Our Candidate for Congress.

By a reference to the proceedings of the Whig Congressional Conference, in another column, it will be seen that honest JOHN BLANCHARD, of Centre county, has been nominated by acclamation, for Congress.

No man in the four counties composing this (the 17th) Congressional District is more deserving of the nomination than is Mr. Blanchard. All his life he has been a firm, zealous, unfaltering Whig. He has grown grey in the service of the Whig party, and in the advocacy of those measures and principles for which we as a party contend in the present contest. No matter how signal our defeat—however disheartened our forces and gloomy our prospects, he never sheathed his sword of Truth—his voice never faltered; but Spartan-like, he dealt out severer blows—his rallying cry growing louder, until at last our noble banner waved in glorious triumph over the prostrate cohorts of Locofocoism.

Mr. Blanchard is extensively known in this district, and whoever knows him also knows that he has strong claims upon the Whig party, and it is, therefore, a source of common gratification to the party that an opportunity is at last afforded to reward him in some degree for the valuable services which he has rendered. Through a long life at the Bar, he has so conducted himself that the enviable title of "honest John" has been bestowed upon him by his acquaintances.

Mr. Blanchard is now the Whig candidate of this Congressional District. Let but the Whigs—the true friends of the Tariff and Distribution go to the polls on the second Tuesday of October and do their duty, and "honest John" will be elected by such a majority as will astonish both friends and foes; and our word for it, as a representative, he will be found not only honest, but also faithful and true to the interests of his constituents.

Mr. Polk's Letter to Mr. Kane.

On the fourth page of to-day's paper we again publish Mr. Polk's revenue Tariff letter, ILLUSTRATED by extracts from Mr. Polk's "public acts" and "public discussions," &c. We bespeak for it an attentive perusal by our readers; and we commend it to stump orators as a useful document.

F. R. Shunk Nominated.

Francis R. Shunk, Esq., the veteran office holder, has been nominated by the Locofocos, to fill the place of Mr. Muhlenberg, as a candidate in opposition to Gen. Markle, the honest Farmer and veteran soldier, for the office of Governor of Pennsylvania.

The Hon W. S. Fulton, Senator of the United States from Arkansas, died at Rosewood, his residence, about a mile from Little Rock, on the 15th ult.

The returns of the Vermont election, as far as ascertained, look well. O. K.—Oil for Klay!

NOT TRUE.

The "Journal" of last week, designates the "Globe" as a rank loco foco paper, as "the organ of the mongrel disorganizers."

Our neighbor knew that he was falsely accusing us, and did it to help himself out of a dilemma. The "Globe" is, and shall be devoted to the interests and well being of the people and the democratic party—it is not, nor never will be the "organ" of any faction, and we trust it shall ever be the friend of the whole people; and if any of the people should think themselves aggrieved, we shall publish their proceedings, provided they are couched in decorous language. The resolves of public meetings, and communications from respectable quarters, when grievances are desired to be redressed, shall find in our paper an insertion. And the editor who refuses may prate about independence but his conduct will belie his professions.—Huntingdon Globe of last week.

So the "Globe" backs out, to save its credit; and then talks prettily about being the "friend of the whole people," and the openness of its columns for the reception of "the resolves of public meetings, and communications from respectable quarters, when grievances are desired to be redressed," &c. All this sounds very well; but we suppose many of the readers of the "Globe" still remember the efforts of that paper to "STIFLE the voice of the representatives of the people" as "Barree" complained in our paper of the 7th of February last, when the "Globe," which now boasts of being the "friend of the whole people"—Whigs, Locofocos, Mongrels and all—suppressed the doings of the "democratic" Convention to appoint delegates to the 4th of March Convention, notwithstanding it had pledged itself in its opening address "to uphold the delegated system" and to sustain all "its regular nominations." The secret of that movement was, that the "Globe" felt anti-Porter-ish and favored Saxon, and the Porter faction overpowered the opposition and elected Muhlenberg delegates. The Globe kept this dark—perhaps it did not consider it as coming from a "respectable quarter."

Truly the "Globe" has become very hypocritical—its practice too often belies its precepts.

Locofoco Candidate for Congress.

The Locofoco Conferees of this Congressional District have nominated Dr. JOSEPH HENDERSON, of Millin county. We have been informed that during a number of ballots Dr. Henderson had 7 votes and Gen. Wilson, of Huntingdon, 7. Finally one of the Wilson Conferees went over to Henderson.

KEEP IT BEFORE THE PEOPLE.

That Henry Clay is one of the most corrupt and immoral men that ever asked a high and exalted station in the Government, and that it would be placing us below the meanest and most degraded government on the face of the earth to place him in that high station.—Hunt. Globe of last week.

So says Mr. Lewis G. Mytinger who, if he tells the truth, knows about as much concerning Henry Clay as does an unfledged poke.

Now hear what a neighbor of Mr. Clay—the venerated and distinguished BASCOM says on this subject:

"I know the charges against the private character of Mr. Clay to be UTTERLY and BASELY false. . . . In view of the ORDINARY ACCREDITED PRINCIPLES OF GOOD MORAL CHARACTER, no charges can be brought against him without violating the obligations of TRUTH and sound JUSTICE."

AN UNPALATABLE TRUTH TOLD IN A MISTAKE.

We have heard that one of the speakers from this place, while addressing the late Locofoco Mass Meeting in Hollidaysburg, engaged in an elaborate discussion of the extent, progress, and origin of the Whigs, and unwittingly traced them as far back as the American Revolution, when it suddenly flashed upon his mind that there were but two parties in that trying period—WHIGS and TORIES, and that he was on the wrong side. He discovered the ugliness of his position; and, scratching his head in a moment, in perplexity, exclaimed, I don't mean the Whigs of the present day! Of course the speaker and his political friends were chagrined and mortified, while the Whigs present enjoyed a hearty laugh.

Some one of the "mongrels," or a Locofoco ally, is making mouths at the "Huntingdon Journal" and the Whig candidate for Sheriff, in order to show, we suppose, that the "mongrel" party is not altogether annihilated.

If the editor of the "Beacon Light" knows what his correspondent, "Revenue Cut," means in his article which to us is "as clear as mud," he is wiser than his neighbors.

Do tell, George; and also inform your readers whether you are the Organ par-excellence—of the "mongrels," since the "Globe" has backed out.

The Whigs of Centre county have nominated Col. William Murray for Assembly. And the Locofocos have nominated Col. James Burnside.

The Locofocos of Clinton county have nominated William Dunn for Congress, and Col. John Smith for Assembly.

There is a little "grease spot" of Jacob Creswell's "Mongrel" "Working" party left yet. It may be found in a conspicuous part of George R. McFarlane's sheet!

Gov. Letcher has appointed Thursday, the 26th inst., as a day of Annual Thanksgiving in Kentucky.

A HEALTHY TOWN.—The Barree, Mass., Gaz. says, "Not a death occurred in that town between the fourth day of May and the fifteenth day of August. An exemption from death for the space of nearly three months and a half in a population of over three thousand, and speaks well for the health of our thriving town."

EPISCOPAL CONVENTION.

The special convention of the Episcopal Church of the diocese of Pennsylvania assembled on Thursday evening last, in St. Andrew's Church. This Convention is called for the purpose of considering the proposed resignation of Bishop Onderdonk, or the expediency of electing an Assistant Bishop.

Congressional Conferee Meeting.

At a meeting of the delegates of the Congressional District, composing the counties of Huntingdon, Mifflin, and Juniata, held at the public house of Robert Fyfe, Mifflin county, on Tuesday, the 3rd of September 1844, the following persons presented their credentials and took their seats as Conferees, viz:

Huntingdon County.—Joseph Higgins, Adam H. Hall, John K. Neff, L. G. Kessler.
Centre County.—James Potter, Sen., Henry F. Tammam, David Duncan.
Mifflin County.—George W. Oliver, John Kerr, George Carney.

Juniata County.—John P. Sheets, Jos. Davis. JAMES POTTER, Sen., was chosen President, and L. G. Kessler, Secretary.

On motion of Adam H. Hall, JOHN BLANCHARD, Esq., of Centre county, was nominated as the Whig candidate for Congress, by acclamation, to represent the above named counties.

On motion, Resolved, That the proceeding of this Conference be signed by the officers, and be published in all the papers friendly to the Whig cause in this Congressional District.

Resolved, That all and each of us pledge ourselves to use all honorable and fair means to secure the election of the above named nominee.

JAMES POTTER, President.

L. G. KESSLER, Secretary.

DORRITES IN RHODE ISLAND.

The Supreme Court met at Newport last Tuesday, and adjourned on Thursday. But little business was transacted, and no jury cases were tried. Dutee J. Pearce and Daniel Brown, who were under indictment for violation of the act in relation to offences against the sovereign power of the State, took the oath of allegiance in open Court, as prescribed in the act of amnesty. These were the only indictments pending in the Court. We presume that the persons under indictment in this county will also take the oath.—No one but Dorr has ever objected to so reasonable a requisition.—Providence Journal, Sept. 2.

PASS ROUND HIS NAME.

A young sailor of Brooklyn, as we learn from the Advertiser of that city, displayed to singular advantage the proverbial courage and daring of his class, at a fire on Sunday evening. "While the house occupied by Mr. Haynes was wrapped in flames, and all the communication with it apparently cut off by the burning stables and buildings by which it was surrounded, the screams of a child were heard proceeding from the upper story of the house. The crowd seemed paralyzed with horror as the difficulties of approaching presented themselves, and the piteous shrieks of the child rang louder and louder upon the ear. The cries of the child, thank God, were not heard in vain: they rang an alarm in the heart of the young sailor, and every generous emotion was awakened. Springing forward, the noble fellow dashed through the flames, mounted the burning stair case, and in a few moments the loud cheers of the admiring crowd proclaimed that the child and deliverer were both safe. His name is EDWARD GUNNING! Pass it through the country, so that should he ever get into difficulty, or need a friend, the noble feat recorded above may rise up, and like the voice of an angel advocate, plead in his behalf.

SAD DOINGS IN TEXAS.

The New Orleans Picayune of the 22nd ult. says that there are rumors of bloody doings in Shelby and Harrison counties, Texas, near the Louisiana line. The "Moderators" and "Regulators," as they term themselves, are arrayed against each other, and number about two hundred each. Several have been killed, houses burned and plantations destroyed. This is truly a horrible state of things. We also learn, verbally, that one Davis, the leader of the "Regulators," has been shot, with twelve or fifteen others. It is further stated, that General Henderson was about to leave Shreveport to use his influence to bring about an arrangement of the difficulties.

Our private advices from the Texan seat of government, says the New York Sun, announce the arrival there, near the end of July, of despatches from Mexico, the nature of which had not transpired. Some said they contained a formal and final call upon "the Department of Texas" to acknowledge Mexican sovereignty, and send representatives to the National Congress; others, that a private bargain was going on between President Sam Houston and President Santa Anna, by which Texas was to obtain an acknowledgement of her independence from Santa Anna, on condition that she made a favorable commercial treaty with England, abolish slavery, and agree to pay an indemnity of twelve millions to Mexico. The excitement in relation to these despatches was daily increasing. The very secret manner in which President Houston was conducting the negotiations had aroused suspicions as to his integrity, and arrangements had been made to intercept the return messenger, break open the despatches and publish their contents in the Texan newspapers.

A SNAKE STORY.

A correspondent of the New York Sun says that a female snake, measuring about four feet in length, was captured in the vicinity of Patterson, New Jersey, on Wednesday last, together with twenty-three young ones, each about ten inches long. When first discovered, the young ones were playing around the mother, but on the latter being assailed she opened her mouth and they darted down her throat with the rapidity of lightning. She then gave battle in earnest attacking her assailant with great fury, keeping him at bay for some minutes, but she had to bite the dust. The young ones were taken out alive. The body of the old one was dark brown, and the eyes pale blue.

A Miserable Concern.

Twelve or thirteen "Mongrel" delegates met in county convention, in the Old Court House, yesterday afternoon, and nominated the following ticket.

Sheriff—Nathaniel Lytle, of Franklin tp.

Assembly—Jacob Creswell, of Huntingdon, Thomas Johnston, of Canoe Creek.

Commissioner—John Bumbaugh, of Huntingdon.

Auditor—James Dysart, of Franklin tp.

Messrs. Lytle, Johnston and Dysart will probably not accept the doubtful honor of such a nomination.

A Screw Loose.

On Wednesday last, at about 10 o'clock, we received a letter from Mr. JOHN HUYETT, relative to the disorganizing movements of the "Mongrels," which letter we published, at the request of Mr. H., in as many of last week's papers as were unprinted at that time—about 200 copies. Afterwards the publication of it was countermanded, and therefore it is omitted in to-day's paper. In said letter Mr. Huyett used the following patriotic language.

"I have understood that my name has been used in connection with others, in giving effect to a spirit of disorganization in the Whig and Antimasonic party of this county. I was not applicant for office at the late County Convention, neither am I at this time.

"I have no doubt but that there was some dissatisfaction at some of the nominations of the late County Convention, as there always is by those who wish place and do not succeed. So far as I am acquainted with the candidates, now before the Whig and Antimasonic party, they are all good men and true; and so far as my support can aid in their election, each of the candidates shall have it.

"I would therefore recommend to every Whig and Antimason in the county, who has one spark of patriotism, or any feeling for the distressed millions of our country to lay aside all prejudices at this time and act for the general good.

Frightful explosion and Loss of Life.

Office of the Reading Democratic Press

Tuesday morning, 5 o'clock, Sept. 3, 1844.

FOUR MEN KILLED—BURSTING OF A BOILER ON THE READING & POTTSVILLE RAILROAD.

We are again called upon to record one of the most frightful accidents that ever occurred upon this road. The boiler of the engine burst last night at 9 o'clock, about 2 miles from Reading, instantly killing Joseph Ward, Engineer, Jas. M' Cabe, Conductor, John Tye and Peter Mahan, Firemen, whose lifeless bodies were found several hours after, in a frightful state of mutilation in a field near by, in which lay also the boiler, which had been torn from the wheels with irresistible force, and hurled from the bed and wheels of the engine, which were entirely demolished.

The watch in Mr. M' Cabe's pocket was found to have stopped at 20 minutes after 9, and from this circumstance this accident must have occurred at that hour last night.

At the time of the accident the train was under full headway, and the explosion must have been instantaneous as it was fatal. It was raining in abundance, and vivid flashes of lightning were playing in the heavens, and it is supposed that a heavy bolt of electricity struck the engine. It must have been caused by lightning, as all circumstances prove that to no other cause can it be attributed.

The mangled bodies of the slain were brought to town last night, and exhibited frightful evidence of the combined power of steam and electricity, and its effects upon the engine, named "Richmond," destroying her completely, tearing every joint asunder, scattering the men and fragments in all directions.

HOW TO GET HEALTH.—Thousands of persons continue to cure themselves of Colds, Coughs, Headache, Rheumatic Affections, Small Pox Measles, Costiveness, Influenza, and the host of those indications of the body of the blood being out of order, simply by perseveringly using Brandreth's Vegetable Universal Pills, so long as any symptoms of derangement in any organ remain. Often, by adopting this course, which experience has proved is according to nature, it being merely assisting her, have many in a few days been restored to health, who but for the Brandreth Pills had been sick for months. The value of this medicine is indeed beyond price.

Purchase the genuine medicine of Wm. Stewart, Huntingdon, Pa., and other agents published in another part of this paper.

INFLUENZA AND CONSUMPTION.—It is indeed a melancholy truth that thousands fall victims to Consumption every year, from no other cause than neglected Colds; yet we find hundreds, nay thousands, who treat such complaints with the greatest indifference, and let them run on for weeks and even months, without thinking of the danger. At first you have what you consider a slight cough or cold; you allow business, pleasure, or carelessness to prevent you from giving it any attention; it then settles upon your breast—you become hoarse, have pains in the side or chest, expectorate large quantities of matter, perhaps mixed with blood; a difficulty of breathing ensues, and then you find your own foolish neglect has brought on this complaint. If, then, you value life or health, be warned in time, and do not trifle with your Cold, but to any quack nostrum to cure you; but immediately procure a bottle or two of that famous remedy, Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, which is well known to be the most speedy cure ever known, as thousands will testify whose lives have been saved by it.

For Influenza, it is the very best medicine in the world, as hundreds will testify.

DIED.

On Wednesday, the 5th inst., of Dysentery, in Aaronsburg, Centre county, Pa., GEORGE L. GENTZELL, aged about 22 years.

At the residence of his father, in Armagh, Ind. county, Pa., of Typhus Fever, on Thursday, the 5th inst., JAMES A. HEMPHILL, aged about 21 years.

[Communicated.]

The deceased was for a number of years a resident of this place—he removed early last spring to the residence of his father. During his long sojourn here he was always healthy and robust.—Some few weeks ago, he in fine spirits, took an excursion along the Canal, (his first trial on water for a number of years,) to see the country; on his course homeward he became quite unwell; after his return, the disease took a fierce hold on him, and it continued on, until at last he was cut off from this world—taken to "his long home from whence no traveller returns."

It is indeed very consoling to those he left behind to mourn his loss, to know that he has gone the "narrow and straight way," that leads to Heaven, the way all Christians go. He was a member of the Presbyterian Church of this place. "Peace be unto his ashes!"

Who here can tell when their time will come? The whole world answers none! Then reader, reflect, healthy or unhealthy, remember that your time will come, "not knowing the day nor the hour."

JAMES STEEL, Proth'y.

Proth'y's Office, Huntingdon, Sept. 11, 1844.

PICTURE OF HEALTH.—Health is characterized in an individual by the absence of all pain, suffering or affection in any part of his body; by the free and regular exercise of all his functions without any exception. They consist in having a good appetite at meal times, an easy digestion, free evacuations, without looseness or costiveness at least once in every twenty-four hours, and without heat, dryness, or burning at the passage; the free issue of water without acrimony or burning, and without a reddish sediment which is always a sign of a present or an approaching pain; quiet sleep without agitation or troublesome dreams; no taste of bile or other bad taste in the mouth upon rising in the morning; no sourness or disagreeable rising of the stomach; a clean tongue; a sweet breath; no itching, pimples or spots on the skin; no piles; no burning heat upon any part of the body; no excessive thirst when unexposed to labor or other known cause; no interruption to any natural evacuation, nor pain at their periodical return.

Where the state of the system does not harmonize with the above picture of health, it is of the greatest importance that no time be lost in sending for a doctor, or in the use of foolish remedies too often the result of speculation; instead of this course let a dose of Brandreth's Pills be taken, which will not deceive, but will at once restore health to the organ or part that requires it.

All who wish to preserve their health, all who are determined to defend their life against the encroachments of disease which might send them prematurely to the grave, will, without hesitation, have recourse to the Brandreth's Pills, when the state of the system does not harmonize with the above picture of health.

Those who live in a country where contagious or other diseases prevail, should often think of this true picture of health, and observe himself with particular attention, in order to act accordingly. The wise and rightly directed will follow this advice—the useful are left to their own destruction.

Dr. Brandreth's Pills are for sale by the following Agents in this county.

Wm. Stewart, Huntingdon.
