Whig Principles.

Whig Frinciples. "The principal objects which, I suppose, engage the common desire and the common exertions of the Whig party, to bring about, in the Government of the United States are: 1. A SOUND NATIONAL CURRENCT, regulated by the will and authority of the nation. 2. Ar ADEQUATE REFERENCE, with fair, protec-tion to AMERICAN INDUSTRE. 3. JUST RESTRAINTS ON THE EXECUTIVE Pow-R, embracing farther restrictions on the exercise xx, embracing farther restrictions on the exercise of the veto. 4. A faithful administration of the PUBLIC NO XAIN, with AN SQUTEALED INTENTION OF LUE proceeds of sales of it among all the states. 5. Ax more an economical ADMINISTRA-tion of THE GOVENNY, leaving public officers perfect freedom of thought and of the right of suf-frage, but with suitable restraints against improper interference in elections. 6. An amendment of the Constitution, limiting the incumbent of the Presidential office to a SIX-OLE TEM.

These objects attained. I think that we should cease to be afflicted with bad administration of the Government."—Henry Clay.

The Flanagan Case.

The arguments on the Rule for a new trial in this case were concluded on Wednesday last, before Judge Rodgers, of the Supreme Court. A new trial was refused; and consequently the for-mer sentence of death must be carried into effect. Truly, "the way of the transgressor is hard."

The Philadelphia Riots.

In this paper, commencing on the first page, will e found a full account of the recent riots in 'hiladelphia. The Museum of last Saturday Philadelphia. contains the following editorial remarks on the subject : "We are in the midst of great events. Philadelphia has been the scene of tremendous riots; of bloed incounters between Americans and A. mericans. The accurate and extended accounts of the Reporters, which were taken down on the of trouble, will give a clear view of the scene of trouble, wil Riots up to this time.

There is a great deal of false, miserably false public opinion respecting this matter. There is not universally that clear and noble stand taken in defence of Supreme Law which ought to be taken ; or if urged as a principle, it is denied in the coloring given to the circumstances of the Riot.

All now is apparently calm in Southwark. But it is not the calmness of real quite. There is the spirit silently at work, which would renew the bloody scenes, if the Governor should according to his authority, order the troops to re-enter the Dis trict. The mob rules as far it chooses. Threats of death and destruction are uttered against all the soldiery who are obnoxious to them. One soldier while there barely escaped with his life, being secognized since the arrangement was agreed upon between the Sheriff and authorities of Southwark. So much for the Declaration of Peace!

The press generally takes a correct stand both in and detail of the matter. principle and detail of the matter. And we trust that by strenuous and oft repeated arguments and exhortations in favor of the majesty of the law, a renovation of public sentiment and action may take place.

The city is alive with troops. The cavalry from the country are very numerous and presents a noble appearance--men whose temper and strength are not to be doubted in times of peril. The volun-teers displayed during the riots, a spirit worthy American soldiers, and fought against fearful olds. We hope that the terrible scenes will not be renewed. The spectacle of Americans slaughtering Americans in the streets of the city, is too terrible for contemplation. God send, that the appearance of peace may turn to the reality without further deadly strife "

Gen. Markle at Home.

The Locofoco papers in Greensburg, ome two or three weeks since, published what purported to be the proceedings of the "largest political meeting ever held in South Huntingdon township," and in which proceedings Gen. Markle came in for a full share of abuse and decan be in for a thin share of a dubbe and the nunciation. The last Greensburg Intelli-gencer contains a statement, by which it appears, that 22 Locos had met to elect delegates to the county convention, and that after that business had been dispos-

WHAT IS HIS NAME? A good anco-dote, in illustration of the readiness of Locofocoism to swallow any dose pre-scribed by the party leaders, however un-palatable it might be, was tole by Mr. Tracy, one of the speakers at the late Convention at Utica. It was this I and Locofoco of Utica was riding up the line of the Chenango Canal, a mile or two out at the site when he was scenard by one of the city, when he was accosted by one Dudley, a Locofoco lock tender, who in-Dudley, a Locoloco lock tender, who in-quired of him the news from the Balti-more Convention. The answer was that Mr. Polk of Tennessee, had been nominated.—"Good exclaimed our lock tender: "first rate ! the best and stron-gestman we've got ? H hat did you say his name was?"-Herkimer Journal. say

JAMES TODD, Esq.-Mr. Todd, are pleased to learn, although retired from the field of politics, is, nevertheless, friendly to Clay, Frelinghuysen and Markle. The boasting in reference to his change, is therefore groundless. We know Mr. Todd well, and know too, thathe is too deeply imbued with Whig principles, too much the friend of his country, to aid the destructives in their off or the obtain power. Ho may faal efforts to obtain power. He may feel that he has not received that treatment from the Whigs of Philadelphia, which he had a good right to expect, but that, of itself, could not change his powerful mind in reference to the great questions at issue before the country .- Uniontown Democrat.

MORE CHANGES.

The Easton Whig says :--- " Among the many instances of change of opinion the many instances of change of opinion on the great question which is now agi-tating this country, the following, related to us the other day, seems to be as thor-ough as any we have yet heard. A man from a neighboring county, conversing with a good Whig upon the state of poli-tics here, remarked, that he was the youngest of a family of 9 sons, who to-gether with the father, had in 1840 vo-ted for Martin Van Buren, but now they were all going for Henry Clay, the ad-vocate of a Protective Tariff. That's go. were all going for Henry Clay, the ad-vocate of a Protective Tariff. That's go-ing the whole figure."

AN EXCELENT DISTINCTION .- The Editor of the Columbus (Ga.) Enquirer, in a veryable exposition of the duty of Southern Whigs in the present contest, Southern whigh in the present contest, says: " Others may arrange themselves under the banner of Polk, Dallas and Texas. We array ourselves under the standard bearing on its ample folds, Clay, Frelinghuysen and the United States."

The Emperor of Russia, while in Eng-land, always slept on the ground, on a leather tick, stuffed with straw, as being more conducive to health than a feather bed.

A young lady in Mississippi has enter-ed a suit against one Thomas Hope for a breach of promise of marriage. In this case it appears that "Hope told a flat-tering tale."

A foreign paper states that in Ger-many the seeds of the grape are fast com-ing into use as a substitute for coffee.
