

Whig Principles.

The principal objects which, I suppose, engage the common desire and the common exertions of the Whig party, to bring about, in the Government of the United States are:
1. A SOUND NATIONAL CURRENCY, regulated by the will and authority of the nation.
2. AN ADEQUATE REVENUE, with fair protection to AMERICAN INDUSTRY.
3. JUST RESTRAINTS ON THE EXECUTIVE POWER, embracing farther restrictions on the exercise of the veto.
4. A faithful administration of the PUBLIC DOMAIN, with an equitable DISTRIBUTION of the proceeds of sales of it among all the states.
5. AN HONEST AND ECONOMICAL ADMINISTRATION of the GOVERNMENT, leaving public officers perfect freedom of thought and of the right of suffrage, but with suitable restraints against improper interference in elections.
6. An amendment of the Constitution, limiting the incumbent of the Presidential office to a SINGLE TERM.
These objects attained. I think that we should cease to be afflicted with bad administration of the Government."—Henry Clay.

Delegate Elections AND COUNTY CONVENTION.

The Democratic Whig voters of Huntingdon county are respectfully invited to meet in their respective boroughs, townships and districts on SATURDAY THE 10TH OF AUGUST NEXT, to elect two delegates from each of said boroughs and townships, to represent them in the County Convention, which will assemble in the borough of Huntingdon, on Wednesday, the 14th of August, at 2 o'clock P. M., to nominate a County Ticket to be supported at the approaching general election, and also to appoint Congressional and Senatorial conferees, &c.

And in order to obviate the difficulties which have heretofore frequently existed by reason of the voters of some townships and districts disputing about the place of holding the delegate elections in their respective townships and districts, and in order to afford convenience to the voters, it is hereby directed that in all cases where a township or an election district is entitled to only two delegates, that the delegate election be held at the place fixed by law for holding the general election in each township or district, except in the township of Barree, where the usual place of holding at Enonville is considered most convenient; and that said elections in the several boroughs and in the townships connected with boroughs in forming election districts, such as Blair, Shirley, Henderson, Porter, &c., be held at the usual place of holding delegate elections wherever custom has designated a place for that purpose. And for the same reasons, it is further directed that in the townships, boroughs or districts, where the custom has been to hold the delegate elections in daylight, the election shall be opened at 3 o'clock P. M., and continue till 5—where the custom has been to hold by candle light, the election shall be opened at half past 7 o'clock P. M. and continue till half past 9.

Candidates for the following offices are to be nominated by said Convention, viz: one member of Congress in conjunction with the counties of Centre, Mifflin and Juniata: one State Senator in conjunction with the county of Bedford; two Members of the House of Representatives; one Sheriff; one County Commissioner; and one Auditor. The Democratic Whigs are earnestly invited to attend said elections, so that a full and satisfactory expression of the popular will may be brought into the Convention.

By order of the County Committee. THEO. H. CREMER, Chairman. July 24, 1844.

Horrid Murder.

Much excitement has been created in New York by the discovery of a horrid murder perpetrated at West Hoboken, by two persons unknown, upon the body of a German whose name has been ascertained to be A. G. A. Martin or Decker, a resident at No. 42 Day street in the city. The deceased arrived in this country but about two weeks since, from the village of Heide in Holstein, Lower Saxony, Denmark, and brought with him several trunks of valuable clothing, merchandise, &c., and was supposed to have considerable money in his possession, as well as a valuable gold watch and heavy chain that he usually carried about him.

The New York Herald gives an account of the circumstances of his death briefly as follows:—A citizen of Brooklyn, Mr. A. Stout, while hunting for woodcock about a mile and a half northwest of Hoboken village, heard the discharge of pistols among some bushes on a hill about two hundred feet distant; as he approached near he overheard the sound of voices in low converse, and in a moment after, a man appeared upon a ledge about 150 feet from him and another within the distance of a few yards. Both went away, and one of them as he passed a puddle of water dipped his handkerchief in it and wiped his pantaloons in one or two places. Mr. Stout supposed at the time they had been practising with pistols and thought nothing of it. He soon after heard something like a groan but thought it was the cry of "a crow or some other bird that had been shot" and passed on.

When he had reached home, however, he reflected upon what he had seen and heard, and after mentioning it to several of his neighbors, he and they proceeded on Saturday morning, to search the place (a very secluded one,) which they did, and by the assistance of a pointer dog, found the body of the murdered man lying beneath a pile of stones covered with blood. On opening his vest and shirt, two wounds were found on his left breast, that appeared to have been given with a dirk or knife, and one gunshot wound, almost immediately opposite his heart. The body was free from smell, though surrounded by insects, and appeared to be dead but about twelve or fourteen hours only.—His left hand pantaloons pocket was turned inside out and emptied of its contents. In the other pocket four sovereigns and $1.56 silver change was found. He had no watch on his person. The ball had passed through his heart and lung, and caused instant death. The struggle must have been desperate and very close, as the wad of the pistol was found at the entrance of the wound.

A young man who had called at Martin's boarding house several times on Friday afternoon and Saturday morning, to inquire for him, has also been arrested.

A further examination will be held to day at Hoboken, in order to ascertain whether any light can be thrown upon this horrible affair.

The Nashville Union calls Mr. Polk the friend of the poor. The Louisville Journal thinks that he manifested a very extraordinary regard for the poor when he voted repeatedly against giving aid to the poor soldiers of the Revolution, all which he voted and spoke against giving a stick of wood to the poor women and children of Georgetown, who were literally freezing to death.

From the Daily Forum.

PETTY CONDUCT OF THE CANAL BOARD IN RELATION TO THE WHIG CONVENTION AT COLUMBIA, ON THE 25th INST.

There are occasional instances of meanness on the part of our public agents, which are so glaringly and so decidedly outrageous, that they deserve more than a passing comment. Some time since the Canal Commissioners authorized the carrying of excursion parties on the Columbia Railroad at reduced fare, until the 1st of September. This determination was duly announced by the agents, and the following is a copy of the regulations as promulgated for the use of those owning passenger cars on the road:

PHILADELPHIA, June 24th, 1844. Collectors Office C. and P. Railway. Messrs. D. MILLER & Co.

Gentlemen:—The Board of Canal Commissioners having authorized the carriage of Pleasure Parties upon Excursions on Columbia and Philadelphia Railway, I herewith furnish you with the regulations.

- 1st. No ticket shall be issued for a less number than twenty persons at any one trip.
2d. No ticket shall be issued for a longer period than three days.
3d. The price of such tickets shall not be less than ordinary toll on passengers, deducting therefrom the charge of motive power on such passengers.
4th. Such tickets shall not be issued unless the owner or owners of Passengers Cars will make a proportional reduction on the amount of their regular charges on passengers, over and above the tolls they now pay the State.
5th. No Excursion Ticket shall be issued after the 1st day of September next.

I respectfully request you will call at the office to consult in relation to the price to be charged. Yours, respectfully, JOHN S. CASH.

Upon the strength of this arrangement, the "Eagle Line" advertised to run Excursion Cars at the reduced fare of three dollars to Columbia and back from this city. Under these regulations the locofocos held their 4th July meetings in Lancaster county—their political friends were transported at the reduced prices, and some 150 or 500 of them sent gratuitously from Columbia to the city of Lancaster. The plan met the approbation of all, and was not only a great public convenience, but would have proved a source of revenue to the road, as the reduction of price would inevitably increase the travel.

But it so happened that the Whigs have announced a Convention to be held at Columbia on the 25th, and arrangements had been made to carry up a large delegation from the city. This seems to have startled the Canal Commissioners, and fearful of the effects of bringing the people together, that they may converse and receive political instruction, they immediately revoke their former regulations, and refuse to let the Whigs attend the Columbia Convention. The following is the first intimation which General MILLER had of this movement, and it was received at a time when all his arrangements had been made to carry a large delegation on tomorrow week.

PHILADELPHIA, July 15th, 1844. Dear Sir:—The opinion of the Canal Commissioners, as expressed to me on their late visit to this city, was decidedly adverse to a reduction of fare upon the Columbia and Philadelphia Railway, for persons attending political conventions, of either party. Such being the case, I am under the necessity of informing you, that I do not feel authorized to issue excursion tickets for the Convention at Columbia on the 25th inst.

Yours, respectfully, EDWARD F. GAY.

To General D. MILLER. Mr. GAY, the Superintendent, cannot issue excursion tickets on the 22th, but we will venture to say that if a locofoco Convention were to come off on the 26th, a different interpretation would be placed on the "opinion" of the Canal Board! The whole affair as it now stands, is about as mean and contemptible a piece of petty malice as can be imagined. The Board voluntarily assented, on the 24th of June, to the transportation of excursion passengers, but as soon as the Whigs wish to use the road, on the occasion of a Convention, this counter order is issued, with no other motive than the hope of preventing a full attendance at the Whig Convention.

We doubt whether a more contemptible procedure was ever known in our State, and we are confident that the Canal Board will be condemned by all for their course. That "political conventions" should be an exemption to the general rule of "excursions," and that the exception should not have been discovered during the various times the locos have used the road, and not until the very critical time when other arrangements cannot be made by the Whigs, must be acknowledged as very singular, to say the least of it. For our parts, we unhesitatingly pronounce it a most contemptible exhibition of petty spite in the Canal Commissioners, which cannot be excused. It is one of those acts which will be remembered and despised, and the meanness must recoil on those who commit it. If the Board had the interests of the State at heart, rather than a wish to do all possible injury to their political opponents, they would most certainly allow the regulations to stand as at first, because the rescinding will compel many to stay at home. It is, however, but a link in the chain of locofocoism, which uses every effort to restrain the free exercise of popular discussion, and will descend to any artifice to prevent the transmission of political truth.

Ex-Governor Ritner.

Among the last of the innumerable falsehoods floating through the locofoco papers, relative to changes from the Whig party, is one by the Pittsburgh Morning Post, asserting that Ex-Governor RITNER of this county has abandoned Mr. Clay and will support Polk.

To this we are able to give an AUTHENTIC DENIAL. Gov. Ritner DOES NOT oppose Mr. Clay and WILL NOT support James K. Polk. A friend informs us that when the libellous paragraph of the "Post" was shown to the patriotic old Governor it roused him, as it would any highminded opponent of locofocoism, to the highest indignation, and without a moment's hesitation he sternly declared "he would as soon cut off his right hand as desert his principles"—the sound principles he has clung to for years! This mails another of the falsehoods our opponents are so industriously circulating.

Carlisle Herald and Expositor.

THOMAS H. BENTON and MARTIN VAN BUREN voted to confirm Henry Clay as Secretary of State to Mr. Adams, while the "bargain and sale" charge was fresh and yet ringing in their ears. Their votes show, that they discredited it then as the people do now!

CRAWFORD COUNTY.—The Locos have nominated J. PORTER BRAWLEY for the State Senate, ALEXANDER POWER and JOSEPH GRAY for assembly, John M'Michael for Commissioner and Wm. G. Culbertson for Auditor, MORROW B. LOWRY was recommended for Congress!

The Niles (Michigan) Courier, a Whig paper, complains that the Locofocos of that region "undertake to create the belief that Van Buren's administration was Whig, and the Sub-Treasury a Whig measure!" On a par with this is the attempt in Pennsylvania to swindle the people into believing that JAMES K. POLK is a friend of protection! If he is, it is "such protection as wolves give to lambs."
