Polk's Tariff Letter to J. K. Kane.

Much is daily said, and frequent reference made by the Loco Foco leaders to Mr. Polk's letter to J. K. Kane, as evidence that Mr. Polk is in favor of such a Tariff as the people of Pennsylvania desire. Such assertions and such reference are an insult to every intelligent man who can understand the English language; and hardly deserve a contradiction, much less any effort to expose such shallow attempts at deception. That letter needs but to be read, to be understood. Mr. Polk does not pretend he has ever changed his views upon the subject, on the contrary, he shows that he has not. This letter simply tells the reader where he can find those opinions as he, Mr. Polk, "has often given them to the public"—in his public acts and discussions in which he has participated. To his public acts and discussions, the reader is referred; and in them he can find his opinions, for he has not changed them.

It is often useful if not absolutely necessary, to have the proof at hand to expose, even a palpable absurdity. In order therefore to furnish you, readers, a brief and convenient compendium of Mr. Polk's Tariff opinions, I have compiled some of his "acts and discussions"—and have inserted them in this letter, that James K. Polk, may thus tell the people, what James K. Polk means in his letters to J. K. Kane. His explanations are in italics, and are inserted where he refers to them. In this shape it makes it a whole letter—and none can complain, as it is all Mr. Polk's own language except the last, which is extracted from the resolutions of the Baltimore Convention, also referred to in the letter. Most of the extracts from his "acts and discussions" are taken from Mr. Polk's letters, speeches, &c., as I find them in a paper openly advocating his election. Should you think the whole of use for publication it is at your disposal.

A. W. B.

COLUMBIA, Tennessee.

June 19, 1844.

DEAR SIR:—I have received recently several letters in reference to my opinions on the subject of the tariff, and among others yours of the 30th ult. My opinions on this subject have been often given to the public. They are to be found in my public acts, and in the public discussions in which I have participated. "The difference between the course of the Whig party and myself is, that whilst they are the advocates of distribution and a protective tariff, measures which I CONSIDER INJURIOUS to the country and especially to the interests of the planting states I have steadily OPPOSED BOTH. — All who have observed my course, know that I have at all times been OPPOSED to the PROTECTIVE TARIFF—I was opposed to the Protective Tariff of 1828, and voted against it.—I voted for the act of 1832 BECAUSE IT REDUCED THE TARIFF OF 1828 to lower rates. That made SOME REDUCTION but NOT AS MUCH AS I desired."

I am in favor of a Tariff for revenue, such a one as will yield a sufficient amount to the Treasury to defray the expenses of the Government economically administered. "I am opposed to the act of 1842, not regarding it to be a revenue tariff, but in many of its provisions highly protective and oppressive in its character. I am in favor of the restoration of the compromise act of 1833." In adjusting the details of a revenue tariff, I have heretofore sanctioned such moderate discriminating duties, as would produce the amount of revenue needed, and at the same time afford reasonable incidental protection to our home industry. I am opposed to a tariff for protection merely, and not for revenue. "I voted for the act of 1832 BECAUSE it reduced the tariff of 1828 to lower rates. I voted for the act of 2d March 1833, (the compromise act) which REDUCED the rates of the act of 1828 to STILL LOWER RATES and FINALLY BROUGHT them down to a point at which no article was after the 30th June, 1842 to be subject to a duty higher than 20 PER CENT. This was the law when the Whig Congress came into power. My own opinion is that wool should be duty free."

Acting upon these general principles, it is well known that I gave my support to the policy of Gen. Jackson's administration on this subject. I voted against the tariff act of 1828. I voted for the act of 1832, which contained modifications of some of the objectionable provisions of the act of 1828. As a member of the Committee of Ways and Means of the House of Representatives, I gave my assent to a bill reported by that Committee in December, 1832, making further modifications of the act of 1828, and making also discriminations in the imposition of the duties which it proposed. That bill did not pass, but was superseded by the bill commonly called the Compromise bill, for which I voted.

In my judgment, it is the duty of the government, to extend, as far as it may be practicable to do so, by its revenue laws and all other means within its power, fair and just protection to all the great interests of the whole Union, embracing agriculture, manufacturers, the mechanic arts, commerce, and navigation. "I am opposed to a tariff for Protection. I have at all times opposed the protective policy.—I am in favor of a tariff for revenue and opposed to a tariff for protection. In the present [late] canvass for Governor I had avowed my opposition to the tariff act of the late Whig Congress as being highly protective in its character and not designed as a revenue measure." I had avowed my opinion in my public speeches that the interests of the country and especially of the producing and exporting states required its repeal and the restoration of the principles of the Compromise tariff act of 1833. I am not in favor of the tariff act now in force passed by the last Congress, [of 1842.] I heartily approve the resolutions upon this subject, passed by the Democratic National Convention, lately assembled at Baltimore. "It is the duty of every branch of the Government to ensure and practice the most rigid economy in conducting our public affairs and that no more revenue ought to be raised than is required to defray the necessary expenses of Government.

I am, with great respect,
Dear sir, your ob't. servant,
JAMES K. POLK.

Dr. Moffat's Life Pills

PHENIX BITTERS.
The perfectly safe, unerring and successful treatment of almost every species of disease by the use of Dr. MOFFAT'S LIFE MEDICINES, is no longer an experiment; as a reference to the experience of many thousand patients will satisfactorily prove. During the present month alone, nearly one hundred cases have come to the knowledge of Dr. MOFFAT, where the patient has to all appearance, effected a permanent cure by the exclusive and judicious use of the Life Medicines—some eight or ten of these had been considered hopeless by their physicians. Such happy results are a source of great pleasure to Dr. M., and inspire him with a new confidence to recommend the use of his medicines to his fellow citizens.
The LIFE MEDICINES are a purely VEGEtable preparation. They are mild and pleasant in their operation, and at the same time thorough—acting rapidly upon the secretions of the system—carrying off all acrimonious humours, and assimilating and purifying the blood. For this reason, in aggravated cases of Dyspepsia, the Life Medicines will give relief in a shorter space of time than any other prescription. In Fever and Ague, Inflammatory Rheumatism, Fevers of every description, Sick Headaches, Heartburn, Dizziness in the Head, Pains in the Chest, Flatulency, Impaired Appetite, and in every disease arising from impurity of the blood, or a disordered state of the stomach, the use of these medicines has always proved to be beyond doubt, greatly superior to any other mode of treatment.
All that Dr. Moffat asks of his patients is to be particular in taking them according to the directions. It is not by a newspaper notice, or by any thing that he may say in their favour, that he hopes to gain credit. It is alone by the result of a fair trial. Is the reader an invalid and does he wish to know whether the Life Medicines will suit his own case? If so, let him call at the office of the agent, and procure a copy of the Good Samaritan, published gratuitously. He will there find enumerated very many extraordinary cases of cure; perhaps some exactly similar to his own.
