. MOFFAT, where the patient has to all appearance, effected a permanent cure by the exclusive and judicious use of the Life Medicines—some eight or ten of these had been considered hopeless by their physicians. Such happy results are a source of great pleasure to Dr. M., and inspire him with a new confidence to recommend the use of his medicines to his fellow citizens.

THE LIFE MEDICINES are a purely VEGETABLE preparation. They are mild and gentle in their operation, and at the same time thorough—acting rapidly upon the secretions of the system—carrying off all acrimonious humors, and assimilating and purifying the blood. For this reason, in aggravated cases of Dyspepsia, the Life Medicines will give relief in a shorter space of time than any other prescription. In Fever and Ague, Inflammatory Rheumatism, Fevers of every description, Sick Headaches, Heartburn, Dizziness, the Head, Pains in the Chest, Flatulency, Impaired Appetite, and in every disease arising from impurity of the blood, or a disordered state of the stomach, the use of these medicines has always proved to be beyond doubt, greatly superior to any other mode of treatment.

All that Dr. Moffat asks of his patients is to be particular in taking them according to the directions. It is not by a newspaper notice, or by any thing that he may say in their favour, that he hopes to gain credit. It is alone by the result of a fair trial. Is the reader an invalid and does he wish to know whether the Life Medicines will suit his own case? If so, let him call at the office of the agent, and procure a copy of the Good Samaritan, published gratuitously. He will there find enumerated very many extraordinary cases of cure; perhaps some exactly similar to his own. Sold by JACOB MILLER, Huntingdon. August 30 1843. 1y.

Philadelphia Package Sales of Boots and Shoes, (Every Tuesday morning, at 10 o'clock,) BY G. W. LORD. CARD.—A combination having been formed by a portion of the Dealers in Boots and Shoes of this city, with the avowed object of suppressing the sale of those goods by auction, it seems proper for the subscriber, (who has held these sales for the past eighteen months) to state that notwithstanding this combination, the sales will not be stopped, but on the contrary, as he will now rely more than ever on the patronage of the country Merchants, the sales will be held every Tuesday morning, at the auctionstore, 208 Market Street, and his arrangements with the Manufacturers, both of this city and all New England, are such as to insure him a constant and full supply of every description of goods. The mere fact of so great an effort being made to put down these sales, is the best evidence the country Merchants can have, that it is for his interest to sustain them.
